Christian Science Sunday Sermon Set
"I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord" - this verse from Psalm 118 is part of the Golden Text that will introduce the Bible Lesson to be heard at Christian Science churches this Sunday. The subject is "Lifts" and begins a series on names which belong to God.
Readings will include the following lines from the Christian Science textbook: "Because Life is God, Life must be eternal, self-existent. Life is the everlasting I AM, the Being who was and is and shall be, whom nothing can erase" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, pp. 289, 290).

Break Ground for New Building For C'ville Methodist Church
The Clarencville Methodist Church just finished a two-week daily Vacation Bible School with 45 enrolled and 329 average attendance.
Sunday evening, June 28, the congregation of the church had a very lovely reception to welcome back the Minister Rev. Elsie A. Johns, for the 24th year.
Bishop Marshall Russell, pastor of the church, presided at the service. He was assisted by Rev. Herbert F. Hausner, Detroit District Superintendent, and Dr. Everett K. Seymour, former District Superintendent and now Minister of the First Methodist Church, Royal Oak, Michigan. The Rev. Elsie A. Johns, who begins her 24th year as Pastor of the Clarencville Methodist Church, and many of the members of the church in official positions.

Unity Church Dedication Set For This Sun.
The congregation of the Unity of West Suburban Church, which for two years has been meeting in Livonia's Bentley High School, now have a church building of their own. Sunday, July 19, has been set for the formal dedication ceremonies of the new Unity of West Suburban Church, 30925 Curtis Rd., Livonia.
This Sunday only, there will be a 9:45 a.m. service in addition to the regular one at 11:00 a.m., both to be conducted by Minister Diana Swanson. James Decker, noted lecturer and editor of Good Business Magazine, from Unity Village, will be guest speaker at the 9:45 service. His talk is entitled "The Glory of This House."
The congregation and visitors are invited to attend the services and remain for the "open house" during the afternoon when they may look through the new buildings, walk through the grounds, and enjoy light refreshments.
Evening vespers will be held at 5:00 p.m. and will feature Hazel Leland at the organ; Mildred Collins leading a "jubilee of song"; and Dick Hughes, former owner and founder of radio station WQRS-FM, in a "jubilee of religious verse."
The dedication date also marks the 75th anniversary of the world-wide Unity movement which was founded by Charles and Myrtle Fillmore in Kansas City, Missouri, in 1889.

CLARENCE L. DARCY
Mr. Clarence Louis Darcy of 22976 Frederick Street in Farmington died July 7 at St. Mary Hospital in Livonia after a lingering illness. He was 50 years old.
Mr. Darcy was employed as a supervisor at the Fisher Body Plant in Detroit and had been a resident of Farmington for the past ten years. He was born November 28, 1913, in Baraga County Michigan in the upper peninsula, the son of Charles and Anne Cole Darcy. He was married to his wife Mary, who survives him, on July 24, 1937.
Also surviving are a son, David, and two daughters, Mary Elizabeth and Ann Marie, all living at home. Five sisters and three brothers also survive.
Mr. Darcy was a member of the Our Lady of Sorrows Parish in Farmington.
A Rosary Service was held at the Spencer J. Heene Funeral Home in Farmington at 8 p.m. on July 9. Funeral services were conducted July 10 from the Our Lady of Sorrows Church, Farmington, with the Rev. Father Duffy officiating. Interment was at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery in Southfield, Michigan.

ANNICE B. KNIGHTS
Mrs. Annice B. Knights of 33033 West Seven Mile Road in Livonia died July 9 at Wayne County General Hospital following a lingering illness. She was 80 years old.
Mrs. Knights was born in England January 30, 1884, the daughter of Herbert and Isabelle McCauley Armstrong. Her husband, Reginald Armstrong, preceded her in death in November of 1951.
Surviving are a son, Walde D. Taylor of Livonia; one sister, Mrs. R. P. Glenn of Gargate, Kent, England; and three grandchildren.
She came to the community from Chicago in 1934. She was a member of the St. Aidan's Catholic Church of Livonia.
Rosary services were held at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at the Spencer J. Heene Funeral Home in Farmington. Funeral services were held July 23 at St. Aidan's Catholic Church. Interment was at Parkview Memorial Cemetery in Livonia.

Michigan's oldest church building is the Old Mission Church on Mackinac Island, built in 1820-30 as part of a Protestant Indian mission. Although it has not been used regularly as a church for over a century, one religious service is held there each summer, and the building is maintained as a historic shrine by the Mackinac Island State Park Commission, parish continuously ever since.

Bishop's Company to Present Shaw's Classic, "Saint Joan"
America's nationally known concern with conscience becomes a motivation of the Bishop's Company, founded in Los Angeles in 1952 by Phyllis Beardsley Bokar, has achieved the enviable record of two years of consecutive national touring bringing fine drama into the homes of worship in the 50 states and five provinces in Canada. It has appeared in over 6,000 churches of all denominations and has a performance record of only two performances missed (because of weather) in its nearly one million miles of touring.
The coveted role of Saint Joan will be played by Renee Roman, Shining horror for the evening will be John Dutt and Paul Caruso.
For ticket information, call Kathryn Korner at (474-8501) or LaLuce at (474-6875).

Pastor and Wife Feted On Silver Anniversary
Pastor and Mrs. Raymond Bayne of the Southfield Communities Church, 21122 Indian between Beech and Inlander, north of Eight Mile, were recently given a surprise party by members of the congregation to celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary June 19. Plans for the event had been under way since April, but had been kept a complete secret from the pastor and his wife. Bayne's sisters and brother and families as well as the couple who stood up with them at their wedding. Many other friends from the outside were also present. The program, which had been planned by Mrs. Conrad Hempel and Mrs. Larry Mills with the help of other members of the church, concluded with the presentation of gifts and the serving of refreshments.
Pastor and Mrs. Bayne have been at the church sixteen and a half years.
