Jingle Bells, Jingle Bells, Our-Santas on the way. A convertible will be his out-horse open sleigh.

Santa Claus is coming to Briar Hill on Sunday, Dec. 22. So be on the look out, kiddies. He will arrive about 1 p.m., parade down all the streets and take over the pump house lot to sit in state. Follow on down and give him your last minute instructions.

The monthly meeting of the Briar Hill Association board members was held at Joe Colombo's on Dec. 12. Twenty plans were made for the fourth Saturday of Jan. More on this in following columns.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY to the following Sagittarians: Ruth Ramsey, Kelly Emmett, Marjane Cassidy, Pam Moffitt, Geraldine Lupia, Cindy Huz, Ginny Robb, Kaye Britton, Nancy Auman, and the following Capricorns: Donna Hug, Maureen Lupia, Roy Schenkel, Debbie Setler and Debbie Bramlage.

Congratulations to Betty and Jack Emmett with their anniversary on Dec. 6.

Jeanne Mayer and Kathy Dunn helped Ruth Ramsey celebrate her birthday on Dec. 11 by taking her to lunch at the Canopy on Orchard Lake Road. Ruth's mother-in-law helped out by staying with John, who was some sick.

The nursery school which Kelly Emmett attends had a special treat Dec. 13. She brought 35 cupcakes decorated with a 5. Later, her mother took her to lunch at a restaurant.

A SURPRISE two-day visit was paid to Monica and Don on Dec. 4 by the Williams Winks of San Jose, Calif. Don and his wife, the Winks on their trip to Hawaii, 2 years ago, and have continued their friendship via the mails.

The Men's Investment Club of Briar Hill treated their wives to dinner at the Eacore Restaurant on Sunday, Dec. 8. Bob and Margie Scott served cocktails at their home at 5 p.m. and then all went on to dinner. Enjoying the evening were the Scotts, Arazus, Andriegers, Flemings, Hatches, Himmans, Hopkins, Hugs, Lemus, Palmers, Sloanes, and Vances. The Braunerthens went to the cocktail party but were unable to make the dinner. Wally Newman joined the group at Scott's but didn't go to dinner as Florence was ill.

Connie and Jim Wingle traveled to Towson, Md. for the wedding of Connie's niece. They left Briar Hill Dec. 5 and returned Dec. 9.

HATTIE LEWIS hosted the Briar Hill Book Club for a Christmas party on Dec. 9. Members played games, had a book exchange and gave out paperback books as Christmas gifts.

Kitty Jones hosted her afternoon bridge group on Dec. 10 with a Christmas luncheon. Enjoying champagne punch and exchanging grab-bag gifts were the following: Betty Huggins, Helen Kirtland, Jan Patterson, Ginny Robb, Margaret Paly, Margaret Lupia, Betty Hopkins, Kay Norton and Lois Holmes. Subs for the day were Hazel Young and Rosie Miller. Beautiful table gifts made by Kitty and won by Margaret Paly, Betty Hopkins and Lois Holmes were a gold sequined candle, a curlier bag and a party apron. Bridge prizes were won by the following: 1st, Betty Hopkins, 2nd, and Hazel Young, 3rd, Rosie Miller.

Returning home Dec. 11 with a beautiful tan was Bob Young of Farmington. He attended the weeks convention in Hollywood, Fla. He managed to see the Jai-Alai games in Dania and visit the Seminole Indian Village.

JEAN DENARO was god-mother at the Christening of her niece, the first girl after the birth of three boys. The family lives in Wyandotte.

Sharon and Bob Mayskens of Ravenscroft moved to the home of Bob's parents in Farmington yesterday. They are in the process of building a new home on Ravenscroft and hope to be in Briar Hill in February. We are happy that this nice family likes it well enough to build their second home here.

Zeke and Fran Copp entertained Mrs. Phyllis Willis and a friend for dinner and overnight Dec. 14. Mrs. Willis, a teacher in Lansing, and her friend came to Detroit to see the play "Hello, Dolly."

Don't let anyone tell you you can't get more than once. Jimmy Patterson had them on both sides the first time and has just spent another week in bed with them again. This time, only on one side.

Etta Wichmann was taken to Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital on Dec. 8 after having a rather serious asthma attack. The family hopes to have her home for Christmas. Any cards that you might wish to send will be appreciated.

MRS. ETHEL MARSII, mother of Beulah, spent a week in St. Mary Hospital. She came home Dec. 15, in time to catch the flu that has been making the rounds of Briar Hill.

To all the friends of Ginny Morgan, who recently moved to Sierra Madre, Calif., we bring you a bit of good news. After 12 weeks in the hospital, Ginny is home again. She is confined to wheelchair for the present. If you care to send her a card, her address is 129 W. Grand View, Sierra Madre, Calif.

For her science project at school, Sue Palmer has undertaken Intelligence and Memory tests on a hamster. In testing his intelligence, she times his trip through a maze. His first time through took 25 seconds. Following a week of testing, Sue will give Rascal a two-week rest. She will then test his memory to see if he will take up where he left off.

CONGRATULATIONS to Barry General, a member of the Jr. Varsity basketball team of Dunekel Jr. High. His team won their second game of the season, Dec. 2, by beating the Jr. Varsity of Farmington Jr. High, 18-26. Better luck next time to Hub Copp, who plays on the Dunekel Varsity (e.g. n). They lost a close game, 27-25, to Farmington Jr. High Varsity.

The O. E. Dunekel Junior High Choir presented "Christmas in Song" their 6th Annual Christmas Concert on Dec. 13-14. A great big round of applause for a most beautiful program, to all of you Briar Hillers who participated. Mary Kay Burr, soloist, sang "Mary's Little Boy Chille" and Debbie Setler was one of the soloists in a medley of songs. Cindy Ramsey was an accompanist and Hub Copp played trombone in the Ensemble. Other soloists included Debbie Bramlage, Mary Kay Burr, Janice Young, Cindy Ramsey, Kathy Nauman, Diane Sheldon, Carol Swain, Susan Weir, Diane O'Neil, Robert Graessle, John Mann, Glen Heimer, Dave Douglas, Craig Emmett and Mike Himmans.

The Coleman School for Retarded and Emotionally Disturbed Children will benefit from the sale of a record of Christmas songs featuring happy, festive and cheerful. This beautiful recording, for $2, is available through Kaye Britton until Dec. 20. If you are interested you can contact Kaye at 625-9068.

BETTY DANBY of Farmington is a member of The First Methodist Church of Birmingham, asked us to mention the following. In her church bulletin, it states that an advertising campaign is to be started by members on the screens of drive-in movies. If you object to this campaign, please write to Michigan Liquor Control Commission, 506 S. Hoisinger St., Lansing, Mich.

We think the time has come to issue a word of warning to the boys and girls who walk the roads in our subdivision after getting off of the bus. Perhaps, some do not realize the dangers they are taking when they walk in the middle of the street. Now that the snow conditions are here, the roads are, at times, icy and slippery and drivers cannot stop their cars too quickly. It is just too dangerous for school children to walk 6, 8 or 10 abreast, thereby, blocking all traffic.

I hope that other events of such importance to the American people are not treated as casually by your paper.

Coverage Concern

To The Editor:

May I add my name to those who were concerned over the Enterprise's lack of coverage accorded President Kennedy's death.

It is true we have received all the facts from our TV and daily papers but couldn't our community go on record as having expressed a small note of sorrow over the death of this good man, be he Republican, Democrat, Catholic or Protestant.

I hope that other events of such importance to the American people are not treated as casually by your paper.

Marge De Maestri, 3010 Orchard Lake Farmington, Mich.
