Acker-Hamilton Vows Spoken Saturday, July 6

Miss Carolyn Elaine Acker, daughter of Mr. Walter Acker of Hastings, Michigan and Mrs. Virginia Lee Lansing of Lansing, Michigan, exchanged wedding vows Saturday, July 6, with Mr. Dennis Frederick Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton at 2707 Ridgewood Drive in Farmington, in the Immanuel Baptist Church, Lansing.

The officiating clergyman at the double ceremony was the Rev. Randall Green.

THE BRIDE, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white silk organza gown with a chapel train, cathedral sleeves, Venice lace garland around a portrait neckpiece and French silk tulle veil secured by a silk taffeta full rose headpiece. She carried a bouquet of white orchids.

MRS. DENNIS F. HAMILTON

The matron of honor was Mrs. Clarence Wright Lansing. She wore a gown of aqua satin with a bell skirt and a matching headpiece of full bloom rose and green with a floating shoulder panel, white accessories and a white gardenia corsage.

Bridesmaids were Miss Gayle Lynn Hamilton of Farmington (sister of the bridegroom) and Miss Brenda Barnes of Lansing. They wore gowns matching that worn by the matron of honor. Their flowers were cascade bouquets of white carnations.

THE GROOM, the brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. Groomsman and ushers were Klare Acker of Lansing (brother of the bride) and David Tully of Detroit.

For the wedding the bride's mother chose a dress of chiffon in a mixture of pastel yellow and green with a floating shoulder panel, white accessories and a white gardenia corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a jacketed sheath of white lace over pink beige tulle, a veiled pink hat and white accessories with a pink gardenia corsage.

A reception was held following the wedding ceremony in the Church parlors. The newlyweds toured northern Michigan on their honeymoon and are now making their home in Ferndale, Michigan.

Speak Wedding Vows Recently

The Holy Trinity Lutheran Church of Chassell, Michigan was the scene of a summer wedding on Saturday, June 22, at 7:30 p.m. when Miss Dorothy Mae Wirtman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wirtman of Chassell, became the bride of Mr. George Keith Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts, Sr. of Livonia.

The Rev. Arnold Stadius performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. William Mikkoia, soloist, was accompanied by Miss Barbara Lutinen of Chassell at the organ.

THE BRIDE, escorted down the aisle by her father who gave her in marriage, chose a floor-length gown of chantilly lace, pearl taffeta. Her veil fell over a crown of pearls and aurore crystals. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace which was a gift from the bridegroom.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and carnations.

JENNIFER JARVIE of Livonia, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Douglas Hanaford of Livonia served the bridegroom as best man. Groomsman were Ronald Tlovet and Tony Giacobazzi. Ushers were David Van Zant and Robert Prediger of Livonia.

The bride's mother chose a Seize dress with white accessories and a pink corsage of pink roses.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a lavender lace dress with white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

A reception was held following the church ceremony at the American Legion Hall in Hamcock, Michigan.

Following the reception, the newlyweds left on a honeymoon trip to the Wisconsin Dells. The couple plan to make their home in Livonia, Michigan where the bridegroom is employed.

Fashion Show Held by Young Ladies of Area

The young ladies of Farmington Hills subdivision held a fashion show Wednesday, July 17.

The show, organized by Mary Dew and Sheila Chamberlin, was held in Mary Dew's backyard on Dohany Drive. The tickets were five cents and the money was to be given to a worthy cause.

FEATURED MODELS in the show were Sheila Chamberlin, Mary Dew, Angela Evangelista, Kathy Houchins, Kay Manock, Debbie Sutton, Cindy Yull and Cathy Yull.

The models ran in age from three to ten years. While soft music played in the background, the models wore the latest fashions which ranged from school clothes to sportswear, to first communion and flower girl dresses.

Following the fashion show refreshments of cookies, iced cake, coffee and kool-aid were served to the mothers and other guests.

In Play Cast At Will-O-Way

Farm-Belyn of 28729 Bannockburn Drive in Farmington is the east of the production next to be presented at Will-O-Way Playhouse.

Contemporary music and a moving mountain will add to the magical mood of Shakespeare's "The Tempest" when it is presented Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 27, 28 and 29 at Will-O-Way-Apprentice Theatre.

THE CURTAIN OPENS at 8:00 p.m. for the student representation at 775 W. Long Lake Road, Bloomfield Hills.

Since the poetry and song of "The Tempest" call for an almost operatic treatment of many scenes, Will-O-Way Director Celia Merrill has had composed original music for the production.

To give it the magic and excitement which Shakespeare wrote into the play, I felt the music should have an actual, modern sound," said Mrs. Turner.

The composer of a number of works, Mrs. Turner is the associate conductor of the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra.

UNUSUAL LIGHTING effects and a mountain on a revolving stage are planned for the production by Duane Peck, Will-O-Way associate director. By means of the revolving stage, the audience will see several views of the mountain side on which "The Tempest" is set.

Reservations may be made by telephoning Will-O-Way at MI-4-4418.

Miss Mary Helen Cooley Speaks Wedding Vows

Miss Mary Helen Cooley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cooley of 2280 Maple Ave. in Farmington, exchanged wedding vows Saturday, June 29, in a 6 p.m. candlelight ceremony with Mr. James Paul Boman, son of Frank Boman and the late Mrs. Velma Boman of Gladwin, Michigan.

The double ring ceremony took place in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Livonia, with the pastor, Rev. Jay Coulton, officiating. White flowers and candles decorated the church altar.

The "Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung in honor of the bride and bridegroom by Miss Cooley's college roommate, Melanie Riggins of Muncie, Indiana.

THE BRIDE was radiant in her floor-length gown of chantilly lace. The gown featured long pointed sleeves, a scalloped neck line ornamented with pearls and sequins and a flowing chapel train.

Her finger-tip illusion veil was secured by a lace and pearl crown with crystal tear-drops. The bride's bouquet was made up of white roses and a white orchid insert.

Miss Diane Cooley, the sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore a street-length pink lace sheath with a matching full over-skirt. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were Karen Scheffer and Mary Ann Boylan. They wore dresses styled to match the matron of honor's rose organza. Their hairdresses were three-petal crowns with crystal tear-drop securing short bouffant veils. The bride's attendants carried bouquets of flowers matching their gowns.

JACK BOMAN, the brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Groomsman were Douglas Groomman and William Watts. The usher was Jerry Leuenberger. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

At the wedding, the bride's mother wore a blue lace sheath with a white petal hat and blue shoes. She wore a white orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's step-mother, Mrs. Harriet Boman, wore a white sheath with a green floral jacket and matching accessories. Her corsage was made up of yellow roses and white carnations, and her accessories were a bracelet and earrings aqua dress with short sleeves.

The bride graduated from Farmington Senior High School in 1959 and is a senior at Central Michigan University, majoring in music. The bridegroom teaches history and speaks at Gladwin High School, Gladwin, Michigan, and it is a 1962 graduate of Central Michigan University.

The couple plan to make their home in Gladwin.

"MEMOS" FROM YOUR STYLIST

Here are a few stray facts concerning women and beauty. Although women who refrain from looking young after their time, this makes the hair grow faster and together, such is not the case. It is found that American women are tattooed. Have you heard it said that some women grow old before their time trying to look young after their time? Strangely, candy bars and perfume have something in common—both contain salicylic acid. Not so strangely, there is scarcely a head of hair in six counties that won't respond beautifully to a permanent at JEAN'S BEL-AIRE BEAUTY SHOP.
