

Westlake Village Dinner Dance Set

The newly founded Homeowner's Association presents its first annual dinner dance at Roma Hall on Saturday, July 11, from 7 p.m. to 1:30 a.m.

This is an opportunity for the new community to become active socially and to better the subdivision as a whole. It will be an excellent time to become acquainted with neighbors and have a good time.

Proceeds from this first special event will be used to improve the subdivision in such ways as its majority rules.

Further information may be obtained from Mrs. David A. Pollock, 2956 S. Stockton Drive, 476-4780; or Mrs. Donald C. Schaefer, 3001 S. Stockton Drive, 474-1650.

This Is Kimberley

By JUDY BURNS
GR. 4-3112

Kimberley's special trash pick-up day during clean-up month will be Tuesday, May 19, from 7 to 10 a.m. Those who have been repeatedly refused by the regular collector will be hauled away. Let's clean up Kimberley with our adjoining fields.

The Swim Club has added a pleasant surprise to its annual calendar, a variety show to be presented at the club on Tuesday, May 19, at 8 p.m.

At Lorenger of Pipers Lane Court was presented a Ford's Community Service Award at the 5th Annual Service Awards Dinner. The award was given to the central office building in Dearborn on April 30. Al received a mounted silver scroll bearing the engraved commendation of Henry Ford.

Joeye and Dale Smith of Westmeath are bursting buttons over a 7-pound, 3-ounce Scott Douglas, born on April 23 at Harper Hospital. Boycotter Jimmy S. was carefree on his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. DeVries of Detroit, during his month's hospitalization. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Smith of Bradenton Beach, Florida.

Mary Kenney is holding open house for little ones on a full five-day basis this summer in response to the ever-increasing calls from Kimberley moms who depend on Mary for a day off. Call Mary Kenney at 476-2222. "Polly Day of Westmeath also wishes to baby-sit this summer by caring for Kimberley tots of about 18 months and under.

ANNIVERSARY ROSES this week to Marge and Vic Stockell, celebrating 15 years on May 7, and to Doris and Hugh McCaskey on the same date. Birthday bests to Fred Lorenzer, 12 on April 29; to Christine Adams, 1 on May 2, and to Lucie Newman on the same date; to Terry Lee Hoelle, 3 on May 3; to Bette Wilmer and Al Lorenger on May 6; to Jim Martin on May 6; to Phillip Berry on May 7; Patricia Butler, 17, Timmy Burns, 6, Paul Bey, 8, Jim Burns and George Fletcher, all on May 11; to Peggy Newman, 11, on May 12; to Bonnie Churchill, 8 on May 13; and to Mario Lombardi, not telling on the same date.

Jack Newman was the guest of honor at a birthday party given him by wife Betty on Saturday night, May 9. The Newmans attended their dance club that evening, and upon returning home Jack was greeted by "surprises" from some 15 Kimberley couples.

Home from Florida are Dick and Roberta Flakns of Fiddlers Green, who spent ten days recently at Miami Beach. Dick's mother, Mrs. F. Flakns of Ann Arbor, cared for the children while Dick and Roberta were away.

Markie Barringer was operated on May 6 at University Hospital.

Mickey Angelo, 6, daughter of Dick and Marlene of Barwell, slipped on the wet grass and broke her elbow recently, and Al Zahler nipped off the tip of a finger with a power saw last Saturday.

Nancy and Len Elias and Shirley and Jim Stimmert of Westmeath have returned from ten days vacation in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. The Stimmerts flew to Florida for a few extra days before returning home, where Shirley broke out with measles! A friend of the family cared for the Stimmert children during the adults-only vacation, while Nancy's cousin, Mrs. Jenkinson, stayed with the Elias off spring.

SCOTT AND PHYLLIS Buzan of Willow are returning from an unusual vacation this summer camping in Alaska. They will pull a trailer from Detroit and sell it before returning home.

Bride-to-be Pam Trambauer of Kiltartan was feasted at a surprise shower on Sunday afternoon, May 3, at the Danish Inn in Farmington. Given by Helen Kelley of Slocum Avenue, some 50 women attended including several from Kimberley.

The men's house league at Star Line has completed its bowling season with the Kimberley team of Dick Luksey, Neal Trombley, John Clark, Bud Olson, Don O'Dalley, and Jim Burns as champions. Another Kimberley team comprised of Al Hajjar, Bill Smith, Ed Hayes, Charlie Miller and Mike Swacha finished in second place, while our third team, Dick Smith, Jack Newman, Bill Vankoughnet, Bob Baum and Steve Marjello, finished fourth. Don O'Dalley roiled the league's high series of 636, and John Clark the high game of 245.

Our women's league has also completed their first year of competition, and held their bowling banquet with their husbands at Lofly's on May 1. The team of Jo Olson, June Resume, Evelyn Bernadette and Claire Such are the champions. Betsy Kowalski took the high average award with 159 and the series trophy with her 656. Jean Martello won the high game trophy with a 223, while Stasia Churchill was accorded the good sportsmanship award and Loreta Henry the most improved bowler award.

The league will bow next season at the new Country Lanes on Nine Mile on Tuesdays at noon, under the leadership of Debbie Barach, president; Shirley McClellan, vice president; Dorothy Vankoughnet, secretary; Pat Hernandez, treasurer; and JoAnne Tune, liaison officer and sergeant-at-arms.

JoAnn Eselman of Farmington, a freshman at Albion College, has been appointed news editor of the student newspaper at Alma College. The announcement of the appointment to "The Almanac" for 1964-1965 came from the Board of Publications.

JoAnn has served as a reporter on the newspaper for the past school year.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eselman, 3870 Quaker Valley Road.
