

Local Dancers Perform at Vets' Hospital

Thirty-eight children traveled to Ann Arbor Veterans Hospital from here December 21 to put on a Christmas show. The program chairman of the Grand River Post and Auxiliary 1519, called Virginia Dickerman of Dickerman Dance Studios here last year to ask her to provide entertainment from her dancing school. The show was so well received by the patients of the hospital that they asked for a longer program for this year.

A tap number to "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer" started off the show and was performed by Patty Wilson, Kay Lynn Clement, Lynn Bidwell and Laura Ward. Songs and dances were beautifully done by Mary Sue and Sherry Easler, Juliana Gardie, Cindy Dinnah, Sally Lee, L. Russell, Sharon Douglas, and Carol Erstler.

Judy and Joan Slingsland presented an unusual Tap Cha Cha. A novelty tap, "Carousell," was danced by Jo Ann Lamoureux, Bonnie Jo Morang, and Linda Lewis. "Steam Heat," a novelty tap, was enthusiastically received and all the following girls were called back for a bow. Sherry Trombley, Kris Shuster, Denise Diano, Caroline Walker, and Denise Melish.

Modern Jazz was performed by Holly Harwood, Janet Schaner, Candy Beach, Susan Pagny, and Dallas Bevers. Incidentally, they are to audition for TV in the near future.

In sparkling blue costumes, a Jazz Cha Cha was done by Karen Huebner, Susan Zuchowski, Bonnie Jo Morang and Jan Maher.

"West Side Story" was a real hit when Barbara Allen, Bonnie Breese, Bernadette Regan, Paula Fried, Sherry Douchet, Marianne McGivern, Linda Dugan and Susan Denny danced up a storm.

The applause was gratifying for a Swing and Cha Cha ballroom number danced by Leanne Wood and Wes Orr.

The Grand Finale was an exciting segrecrow dance performed by Diana Stephens, Joan and Judy Slingsland, Virginia and Marcia Dickerman. The performers were treated to ice cream and cup cakes which the auxiliary members had baked and were thanked profusely for a job well done.

An extra-special Christmas this year for Judy and Al Zahler, who welcomed a new daughter-in-law into the family on December 21. Their son, Gerald, and Judith Debol, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Debol of Highland Park, were married at 7 p.m. on the 21st in Metropolitan Methodist Church. Following a reception at the church members of the wedding, relatives and friends gathered at the Zahler home on Greyhorne.

This was the wedding number three for Al and Judy, who are mighty young grandparents with a young son still at home.

OWN PATSY Smith is president of the new Farmington City and Township Provisional League of Women Voters. Board members include Kimberley Vena, LeBlang, second vice president, and Lois Messer, director, of young girls interested in joining the League or in obtaining information about its activities are invited to call Patsy, 474-0497, or Lois, 474-1874.

Unseasonable as it may seem, our men's golf league has begun to head to summer by organizing now. Fletcher Armstrong, Dick Angelo, and Chuck Evans, league officers, will hold a meeting next week to finalize plans for the coming season. Interested golfers can call one of the three officers.

SPEAKING OF future dates, Glen Oaks has been reserved for our annual spring dance, to be held this year on May 15. And speaking of dances, Lil Mark has a lovely reception and pearl pin found at the Kimberley Christmas dance on December 13. Lil's number is 476-3887.

The Clarks are having an especially busy Christmas with daughter Wynne home from Central for the holidays, and John's mother, Mrs. J. H. Clark, Burlington, North Carolina, visiting here for a week.

Lee Clark, 9, was hostess at a Christmas party on December 21 for a number of her friends, Robin Burns, Claudia Kover, Margie Kover, Lorretta Henry, Pat Elias, Linda Foran, or by the military on December 21. Mandy, Lukey, Patty Acosta, ber 28 at the Officers Club on Marie and Lori Corvenak, Judy Evans, Debby Newman, Kathy O'Malley, Mary Baum, Patty Williams, Nancy Vagnoni, Carl Gully and Lynn Bernadette enjoyed an afternoon of singing carols and making Christmas corsages.

The next evening, December 22, John and Lil invited the Martals, Kowalskis, Kowalskis, May's, Harringtons, Acostas, Burnes, and Barsches for an after-bowling supper.

OTHER HOLIDAY hilarity hereabouts included cocktails at the home of Debbie and Al Barsch on December 22 in combined honor of Bill May's birthday that day and Al's and Gerdie MacKenzie's birthdays on the 23rd. The guest list included business associates, friends, and Kimberley neighbors the Barringers, MacKenzies, Hansens, Martillos, Mays, Magies, Pfaffmanns, Petris, Tunes, Dudasches, Shaws, Jamisons, and Wimers.

The welcome mat is already this week for Carol and Jerry Moore, who moved into their Wellington model at the corner of Westmeath and Eleven Mile the day after Thanksgiving. Neighbors Betty and Jim Kaler hosted a dinner party recently to welcome the Moores and Ruth and Jim Day, also new Kimberleyites. Invited to meet the two new couples were the Kuesters, McCammons, Gullys, Kanas, Thomases, and Acostas.

NICE AS IT IS to welcome new Kimberleyites, with an equal degree of regret we say goodbye to an "old" resident, Giny and Phil Odum, this year's grand prize winner in the outdoor lighting contest, will move shortly to Witcheta, Kansas. Phil, a major in the Air Force, will be the Officer in Charge of the Cessna Aircraft Corporation there, reporting for duty on January 15. Giny and the children and Giny's mom will follow as soon as their Killarney home is sold.

The Odums attended a going away party given in their honor by the military on December 21. Mandy, Lukey, Patty Acosta, ber 28 at the Officers Club on Selfridge Air Force Base. More holiday parties — Mel and Catherine Petris hosted a party on the evening of December 22, attended by the Kobitskeys, Jantzen's, Lorengers, Dudasches, Magies, Pfaffmanns and Shirley's sister, Lori Zoloff, Barsches, and Barringers. Catherine served cocktails and canapés, unusual Italian pastries she specializes in making.

WALLY and MARION Barringer gave a buffet dinner party on December 27, inviting the Hansens, MacKenzies, Barsches, Martillos, Mays, Wimers, and Marions' sister and brother-in-law, Dorothy and Jack Purdy. The group ran the gamut from Square dancing to limbo, and all report a good time.

The Barringers have had a truly busy holiday, on one particular evening they had 22 people spending the night at their home! Daughter Cheryl Hiedquist was 16 on Christmas Eve, and was given a surprise party by her parents several days before December 24. Sixteen teenagers enjoyed buffet supper and dancing, and Cheryl's brother Bob, 13, home for the holidays from Michigan State, presented his sister with 46 red roses as a birthday gift.

GLORIA and BRUNO Pagnocco of Westmeath hosted a cocktail party on the afternoon of December 22, attended by some 50 people including Kimberleyites the Atwells, Shaws, Walters, Ellis Phillips, both the Bob and Ken Wheelers, Norberts, Guerriers, Hawthornes, Ruffings, Dick Smiths, Nickolays, Ouellets, Pattons, Peterons, Stadlers and Buzzards.

Out-of-town company around the sub includes Rupe Hansen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hansen, and his sister, Wanda of Chicago, who spent Christmas in Kimberley.

"Opportunity doesn't knock these days. It rings the telephone and asks silly questions."
