Mrs. William Greene and daughter, Janet, the Choir Director and Organist, have held extra rehearsals, in addition to the regular Wednesday schedule, to prepare for the very special Christ Choir Concert next Sunday, December 22, at 7 p.m.

The Carol, Chapel, and Chancel Choirs totaling some 90 voices will present the Christmas Cantata "Good Tidings."

All of the Church School children took part in their special program last Sunday evening, "The Symbols of Christmas."

Each class presented a song about the symbols, such as; the Manger, the Bells, the Star, the Wreath, the Gift, Love, the Candle and Tree Decorations.

The older grades told the Christmas story from the Scriptures and presented a Nativity Pageant.

The Program Chairmen were Mrs. Ray Hatch and Mrs. Victor Palmer and Organist, Mrs. Ivan Hoskinson.

Church Music Program Here

Christmas music will highlight two services this week at the Universalist-Unitarian Church of Farmington—the regular 10 a.m. service Dec. 22 and a special time of carol singing at 7 p.m. Christmas Eve.

A children's choir, and adult quartet and a recorder quartet will supply the Sunday music.

The youngsters, directed by Mrs. Neil McCallum and Mrs. Martin Gluckstein of Farmington, will have four numbers. They are "Dona Nobis Pacem," the Hebrew song "Shalom Havay Reem," "We Believe in Christmas," and "The Friendly Beasts."

Mrs. McCallum and Mrs. Gluckstein will join John Millhone and the Rev. Robert M. Eddy in "Pat-a-pan," a Burgundian carol, assisted by Mrs. Robert Eddy on the recorder and the children's voices.

The recorder quartet will be made up of Mr. and Mrs. Eddy and Mr. and Mrs. William Thornton.

Mr. Eddy's sermon for Christmas Sunday will be titled "Men Who Became God." He said he would examine the idea of incarnation and its possible validity for those who reject the theory of a special incarnation or the Christian teaching on redemption.

All members and friends of the church are invited to the informal carol service Christmas Eve.

Christmas Carol Festival Planned at First Methodist

Sunday, December 22, the First Methodist Church on Grand River near Farmington Road will offer two Christmas Carol programs — afternoon, 4-5:15 and evening, 7:30-8:45. An hour-long Belfrey Carol Prelude will precede each service and will be amplified so that the music can be heard several blocks from the church.

Reverend Richard T. Markham, pastor of the church, hopes that the Festival will become a church homecoming and unite families, friends and the community. Here is an opportunity for every family in the Farmington area to capture the spirit of Christmas and sing along with the choirs, the beautiful old Christmas Carols.

Dr. Delbert Johnson, minister of music, will conduct the festival singing, assisted by Mr. Alex Nagy, the lay leader. Mrs. Robert Cook will conduct the Cherub and Carol Choirs. Four groups of three carols in each group will be sung by the congregation. All three choirs will sing special Christmas music between the four groups of Carols. The Cherub Choir will sing only in the afternoon, the Carol Choir will sing only in the evening. The fifty-voice Chancel Choir will sing in both services and will conclude the festival with the magnificent Hallelujah Chorus.

Mrs. Alice Brooks, and Mrs. Gerald Harrison, will accompany the massed choirs and congregation with the organ and piano. There are also several special instrumental selections planned that are certain to be enjoyed by all.

The entire community is invited. Bring your family and friends. Come early to get a good seat, listen to the Belfrey Prelude and enjoy a real, honest-to-goodness, Old Time Community-Wide Christmas Carol Festival.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES J. BRUHN

Carole Sue Tippett Weds James J. Bruhn

Miss Carole Sue Tippett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Tippett of 28133 Wellington Road in Farmington Township, exchanged wedding vows Saturday, November 30, in Franklin Community Church, Franklin Village, Michigan with Mr. James Joseph Bruhn, son of Mrs. Bruhn and the late Fred Bruhn of Grand Haven, Michigan.

The Rev. Kenneth Callis officiated at the double ring wedding ceremony at 7 p.m.

FOR HER WEDDING, the bride wore a white peau de soie gown with Alencon lace, a full skirt, floor length with wide front and back panels of lace. The gown's sleeves were of lace that came to a point over the hand. The bride's headdress was a pearl etched petal which secured a tiered veil of silk illusion.

The bride carried a bouquet of phalaenopsis, stephanotis and ivy with a cascade bow.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Miss Judy Tippett. She wore a red brocade with a bell shaped skirt, scooped neck and elbow length sleeves. Her flowers were a nosegay of peppermint striped carnations centered on a white muff with red velvet streamers.

Bridesmaids were Carole Duncan, Amy Beth Haydel and Jane Short. They wore dresses matching the maid of honor's. Their bouquets also matched the maid of honor's.

FRED BRUHN, the bridegroom's brother, served as best man. Groomsmen were Jim Braak, Bill Redeker and Donald Boerma.

Kathy Lynn Achterhof, four-year-old niece of the bridegroom, served as the flower girl. Miss Elizabeth Humphrey was the organist.

For the occasion of her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Tippett chose a cocoa lace street length sheath with matching accessories. She wore a brown cymbidium orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a royal blue brocade with a matching jacket and navy accessories. She wore a green cymbidium orchid corsage.

A RECEPTION was held in the church basement following the wedding ceremony. Serving the guests were Jeanette Rae Vesey and Charlotte Ann Walker, both cousins of the bride.

For her California honeymoon, the bride chose a beige wool costume suit with matching accessories for traveling.

The bridegroom is a 1963 graduate of Ferris State College where the bride also attended.

Christian Science Church Sermon Set

The virgin birth of Christ Jesus will be explained in this Sunday's Bible Lesson at all Christian Science churches.

Readings from the Bible will include the angel's message to Mary: "The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God" (Luke 1:35).

From the Christian Science textbook, these lines will be read: "The illumination of Mary's spiritual sense put to silence material law and its order of generation, and brought forth her child by the revelation of Truth, demonstrating God as the Father of men" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 29).

The Lesson - Sermon is entitled: "Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?"

Seventh Day Adventist Christmas Program

A Christmas program of music and narration will be presented by the combined Farmington and Livonia Church choirs, at the Livonia Seventh-day Adventist Church, 15959 Middlebelt Road in Livonia, at 3:30 p.m., on Saturday, Dec. 21. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Plans Set for Candlelight Carol Service

The Southfield Community Church (21122 Indian, between Beech and Inkster roads, north of 8 Mile) will hold its traditional Candlelight Carol service from 11 p.m. to midnight on Christmas Eve, Dec. 24, according to Pastor Raymond Bayne.

Always a delightful service with its beautiful decorations, candlelight and lovely music, this service will afford an opportunity for Christmas worship at an hour when all other activities are at a standstill. It will be a family service.

USING SONG AND Scripture to tell the Christmas story, there will be carol singing by the audience and special music by the choir, the Girls Quartet consisting of Jean, Linda and Mary Clarke and Stephanie Miles, and instrumental music.

On Sunday evening, December 22 at 7 o'clock, the annual Bible School family Christmas program will be presented by the various departments of the Bible School, under the direction of Mrs. Donald Yadlosky, with a play entitled "This Shall be a Sign." Boxes of candy will be given to all children attending. Carol singing will be from beautifully illustrated slides on a large screen.

On Sunday evening, December 29, the annual Student Night will be in charge of the college students of the church who will present music, testimonies and a message. This service has become a "Backhome" night as old timers return for the evening.

Youth activities during the Christmas season will include carolling by three of the Youth Choirs at Rest homes and for shut-ins and an ice skating outing for the High Schoolers.
