Mile Markers Not So Small

Those "little" mile markers along Michigan's freeways are not as little as you may think.

Those with two digits are a foot wide and two feet high.

Signs with three numbers are a foot higher.

The numbers are six inches high.

"Any smaller and motorists traveling 70 miles an hour wouldn't be able to see them," the State Highway Department says.

The green and white, reflectorized markers denote the exact number of miles from the state line, from west to east and south to north.

Deer Hunters Set All-Time Contest Record

Michigan's biggest deer hunting contest was the biggest ever this year. The 7th Annual Michigan Outdoors Deer Contest, sponsored by Leonard Refineries, Inc., Alma, Michigan, not only attracted more entries and bigger racks—it also produced the contest's all-time winner.

Raymond Sadler, a 20-year-old hunter from Grand Ledge, bagged the prize winner on November 25 less than 20 miles from Lansing. The buck had 25 points and a 24½" spread on the rack of antlers for an all-time contest rating of 49½ points.

WINNERS OF the next three places all had the same number of points (38); prizes were awarded on the basis of the number of spurs on the antlers. Second place went to Dan Heyer of Farmington, who got his buck near Caribou Lake in the Upper Peninsula; third place to Gerald Hallman of Freeland, who shot his buck in the Black Mountain area near Cheboygan; fourth place to Ronald Knowles of Walkerville, who got his buck just three miles north of his home town. The fifth, and last, place winner was Robert M. Francisco of Battle Creek with 37½ contest points; he shot his buck in the Upper Peninsula near Lake Gogebic.

More than 300 entries to the contest were received. Winners received their prizes from Mort Neff in Detroit on the "Michigan Outdoors" television program, shown throughout Michigan Thursday night, December 12, on WXYZ-TV in Detroit.

News from Kimberley

JUDY BURNS GR. 4-3112

We can all share in the pride felt by the Phil Odom family of Kiltartan, who have been awarded grand prize in Thompson-Brown's annual Christmas lighting contest. The Odoms were presented a Westinghouse two unit portable transistor radio and transmitter by Thompson-Brown officials for their outstanding decor. This is the third straight year that the grand prize has been awarded within Kimberley, this year in competition with Kirkwood, Kendallwood 2, 3 and 4, and Briar Hill.

Awards within the subdivision were as follows: first, the James Kaler family on Westmeath, who won a Westinghouse floor polisher and scrubber; second, the Don Ericsons of Pipers Lane, a Westinghouse eight transistor portable radio; and third, the Bob Breese family of Greythorne, awarded a Westinghouse cordless electric toothbrush.

In addition, Kimberley's judges, Darryl Colley, Jean Martello, Irva Smith and Larry Pflieger, choose some 20 additional homes they deemed outstanding in several separate catagories. As of this writing a complete listing of winners and "honorable mentions" was being prepared for distribution to all our residents.

Our festively decorated entrances were sponsored by the Association and came into reality through the talented handiwork of Ray Dudash and Dick Smith.

THE THIRD ANNUAL Christmas dance is now a memory, and a fond one for most residents. Its success was due in large part to the many hardworking committee members who aided social chairman Jill Emerson. The table decorations, given as door prizes during the evening, were done by Phyllis Trombley, Maria Toupin, and Charlene Heuer, chairma.

The 178 tickets, printed by Joe Emerson, were sold by a committee headed by Lil Clark and consisting of Pearl Cowger, Eran Ehlers, Virginia Williams, Doris McChesney, Roberta Flakne, Berniece Jones, Bette Witmer, Betty Kowalski, Nancy O'Malley, Stasia Churchill, Claire Such, Betty Breese, Joan Hayes, Barb Kane, Gloria Pagnucco, Bev Dudash, Mayetta Cymes, Jean Martello, Eleanor May, Debbie Barsch, Peg Lukey, Jo Olson, and Rosa Lombardi.

Many residents attended cocktail parties throughout the sub before proceeding to the country club. Rupe and Margareta Hansen hosted the Witmers, MacKenzies, Barringers, Barsches, Mays, Martellos and Longfields.

The Dick Lukeys, John Clarks, and Jim Burnses hosted a cocktail party at the Lukey home on Eleven Mile, attended by the Banms, Mays, Martellos, Kanes, Acostas, Angelos, Heuers, Garretts, Tooheys, Evanses, Churchills and Colleys.

ON KILTARTAN, Phil and Wanda Northen served drinks to the Toupins, the Bob Clarks, Boles, Andersons, Kilkkas, Bernadettes, Flaknes, Baums and Shotwells. On Greythorne Marion and John Tournaud hosted the Walters, Burnsides, Heinzens, Mathots, Howards, Evanses, and the Danfields.

The Zahlers of Greythorne held pre-dance revelry for the Rennells, Olesons, Chalmers, Lombardis, Kelels, Hernandezes, Zullos, and Boffs, while the McClintoks of Wicklow Court clinked glasses with the Mullas, Valentis, Silvers, Shermans, and Crains.

Dorothy and Bill Vankoughnet served dinner to the Newmans, Olsons, O'Malleys, Fletchers and McChesneys. Another dinner party before the dance consisted of the Allaires, Dudashes, Dick Smiths, Kowalskis, Hernandezes and the Emersons, who dined at the Encore following cocktails at the Emerson home on Wicklow.

Bob and Betty Hawthorne of Westmeath were host to merrymakers Judy and Harry Magee, Willie and Bob Piercecchi, Gloria and Bruno Pagnucco, Jean and Bob Wheeler, Ellis and Emma Jean Phillips, Jackie and Jack Mathot, Shirley and Carl Stadler, Sandra and Bill Fittery and Sandra's parents, the Sloans, Lois and Warren Messer, Jane and Locke Atwell, Barb and Doug Shaw, Del and Jack Norton, JoAnne and Ray Tune, Polly and Bill Etchberger, Carol and Dave Stader, and Bev and Ray Dudash.

In addition, many couples continued the festive mood of the evening by adjourning to private homes after leaving Glen Oaks after the dance. Dick and Irva Smith of Wicklow held a big open house, attended by 25 or 30 couples who enjoyed a lavish wee-hours buffet supper.

The Tahquamenon Falls in the upper peninsula is one of the most beautiful waterfalls anywhere in the world. It is 200 feet wide, with a drop of more than 50 feet. The Tahquamenon River is the famous "Golden Stream" of Longfellow's "Song of Hiawatha."

Michigan apples in 1962 were sold as far south as the gulf coast, all the way from San Diego to Nome on the West coast, airlifted into remote mining and lumber camps in northern Canada, and even exported to Europe.
