

Measles Vaccine Is Available Here

A vaccine is now available to provide protection against measles. The vaccine may be obtained from your local physician in Farmington.

Measles is considered a more or less harmless disease all children must face, still it kills about 400 American children a year. And many more are left with brain damage or pneumonia or deafness. While this may be frightening in raw numbers, still the number is small compared to the number of children who get the disease each year—about four million.

And now, the vaccine can provide protection from the damage and from much of the sickness that goes with measles.

The nutritional needs of older persons are much like those of any other age group.

Wayne County, which contains Detroit, is world-known for its industries, yet it leads all of Michigan's 83 counties in production of sweet corn.

Miss Lenore Susan Faber Weds In a Fourth of July Ceremony

Miss Lenore Susan Faber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Faber of 33351 Heathside Drive in Farmington, exchanged wedding vows Saturday, July 4, with Mr. John Joseph Badaluce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Badaluce of 2644 Springbrook Drive in Farmington.

MRS. JOHN J. BADALUCE

The double ring ceremony took place in the Holy Rosary Church of Detroit at 9 a.m. with the Rev. Father Cefal officiating.

The bride wore a floor length gown of silk peau de soie with Alencon lace. Her headpiece was a shoulder length veil secured by a crown. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and roses.

MAID OF HONOR was Miss Joann Badaluce, sister of the bridegroom. She wore a pale blue organdy dress and carried sweetheart roses.

The best man was David Hug.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents following the wedding ceremony. Breakfast was served at the Rotunda Inn on Pine Lake for the wedding guests.

The bride is a 1962 graduate of Our Lady of Sorrows High School. She attended the Virginia Farrel School. She has been employed by Ter's Parisian Room in Livonia.

THE BRIDEGRROOM attended Farmington High School and is employed by General Motors.

For the wedding, the bride's mother wore a pale green suit with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow orchids and roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige and yellow and tangerine print with tangerine accessories. Her flowers were yellow orchids and roses.

Pratt-Hamilton Vows Are Spoken In Alma

Miss Beverly Ann Pratt became the bride of Dale Hamilton at an eight o'clock ceremony June 13 in the First Methodist Church of Alma. The Rev. Harold A. Kimey, who officiated at the ceremony, is the father of Mrs. Clair A. Pratt of 120 Ely, Alma and the late Clair Pratt, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Hamilton of Farmington.

MRS. MICHAEL DALE HAMILTON

The bride, given in marriage by her cousin, Gordon C. Vliet, wore floor-length silk organza over taffeta. The fitted bodice was accented with hand-clipped Chantilly lace, trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent, and featured elbow length sleeves.

THE CONTROLLED skirt, with a deep frontal scissor pleat, was highlighted by lace applique cascading to the hemline, also re-embroidered in pearls and sequins. The skirt featured a full chapel train with a draped cascade at the waistline.

Her silk illusion veil was secured by a cluster of silk organza petals with a crystal gown worn on the brow. The bride wore a gold and pearl necklace in the shape of a bell, a gift of the bridegroom.

A CASCADING arrangement of pink sweetheart roses and ivy completed her ensemble.

Janice Jakovic of Owosso was maid of honor with Gayle Hamilton of Farmington, sister of the bridegroom, and Carol Sue Pratt of Alma, sister of the bride, as bridesmaids.

All attendants wore popover-style or three shades of pink taffeta. They matching pillowcases with veils and white fans with a cascade of pink carnations, and ivy, complemented the bride's gown.

Dennis Hamilton of Ferndale, his brother's best man, while Lowell Clingenpeel of Oshtemo and David Wolfe of Canterbury, England, acted as best men.

BASKETS OF PINK and white peonies and candelabra decorated the church as Mrs. Ronald Vliet, cousin of the bride, said "O Promise Me."

Also assisting were the Misses Laura, Judy, Sheila and Sharon Lake, cousins of the bride, and Miss Phyllis Tyler of Farmington, sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. Hamilton wore a blue lace sheath with white accessories. Mrs. Hamilton wore a sheath of white lace over rose beige with pink and white accessories.

Franklin Knolls Women's Club
BY ANNE OSGOOD

As usual the final gathering of the Franklin Knolls Women's Club was a ball, I would be nearer right saying a riot. There was not a dry eye in the crowd and my mascara was smudged, but I was a happy girl.

To the thirty members who did not attend (66 did) I will give you an idea of what you missed. The combined efforts of Shirley Sobel producer, Sue Brook director, Edna Green lead pianist, Shally Kornmiller art and programs, Glady Hesse and Joy Baker assistants, presented a show beginning with the year 1890 - Beatrice Kay pantomimed with a real hair by Shirley Sobel, 1900 in the proper attire "By the Sea" was done "live" by Audrey Jakee and Rosemary Silvers.

1910 AL JOLSON, black face and all, pantomimed by Chris Lafferty; 1920 Helen Kane fringed knee length dress, garter, long lashes, and earrings, headband beads, boob hoop de doop and all was done by Jessie Morello whose pantomime and eye lash fluttering was terrific.

Shirley Temple stopped the show, actually, before and after her act—Tillie Bergessner you were magnificent, you sure did rehearse and she was "live." Judy Garland obviously an admirer did her beautifully.

Chris Lafferty how did you change from black face to comedy? 1964 The Beatles - black boots, slacks, shirts and wigged drums and all, Ringo, Kay Benson and the other girls Barbara Dobicki, Marina Zapico and Rosemary Silver. Everyone was completely exhausted and tender hands finally applauded the entire cast.

"Shutter bug" Lucile Bowles was very brave and managed to calm down enough to get, I think, pictures of all the acts. Such talent it seems a shame to confine to two offerings a year but believe me it is now what we look forward to in the fall and know we end on a happy note in the spring.

Miss Lois Jean McAllister, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. McAllister of 7165 Brookridge in Birmingham, exchanged wedding vows with Mr. James Edmund Maynard, son of Mr. and Mrs. George O. Maynard of Sumter, South Carolina, in the United Presbyterian Church of Our Saviour, Birmingham, Saturday, June 13, at 2:30 p.m. ceremony.

The Rev. Ralph Stribe, pastor of the church, officiated at the ceremony. The church was decorated with white glads and orchid mums.

FOR HER WEDDING, the bride wore a floor length gown of white chantilly lace and carried a bouquet of white orchids and roses.

The bride's mother wore a turquoise chiffon and carried rubrum lilies.

Miss Betty Smith was the bride's maid of honor. She wore a dress of coral taffeta and carried a coronal bouquet of white carnations.

The bride's sister, Carol McAllister, was the bridesmaid. She wore a white dress and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The bridegroom's best man, John Burrell, served the bridegroom as his best man. Ushers were Stephen Cote, Jr. and Peter Olson. The ring bear-
