Summer Class to Do 'Cinderella'

The beloved story of "Cinderella," written for the first time into a complete musical by Judith A. Rohm and Lois Smith, will be presented on Monday evening, July 29th at 7:30 p.m. at the Farmington Junior High School. The combined forces of the Farmington Summer School Creative Dramatics class, and the elementary instrumental classes, will present the famous story in its new musical form.

A cast of fifteen students from the new summer Creative Dramatics class will present the play in complete costumes, and with make-up and set designs. The class includes students from grades 3 through 6 and is taught by Miss Judith Rohm.

MISS ROHM'S advanced speech students from North Farmington High School will be helping with properties and sets, and student director Miss Rohm stated that names of cast members and committees would be announced next week. She also extended a special invitation to all parents and children to attend the performance on July 29th to see this real, live elementary dramatic presentation, which will illustrate some of the work done in the newly created dramatics class for summer students.
