Balman-Wik Wedding Held in Candlelight

At a candlelight ceremony Wednesday evening, June 24, in the First Methodist Church of Farmington, Carolyn Sue Balman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Balman of 32249 Valley View Circle in Farmington, became the bride of Terry Irvin Wik, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Wik of 38207 Fourteen Mile Road in Valley Lake.

Officiating at the double ceremony were the Reverend Richard T. Markham of First Methodist Church, Farmington, and J. Douglas Parker of Rochester.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal length gown of white Chantilly lace with a scalloped neckline beaded with pearls. The full skirt was fashioned with panels of white tulle and a short train. A headpiece of dainty seed pearls held the elbow length veil. The bride's flowers were white roses and stephanotis.

The maid of honor was Miss Linda Brown of Farmington. The bridesmaid was Miss Kathryn Roth of Detroit. Both attendants, close friends of the bride, wore gowns of pale blue crystal with controlled bell skirts. Each girl carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The best man was Ronald Wik, brother of the bridegroom. Marshall Balman was groomsmen. And ushers were Richard Cairns and John Rhodes.

The mother of the bride, Mrs. Floyd Balman, wore a pale pink crepe sheath dress with a lace bodice. She wore pink accessories and a pink rosebud corsage.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Irvin Wik, wore a gown of aqua tulle with a matching lace jacket. She wore aqua and white accessories and a white rosebud corsage.

Vocal selections were presented by friends of the bride and bridegroom. The Mood Makers sang "One Hand, One Heart," and Miss Pamela Overton sang "The Lord's Prayer." Organ selections and accompaniment were played by the church organist, Mrs. Alice Brooks.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church's Fellowship Hall. Mrs. Fred Lee, Mrs. John Rhodes, and Miss Virginia Cairns served the 230 guests. Presenting the 230 guests were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Balman, and the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Wik.

Wedding Vows Spoken By Vicki Lee Nielsen

Miss Vicki Lee Nielsen, Farmington with the pastor, daughter of Mrs. Stanley R. Nielsen and the late Mr. Nielsen of 23892 Whitaker Drive in Farmington, exchanged wedding vows Saturday, June 20, with Mr. Viking M. Dietrich, son of Mrs. Cynthia Dietrich of Springfield, Ohio and Mr. Martin Dietrich of Richmond, Indiana.

The double ring wedding ceremony took place in the Salem Union Church of Christ in Farmington. The controlled skirt was highlighted by lace applique. The skirt formed a full cascade and was draped with at mid-back with bow accent.

The bride's headpiece was a crown of seed pearls, securing the shoulder length illusion veil. Her flowers were a cascade of white shasta daisies and white roses with variegated ivy.

Mrs. Norma Hoffmeyer was the matron of honor. She wore a sunshine yellow dress with a linen-controlled skirt, frontal scissor pleat. Her flowers were a cascade of white and yellow shasta daisies.

BRIDESMAIDS were Mrs. Nancy Verougstraete and Miss Karen Dietrich. They wore dresses matching that worn by the matron of honor.

The bride's attendants wore matching headpieces. They wore sunshine yellow linen pill-boxes and veils. Their flowers were cascades of yellow shasta daisies.

The bride's mother wore a light green crepe with a lace bodice. She wore matching accessories and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a light blue crepe sheath with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

Dorothy Billing was the organist. Clara Simpson was the vocalist. She sang "The Lord's Prayer."

A RECEPTION was held following the wedding ceremony at the bride's home. The wedding guests were served Champagne and a buffet supper. The bride chose an aqua linen sheath with white accessories for traveling on her honeymoon.

The bride is a graduating senior from Michigan State University where she is majoring in special education and is affiliated with Alpha Delta Pi. The bridegroom is a 1964 graduate of Michigan State University where he majored in electrical engineering. He is now with General Electric's training program in Detroit.
