SPRING FASHION-CLOUSE-UPS
For LEAP YEAR - 1964

Unmatched suits and bags with shoes in a medium of color. Panty your hair of colors to blend with the costume or even steel the scene. Shoes are definitely treated as an accessory, not a necessity. Bags are soft, too, in the most pliable leathers, and small and neat, sturd just to carry the essentials. Even the classic tote bag is tiny for Spring.

MRS. JOHN WILLIAM SUMMERLEE

Karen Friess

Wed on Feb. 8

Trinity Episcopal Church in Farmington was the setting for the wedding, Saturday evening, February 8, of Karen Hildegard Friess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John William Summerlee, and John William Summerlee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lee Summerlee of Rosedale Park, Detroit.

The bride was given in marriage by her father at the candlelight ceremony performed by the Reverend Joseph Pelham before a flower banked altar.

Her floor length gown was of raw silk highlighted with a Sabrina neckline and a chapel train. She wore an ivory imported lace mantilla and a long stemmed calla lilies.

The attendants, both sisters-in-law of the bride, were Mrs. George Friess and Mrs. Robert Friess. Their dresses of white raw silk featured a white velvet jacket. They carried crescent bouquets of anthuriums and ivy.

Serving as best man was James G. Summerlee, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were

F. Charles Kaess of Grosse Pointe and Donald N. Nissen of Alpena.

For her daughter's wedding and dinner reception held at the Coach House at Botsford Inn, Mrs. Friess wore a French blue all silk jacket dress and a white orchid corsage; and Mrs. Summerlee chose a rose pink dress and also wore an orchid corsage.

Both bride and bridegroom are graduates of Hillsdale College. At Hillsdale, Karen is affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma, and John is affiliated with Delta Tau Delta.

Following a skipper honey moon in northern Michigan, the newlyweds will make their home in Detroit.

Donna Pender

DAR Winner

For having shown exceptional dependability, leadership, service and patriotism, Donna Pender has been chosen the winner of the D.A.R. Good Citizens Award for North Farmington High School.

Donna was selected by the faculty at the school from a class of three senior nominees. She will be presented with a gold pin and a certificate of award.

She has now been invited to attend a luncheon in Grand Rapids where she will be honored along with D.A.R. winners from other communities from throughout the state of Michigan. She will compete for the top state honor.

Donna is captain of the Varsity cheerleaders, a member of the Student Council for two years and recently serving as treasurer, a member and past president of the Y-Teens and a member of the Ski Club and the Trip Club. She was also Senior class representative in the queen's court for the Coronation Hop, and a runner-up candidate for Wolverine Girls' Rally.

Donna is taking a college preparation course of study in high school and has maintained a B-average.

Susan J. Plasko

Weds Southfield

Man Jan. 25

Susan Jane Plasko, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Plasko of 2645 Westmoreland, and Robert H. Heston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Medeiros of Southfield, were wed Saturday, January 25, at 11 a.m. in a double ring ceremony at St. James Episcopal Church in Birmingham with Rev. Kenneth Grass officiating.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore a ballroom length dress with bell-shaped skirt with Venetian lace. A short illusion veil fell from a tiny pillbox headpiece embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a prayer book with a corsage of Phlox and ivy.

HER MAID of honor was Miss Linda Tait, cousin from Grosse Pointe, and best man was Don Gershe of Southfield. Lori Sue Plasko, niece of the bride, was flower girl and Randy Plasko, nephew of the bride, the ring bearer. The maid of honor and flower girl both wore pale blue gowns and carried soft yellow flowers.

Ushers for the wedding were Robert Plasko, Jr., brother of the bride, and Barry Knoll, her cousin.

Immediately following the church service, a reception was held.

Here Revealed

The Farmington Garden Club will have a flowering Almey Crab Trees available for spring planting again this year to beautify the homes and gardens of Farmington City and Township residents.

Mrs. Charles Mayer, GR. 4-8228, and Mrs. James Read, GR. 4-5809, are the Farmington Garden Club members handling the sale of the trees.

The club has also formed a Landscape Design Study Group which will meet on the first Thursday of each month, starting March 5. The first meeting is scheduled to take place at the home of Mrs. Keith Wiloughby, 32588 Biddlestone in Farmington. All garden club members are invited to attend.

MRS. HAROLD F. BROWN, GR. 4-6078, is handling the local sale of tickets for the Builders' Home, Furniture and Flower show at the State Fairgrounds February 22-29.

Mrs. G. V. Harrison is the Farmington Garden Club chairman of this year's Annual Farmington Garden Club Card Party to be held May 16.

Country Club Board

Formulating Plans

The Farmington Country Club Board of Directors is busy formulating plans for the coming season. Included in these plans are group tours for underprivileged children and various charitable organizations.

This local Golf Club was founded in 1956 and has progressed rapidly. One of its major improvements is watered fairways, which it has enjoyed for the past three seasons. It is especially proud of its adjoining club, The Farmington Swimming Club.
