NFHS Music and Art Dept. Plan To Stage 'Brigadoon' May 15, 16

The North Farmington High School music and art departments will present the Lerner and Loewe musical, "Brigadoon," May 15 and 16 at 8 p.m. in the North Farmington High School gym.

This will be the third consecutive year the two departments have produced a Broadway musical. The first year's venture of "South Pacific" was overwhelmingly received by the community and last year's "Where's Charley" played to packed houses.

THE DIRECTORS, James Hunt, Lawrence Haver, Richard Shilling, and Mary Feller are unanimous in their praise of the students in the way they are handling the same difficult roles and music originally played on Broadway. They feel this is one of the most significant combined student efforts made in the Farmington public schools.

"Brigadoon" offers all the charm, magic and music that made it a smash on Broadway. The leads, Cheryl Flehman and Craig Polley, are two talented people who will capture the hearts of every theatergoer.

TOM DAVIDSON, who directed "Brigadoon" in last year's role, Mary in "South Pacific" will be seen this year in an portraying Meg, the adventurous equally funny role.
