2 Farmington Bowlers Earn Pro-Am Berths

Two Farmington bowlers will have an opportunity to match themselves with the nation's top bowling stars on July 30 when the first Pro-Am Tournament comes to the Detroit metropolitan area at Continental Lanes in Roseville.

Joe Zuchowski and Gary Vandervell of Farmington qualified for the Pro-Am tourney at Farmington Lanes. These local men will be paired with the professionals in doubles matches to start off the bowling show at Continental Lanes, July 30 through August 3. A $3,000 first prize is awarded to the winning doubles team of professional-amateur bowlers.

BOTH ZUCHOWSKI and Vandervell earned their qualifying spots for the Pro-Am as elimination squad winners at Farmington Lanes. Farmington Lanes will have another squad this Sunday, July 19, at 2 p.m. Total cost is $5, 300 per cent handicap from last year's average is used and both men and women are eligible.

Bowlers interested in taking a shot at qualifying for the Pro-Am Tournament can obtain further details by contacting Farmington Lanes. Entries should be made before Sunday.

It is now and in this world that we must live.

South Farmington Orioles, 11-2, Headed for Colt League Title

The South Farmington Orioles took a commanding lead in the North Farmington - South Farmington Colt League by winning 3 games last week. The Orioles have clinched at least a title by winning Carl Huntie for the championship.

The S.F. White Sox are the only team that has a chance to upset the Orioles. The Orioles would have to lose their remaining two games and the White Sox would have to win their remaining four games for the upset.

The race appeared that it would be close last week but the White Sox lost almost all hopes by losing last Saturday to the Indians by a score of 9 to 1. Meanwhile, the Orioles chalked up three victories.

THE ORIOLES edged out the N.F. Tigers in an eight-inning contest by a score of 7 to 6. Tom Donoghue pitched the first 7 innings for the Orioles and was relieved by Wayne Johnston in the eighth.

Johnston did a brilliant job in retiring the Tigers, 1-2-3, in their last at-bat.

Shearer pitched for the Tigers in the losing cause. Wayne Johnston saved the victory for Tom Donoghue, who, in turn, won his sixth straight game behind no defeats.

The Orioles took a one-run lead in the first as Mike Searly and Mike Perry singled.

In the second, the Tigers scored four runs on 2 walks, 2 errors, and a single by Norton.

The Orioles tied it up in the third as Tom Donoghue singled, Mike Perry doubled, and Mike Searly and Wayne Johnston followed with singles.

In the fourth and fifth, the Tigers scored solo runs on hits by Fred Gustafson, and Cramer and a homerun by Bond.

THE ORIOLES tied the game up again in the top of the sixth as Ron Lee was hit by a pitch, Bill Pell singled and Dave Misaner doubled, the winning score in the eighth, came about after 2 outs as Glen Lindsay walked, Tom Donoghue walked, and Mike Perry walked, and a wild throw to third scored Lindsay.

The Orioles won their tenth game of the year by downing the Indians 14 to 5. Wayne Johnston pitched a great 5-hit-ter in receiving the victory. Streng and Anderson pitched for the Indians.

The hits collected by the Indians were by Garcia, Lotenz, Schwartz and Streng.

The Orioles scored 2 in the first as Glen Lindsay and Mike Searly singled; they scored 3 in the second as Darnberger walked, Glen Lindsay doubled, and Tom Donoghue and Mike Perry singled.

The Orioles erupted with five runs in the third on singles by Wayne Johnston, Ron Lee, Jeff Darnberger, Mike Perry and Tom Donoghue.

In the fifth, singles by Tom Donoghue, Ron Lee and Bill Pell scored 2 and, in the sixth, 2 more scored on a triple by Mike Searly and a single by Bill Pell.

THE WHITE SOX defeated the Yankees 7 to 2 behind the 5-hit pitching of John Winder. He struck out 16 Yankees to help his cause.

The Yanks scored their two runs in the first on an error, a walk and a double by Bill Bowles.

The White Sox scored 2 in the first, on a walk to Jerry Turner, a triple by Chip Terry, and

Center Ladies Softball Team Suffers Loss

The Farmington Center Ladies Softball Team suffered defeat by the bats of the Clawson team 6-4.

Farmington was winning in the early innings, but Clawson battled back to win the heart-breaker in the last half of the seventh inning by scoring one run due to three walks which ended the bases and a single.

FARMINGTON'S second loss came from Yapt in a wild at-bat. Yapt had one big inning to score the win.

Under the great pitching of the Farmington Center's June King, who pitched a 10-inning game, the Farmington Center girls went on to an easy victory over Taylor Township, 9-2, July 2. King was pitching a no-hitter until the sixth inning when, with two outs, a Taylor player hit the ball over second base for a clean single. Taylor's two runs came in due to a couple of walks and throwing errors. The Center girls' bats were booming enabling them to T.E.D. score nine runs.

SF Pony League Championship Won by Red Sox

The Red Sox wrapped up the South Farmington Pony League Championship last week by winning three ball games.

They downed the Pirates 7 to 1 in the 1-hit pitching of Greg Stratton.

Hitters for the Red Sox were Ken Victor with a triple; Bill Bliss with a double and single; and singles by McAskin, Watkins and Jim Tennyson.

THE RED SOX second victory came at the expense of the Giants as they "killed" them, 14 to 3. Kelly Watkins was the winning pitcher, allowing only 2 hits in winning his fourth game of the year. The game was highlighted with a homerun by Dan Wolfman. Ken Victor collected a single, a double and a triple.

The crucial game of the year was played on Saturday, July 11, when the first place Red Sox played the second place Dodgers. A Dodger win would have resulted in a tie for the league lead, but the Dodgers blew their chance as they were edged out 6 to 5.

JIM TENNYSON was the winning pitcher, winning his fourth game of the year, allowing only 6 hits. Paul Misch was the loser, allowing 4 hits, taking his first 3 outs of the season against six victories.

The Red Sox scored 2 in the first as Bill Bliss batted home Ken Victor and Greg Stratton.

The Dodgers scored 1 in the first on singles by Mark Donoghue and Larry Williams. They then took the lead with four runs in the third on singles by John Klais, John Fitzpatrick and Paul Misch and a homerun by Joe Himmelbach.

The Red Sox tied the score in the last of the third on an error, a single by Stratton, and Dan Wolfman's seventh homer of the year. The next 12 Dodgers went down (except for a walk) in order. The Red Sox scored their winning run in the fifth when Dan Wolfman hit a triple and scored on a pass ball.

Local Sailor Honored by Co.

Patrick J. Lupia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick A. Lupia of 29538 Old Bedford Drive in Farmington, has been selected Honorman by his Company at the U. S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Illinois.

Selection was based on individual performance of duty in all phases of basic training, including leadership, initiative, military bearing, sportsmanship, response to orders, general cleanliness, qualifications of a good shipmate and high over-scholastic standings.

Farmington's Colt All-Stars Play in Dist. Tourney July 21

The All-Star team from the Farmington Colt League will play this Tuesday, July 21, at Southfield Lathrup, 11 a.m., against Birmingham. The North Farmington All-Star team plays Southfield at 2 p.m.

The losers of these two games will compete at 5 p.m. The loser of this game is thus eliminated from the district playoffs as 2 losses knock you out.

The following day, Wednesday, July 22, the winner of the Farmington-Birmingham game will play the winner of the North Farmington - Southfield game at 2 p.m. The loser of this game will play the winner of the 5 p.m. game July 21.

THE WINNERS of July 21 will compete on July 23 at 5 p.m. All games are being played at Southfield Lathrup. The winner of this district will go right out of state into the regionals of the U.S.

The boys who made the All-Stars, and who will represent Farmington in the Colt League tournament are as follows:

The two coaches are Cliff Terry and Ed Donoghue.

Go to Southfield Lathrup and watch and support the Farmington boys on to victory and the district championship.

Districts: Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, (July 21, 22, 23) at Southfield Lathrup.

If you are wise, laugh.
