OLS Wrestling Stars Unbeaten

Phenomenal wrestling feats continue to sparkle the team efforts for the Our Lady of Sorrows matmen who are well on their way to another impressive season in the midst of the toughest competition ever scheduled for the Lancer grapplers.

Superlatives cannot adequately describe the tremendous individual performance records being amassed by defending state champion Stan Secosky of the Lancers who has chalked up his 28th straight duel meet match without a single defeat. A senior at Our Lady of Sorrows, Secosky has repeatedly risked his victory streak by wrestling in the heavier weight classes. He was last year's 138-pound State Champion. Bigger and stronger this year, he is wrestling opponents in the 155-pound division, although tipping the scales low enough to actually qualify for the 154-pound weight class. His amazing unbroken victory string extends back to his first year of wrestling and has pegged him as the "man to beat" by every school Our Lady of Sorrows has faced or will face in the current season.

LANCER COACH Dan Potter also has another very likely state champion in the person of Mike LaFond, a junior who has wrestled in 18 straight duel meet matches without a defeat. Normally a 165-pounder for the Lancers, LaFond in his match against top ranked Catholic Central wrestled 180-pound Regional Class A contender Randy Guerriero and gained a stunning 3-2 decision. It provided coach Potter with one of the few bright spots in the meet since OLS was overwhelmed by Catholic Central, 35-11, in team points at the January 7 outing.

Going into tonight's duel meet with Whitmore Lake, scheduled to get under way at 7:30 p.m. in the OLS Gym, the Lancers hold a 3-2 margin in the won-lost column.

IN RECENT ACTION for the Lancers the point-getters for coach Potter have been (against Catholic Central): Mark Kuzinski, 154-pounds, 10-0 decision; Stan Secosky, 165-pounds, 1:05 pin; Mike LaFond, 180-pounds, 3-2 decision. (Ann Arbor St. Thomas Met Jan. 9): Rick Reda, 112-pounds, 1:20 pin; Paul Pigeon, 133-pounds, 5:38 pin; Mark Kuzinski, 154-pounds, 9-0 decision; Stan Secosky, 165-pounds, 1:30 pin; Mike LaFond, 180-pounds, 2:29 pin; and heavyweight Steve Queen won by forfeit. (Northville Meet Jan. 11): Rick Reda, 112-pounds, 7-6 decision; Mike Solar, 120-pounds, 1:37 pin; Jerry Wroblewski, 127-pounds, 5:07 pin; Rick Karte, 133-pounds, 14-3 decision; Mark Kuzinski, 154-pounds, 5-0 decision; Stan Secosky, 165-pounds, 3:05 pin; and Mike LaFond, 180-pounds, 10-5 decision.

The Lancers beat Ann Arbor St. Thomas, 38-22, and turned back Northville, 27-17.

Showing considerable promise for OLS is Mike Solar, a sophomore who beat highly touted Russ Nichols in the Northville meet. Nichols placed fourth in the Regionals last year while it was Solar's first varsity match this year.

Westdale Clan Unites in YMCA Swim Victory

Cheryl Westdale, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Westdale of 29845 High Meadow in Farmington Township, took three first place awards in the Annual Christmas Swimming Tournament while competing for the Birmingham YMCA.

Seven Metropolitan Detroit area YMCA centers entered teams in the competition. Birmingham won the meet with 138 points. The second place team managed only 79 points.

REASON FOR THE fine Birmingham showing was due to a great extent, to the fine individual performance of Miss Westdale who swept to first place in the 20-yard, 40-yard and 100-yard free style races. She also swam a leg on the winning 160-yard free style medlay relay team for Birmingham.

Cheryl's ten-year-old brother, Frederick, set a record time of 1:09.5 in his first place effort for Birmingham in the 80-yard individual medlay. The new pool record wasn't all young Freddy accomplished in the meet. He also won first place in the 20-yard backstroke race and swam anchor man on the 80-yard free style relay team, which also set a new pool record of :49.3 at Birmingham YMCA.

Cheryl and Freddy's dad is the coach of the Birmingham Y swim team.

Lancer Cagers Post 4-3 Mark

Our Lady of Sorrows' basketball team is putting up a spirited fight to suceeed just as the football team did this past year.

The Lancers won their first two games, a 59-56 thriller over St. Miles of Pontiac and a 72-51 drubbing over Our Lady of the Lakes. Starring in the first two games were Bob Hart and Dave Hamilton (Captain), Myles Kearney, Joe Gadbaw and Rick Goyt.

THE WINNING trend was halted as St. Fred's of Pontiac defeated Sorrows to the tune of 86-68. The game yielded few bright spots for the Lancers. But as a team should, the Purple and White "5" came back and soundly beat St. Agatha, keeping the hubcap as though it had never left its Power Road address. The score was 78-58.

Things did not explode, however, until the second half. With Rick Goyt and Brian Benner providing help from the bench, Sorrows broke a zone press and ran away with the game.

To demonstrate the team's balance, there were four men in double figures: Dave Hamilton (17), Bob Hart (19) to lead all scorers, Myles Kearney (14), Brian Benner (11). This made the team's record 3-1.

Two weeks ago OLS met the first place team, Royal Oak St. Mary's and lost 68-53. The only bright news from that game came from the fact that Sorrows outhustled Royal Oak. Of the few shots that were taken, fewer went in.

The Lancers played this past week, Tuesday, against St. Mike's of Pontiac. In that game Sorrows lost a disappointing game to a taller St. Mike's team. The Lancers were ahead the whole game, demonstrating excellent team play and hustle. But with four minutes to go, St. Mike's put on a weak zone press that snapped the Lancer's confidence.

A victory last Friday over Our Lady of the Lakes renewed Sorrows' confidence.

The last place Lakers' led at half time but the accuracy of Kelly Burke (20 points) aided the Lancer cause. The final score was 71-58. Bob Hart had 23 points, rebounding 32 times, and Capt. Dave Hamilton had 10 points.

This week there are two home games—Tuesday against Orchard Lake St. Mary's and Friday against St. Fred's of Pontiac. Game time is at 6:30 p.m., Varsity.

NFHS Reserves Lose Cage Tilt

Junior Raiders of North Farmington fell victim in a close, 57-53, decision to Birmingham Groves last Friday, January 10.

Mr. Dean's Raiders fell behind at the first quarter 17-12, but second period play, aided by Rick Lorenz, enabled NF to own a half-time advantage of 2 points, 27-25.

Third quarter play spelled doom as North Farmington equaled their first period output, but the fired up Falcons dumped in a total of 20 points, which was too much to overcome, despite a 16-point final quarter by the Raiders.

Sophomore guard, Rick Lorenz poured in 17 points as he led the Raiders while Rick Schultz netted 13 for NF. Game honors, however, were taken by Russ Rolfiers for Groves with 22.

The junior Raiders will meet . . . where's the saving?

GOING UP FOR THE BALL can result in some unusual twists on the part of basketball players because only so many can get under the ball at one time. In the picture above, taken at North Farmington High School's cage tilt with Birmingham Groves last Friday, it appears as though a major traffic jam has occurred. North Farmington untangled it, however, and went on to win the game.

N. Farmington Posts 3-0 Mark In Conference

North Farmington is sitting pretty with their third league victory over Birmingham Groves 58-50 against no defeats.

Now leading in the Northwest Suburban League the Raiders dominated play on the Falcon hardwoods, although the first quarter showed NF in BCHS 10. Both teams found their target in the second stanza as the Raiders took a 6-point halftime edge into the locker room, 31-25.

The third quarter proved rather shabby as both teams collected 10 points. Northern held throughout the contest by an average of 6 points, which provided a confortable cushion for Coach Dick Wisgo's squad.

Mike Fleming who averages 17 points in league competition chalked up 18 on eight field goals and 2 for 2 from the foul line. John MacDonald and Ray Dhue were right behind the stalwart forward, with 16 and 15 points to their credit. Little 5' 4" Mike Logan led the Falcons with 16 points.

The Raiders will play a non-league battle against Clarenceville this Saturday, January 18, at 8 on the Raiders' hardwoods.

NF Gymnasts Beat Allen Park

The Raider's Gymnastics team breezed their way to a 93.5 - 34.5 victory over Allen Park Saturday, January 11. North Farmington, led by Art McClean, collected 21 points, took every first place in the eight events, and six of eight second places.

In free exercise competition, Tim McArt led the way with 89 points followed by teammate Art McClean with 83.5. The side horse found Bob Kainz and Gary Herc 1-2.

CHARLES McCRACKEN, horizontal bar specialist, took a 84 point total to beat Allen Park's Anton Voss with 79.

Art McClean captured top honors in parallel bars and long horse.

Andy Sundrla and Randy Hernandez took still ring and trampoline events, respectively. In the final competition, McArt scored 85 to take the tumbling honors.

Leading in points was Art McClean, but little Tim McArt was right at his heels with 19.5, followed by Chuck McCracken and Andy Sundrla with nine points apiece.

FHS Reserves Bow To Husky Cagers

The Farmington Falcon junior varsity basketball team suffered a 57-46 defeat at the hands of the Pontiac Northern Huskies.

Trailing 18-6 at the end of the first quarter, the little Falcons rallied to tie the score 26-26 at the half.

From the third quarter on, the game belonged to the Huskies as they outscored the little Falcons 12-8 in the third quarter to increase their margin to 43-34.

The little Falcons fought back in the fourth quarter out-scoring the Huskies 12-9. At the end of the game, however, the Huskies were in front 57-46.

The scoring was led by Ron Cleveland (14), George Habicht (9), and John Winder (8).

Raider Matmen Score 2nd Win

North Farmington Matmen chalked up their second win of the season as they pinned their way to a 44-8 conquest of Birmingham Groves.

Dryden, 95-pound lightweight of the Raiders, drew a forfeit giving the NF squad a 5-0 lead. With Dan Vartanian, Mark Campbell and Greg Rayman all pinning their opponents in the next three classes, 15 points was added to North Farmington's lead.

Bill Crouch taking a 4-2 decision in the 127-pound class and Dhue pinning his man in 1:48 of the second period, Northern virtually sewed up the match. In the 138-pound class, Ray Roberts, one of Coach Hobbs bright young sophomores, lost an exciting match 11-13, making the meet score 28-3 with five matches remaining.

The Raiders, however, with 4-2 and 6-2 wins in the 145 and 154 and a pin in the 165-pound division, had a 36-point bulge and there were still two matches remaining. Terry Sharbach, wrestling over his weight, was pinned with 10 seconds remaining in the second period adding 5 points to the Falcons score.

MURRY SWITZER, the most colorful and hardworking wrestler on the squad, toyed around for 1:44 with his opponent before blanking him with a crowd pleasing pin.

This was the Raiders second win in three starts, and was also their highest scoring as 6 out of 12 wrestlers pinned their Falcon opponent.

Falcon Cagers In League Race With 2-1 Mark

Back in the conference race, the Farmington Falcons downed the Pontiac Northern Huskies last Friday at home by a score of 67-56.

The Falcons, who outplayed the Huskies, capitalized on many Pontiac fouls and managed to control the boards with Falcon Neil Warriner getting 14 rebounds.

Dave Schlack led the scoring for the Falcons with 22 points, followed by John Olander with 16, Bob Lorenz 10, Roy Leach 9, and Neil Warriner 8.

Roger Hayward and Mike Burkhow led the scoring for the Huskies.

The first quarter was played evenly with the Falcons taking a slim 12-11 lead. In the second quarter the Falcons increased their lead to eight points by a halftime score of 30-22.

During the second half, the Falcons completely outplayed the Huskies, defensively.

In the early part of the fourth quarter, the Huskies came within six points of the Falcons. But a delay in the game caused by an injury to Huskie Jim Deweese halted all hopes. After this, the Huskies' scoring episode slacked off and the Falcons took over with Falcon John Olander taking charge of the offense.

Extension Group Meeting Jan. 23

The North Farmington Extension Group's regular meeting will be held at Mrs. Howard Vincent's home, 31702 North Marklawn, Farmington, Jan. 23, 1964 at 8 p.m.

STRIKES AND SPARES

The Our Lady of Sorrows Men's League, which meets on Monday night, had good games going. There were 25 games over 200. The Hot 'N Tasty team got together for a high team single game of 1040 and the team high three honors went to the Henry Otis team with 2826.

The OLS Ladies' Wednesday night league, not to be outdone by the men, also turned in some fine scores. Kay Shooltz turned in the best of the evening with a 193 in a 556 series.

BERTHA SIMONSEN, of the Wednesday Night Ladies House League, was right in there with a 231 game in a series of 520.

The Bel Aire Senior House League was right back in stride last Thursday with 30 games over 200 rolled. Ed Dunkel led the pack with games of 248, 221 and 236. A fine total of 705. Arm Leone rolled two good games of 235 and 223 in a 631 series. Other 600 or better series were rolled by Jim Goodale, E. Hasley, D. Easton and Jim Maher.

Rick Gunderlock of the Saturday Students' League really showed everyone how the game is played by rolling a sizzling 634. Rick is 15 and carries a 165 average in this league.

The Sunday Doubles got off to a good start last week with Bill Glass and Phil Raymond shooting 1253 for first place money of $25.

Second place honors were captured by Roger Walker and Ed Stewart who combined to roll an 1198 series.

The Doubles are held every Sunday at 1 p.m. for just three dollars per bowler and have 70 per cent handicap.

THE ANNUAL MARCH of Dimes Tournament starts this week. Last year, Farmington Lanes' bowlers Cora Billing came in second in the Detroit finals and Harold Koenig won both the Detroit and Michigan finals.

This is the last week for girls who would like to learn to bowl to join the Girls League at Farmington Lanes. The League bowls on Tuesdays at 3:30 p.m.

High Scores in the Junior Leagues for the week include: Doug MacDonald with 225, Diane Carruthers with 193, Edith Fendt with 169, and Barb Smith with 166. Gary Smith turned in a sparkling 246 game.
