Anyone answering ads for salesmen should understand that most firms are reputable and ethical, yet there are a few who are not. Prospective salesmen should investigate carefully. A call to the Better Business Bureau is always a safe procedure. This advertising is not always able to check up on individuals or companies, and warns those answering such ads to be careful. This is entirely their responsibility.

Due to the long summer and fall there were a lot of young birds hatched late in the season and are in need of a helping hand. Prepared bird seed, dried bread, or scratch chicken feed would be a kind way of saying "Happy New Year" to our feathered friends. If you should decide to feed the birds, do keep it up as they quickly can be used to coming to a certain area for food.

ETTA WICHMANN has been patient at Pontiac Hospital since December 8. She was admitted because of a serious asthma attack. While there, she fell and struck her head at the place where she had had 22 stitches last summer after her bicycle accident. On Monday, January 6, her doctor operated to remove the pressure from the scar tissue which was causing her a great deal of pain. Etta's friend, Edith Roth, has been coming over each day to help with the baby and Christina.
The whole family was very happy to see their mother come home on Saturday, January 12.
Etta had been in the hospital for five weeks. "Welcome home, Etta!"

pened a few days ago in our area and the neighbors who mentioned this fact to us have asked that once again parents give the young people in their families a word of advice.
Please, causing damage is fun!
