Seventh Traffic Fatality

or were the two occupants of the other car.

WITNESSES TOLD Farmington Police Officer Zebell's car was traveling at an excessive speed and ran the red light.

Mounton J. Allison of 9207 Rockshire in Farmington was seriously injured Sunday morning at 12:20 a.m., when his car was struck from the rear by a driven by Duran J. Churchill of 2620 Farmington. Allerton's car was waiting for traffic to clear in order to turn onto Middlebelt Road from 12 Mile when the accident occurred.
Churchill and a passenger in Albert Sladen, 35, of Warren, Michigan, were driving to a house when the two-car crash at 12 Mile and Parkhill Road Tuesday afternoon, August 13. He was taken to William Beaumont Hospital.

Churchill, 32, of the other car Helen Hormann, 54, of Detroit was not injured. She was attempting to turn onto 12 Mile from Parkhill when struck by the east-bound car driven by Sladen.

THE THREE-CAR collision at Farmington Road and Eight Mile was to turn onto 12 Mile from Parkhill.

It was his feeling that to benefit businesses should stand the cost. He also voiced concern with the need for this access and with safety problems which might be experienced.

TWO CITIZENS of Alta Loma Subdivision where Forrest resides also voiced objection to the expenditure of city taxpayers' money in this manner as did W. Allen Nelson of Farmington.

During discussion it was brought out that a survey made earlier had shown that a large number of motorists and pedestrians use this area to go to and from the parking lot to business establishments on Grand River.

Injured in the crash were three of the five passengers in Cairns' car, Betty Lewis, 28; and children, Loren, 3, and Robert I. The accident occurred Tuesday afternoon, August 13.
