Anyone answering ads for salesmen should understand that most firms are reputable and ethical, yet there are a few who are not. Prospective salesmen should investigate carefully. A call to the Better Business Bureau is the best procedure. The Enterprise is not always able to check up on individuals or distributors, and warns those answering such advertisements that this is entirely their responsibility.

NFHS Reserve Cagers Blitz Oak Park, 59-46

With a strong victory over Oak Park last Friday night 59-46, the NFHS junior varsity won last record, now stands at 2-1.

The junior Raiders opened the season with a loss to cross-city rival Farmington by the score of 43-33. Responding to the Big Red School's victory, the squad and also took game honors with 16 points. Ron Cleveland was high for the Falcons with 15 points.

In their second contest, the V's bounced back with a 59-39 victory over Waterford-Kettering. The Raiders scored 16 points in scoring attack with a light defense to down Kettering. John Bye led NFHS with 8 points, with Bill Oldenburg and Dick Lorenz being outstanding for seven points apiece. Game scoring honors went to Don Hook of Kettering who scored 21 points.

The North Suburban League opener for both squads, NFHS opened Oak Park, 59-46 in a game comely dominated by the Raiders. NFHS led at the quarter 20-8; at the half 35-17; and by the end of the third quarter had built the lead up to 51-31.

CIVIL DEFENSE Course graduates in Farmington Township got together for the group picture above last week after having completed their study of vital survival procedures and emergency measures which would be necessary in the event of a nuclear attack.

The course also includes many of the same first aid and safety practices which would be needed in the event of a tornado or other similar disasters of natural origin.

The 5th annual Christmas Play given Dec. 15 by the Little Theatre on Lorick was directed by Kathleen McCort and acted out by Lauren McCormick and Jamey Devine.

The first selection for the evening was "The Legend of the Christmas Rose." Portraying two shepherds were Jimmy Stevens and Ned Devine.

Three Kings were Joyce Barton, Margey Devine and Peggy McCort. The three Kings led their gifts come upon the young boy shepherd who has grown a rose which is truly a miracle. Christmas songs were sung by the choir.

"The Christmas Miracle" teaches the true spirit of Christmas giving. The family was portrayed by Harry Barton and Barbara Makowski, and their children by Debby Drushel and Jimmy Davenport. The musical "The Legend of the Christmas Rose" was played by Bruce Huber.

A third play, titled "Santa Rides Again," finds Santa finding out that it's like to play with all the things little boys and girls like to play with. A very convincing Santa was played by Steve Barry, Mrs. Claus was Sharon Suwak, Elvies helping Santa with his games and girls like to play with. In Monro, Mrs. Marie Roberts returned to her home on Mayfield Ave., Monday evening.

At her home on W. Eight Mile Rd., Mrs. Virginia Oman was the hostess for a party last weekend. Guests were five young ladies, including her own daughter, Ruth Ann, from Eastern State University.

Mrs. Forest B. Ault, at her home on Kentucky St., recently gave a dinner party, honoring the December 4 Birthday of her son-in-law, Horace Walters of Farmington.

Some Thanksgiving Day Mrs. Herman Schult of Shady Side Ave. has been a patient, seriously ill, in St. Mary Hospital, in Northville, Michigan.

School, Sunday, December 8, the Christmas Pot was set up. This custom has become a tradition in the school. The designated time each pupil marches to the front and places a slip of paper bearing his or her name in a shining kettle.

A Goodwill Industries truck collecting clothing discarded in the Farmington area last Tuesday had to discontinue their work while waiting for repairs. However, this sort of thing does not happen. Collection is usually made every Tuesday. To arrange for a pick-up, call Miss Lou Ault, GR. 4-2894.

Thursdays Tempins have lots of scores this week. Tom No. 1 takes over the lead. The first 6 teams are so close, anything could happen. So, watch for changes. Ray Kulk had a 212 and 574. George Stencil 559 and took the 3-19. Bud Simons 549, Trey Clark 542-201, Paul Mozarelli 534, Dick Tobin 530, Joe Gunderlock 514 and the 56-30 split. Jerry Konke 514 and 201, Dwayne Elliot 510, Annette Gunderlock 532, Kathy Kraft, 525, Bill Johnson 507-211, Chet Johns 292, Shirley Stencil the 5-10 split, Doty David the 2-7 twice, Barbara Mead 7-10, Virginia Skonos 2-7, Hope Hare 4-5 and Fran Kulk the 5-7. Ray Kulk took 13 jackpot and Kathy Kraft took 3 jackpots.

Although Bette J. Wilson was not a resident of Westbrooke, there are many here that know her. I feel that all of us would like to express our sincere sympathy to the Marvin Wilson family of Kirkside in Kentwood.

For the next 2 weeks, an earlier deadline is required. Please call in the news by noon Friday the 29th, for this week and by noon on the 27th.

The Friday Nites took time out from the bowling to get together for a hayride on December 7. Fourteen couples from the league and their guests which totaled about 51 altogether went to Centaur Riding Farm. Two horse drawn hay wagons were used. Babe Stevens, Jack Virgin, Art MacClean and Tony Pieniaz arranged for the food and square dancing was enjoyed. A few door prizes were won, which all adds to lots of fun for everyone.

The Little Theatre choir robes made from old sheets gathered from everywhere. Coffee, punch and cake were served to the entertainers and guests. The group is directed by Kathleen McCort.

The Spirit of the Christmas season prevails from Christmas meetings to Bridge groups. A regular bridge club way to the bright of the season and door prizes were won, which all adds to lots of fun for everyone.
