Our sincerest sympathy to Jim Wingle and his family on the death of Sister Dennis Maureen Wingle, O.P. Funeral services were held July 13 in Adrian, Michigan, at St. Catherine of Siena. Sister Dennis Maureen, who had been a member of the Sisters of St. Dominic for 38 years.

On July 14, Marion Palmer and Erik, and my two boys, Dick and Jim, a took a trek down to the Detroit River water front. We went aboard the U.S.S. "Desoto" County, LST-114. The ship is on a tour of the Great Lakes to acquaint people with one of the ships in the U.S. Navy.

BILL AND ARLENE Robert took their children for a camping tour through the Upper Peninsula. The first stop was at the Indian Lake State Park near Manistique. There they all went fishing with some success. After several days, they went to Brimley State Park outside of Sault St. Marie. The trip included lots of sightseeing. The last stop was at the Camps: Bill, Arlene, and the kids headed for home.

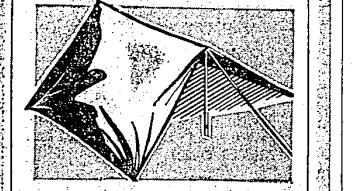

Briar Hill had several boys named to the All-Stars teams of the little league. Some of them are Bill Nauman, Erik Palmer, Scott Ramsey, Rick Autman, Mike Moreen, and Jim and Jack Moreen; Gloria and Jack Douglas; Marge and Bob Scott; Dick and Jim Gandy; and Dave and Robin Raymond.

LAST WEEK Jack, the boys, and I took a week's vacation. We visited Jack's sister in Au-

Free Circus for State Fair Patrons

Squinting a little these days? Straining to read the fine print in the stock market quotations or baseball box scores? Had your eyes checked lately?

You'll have a chance for a free eye examination at the 15th annual Michigan State Fair, which opens Friday, August 28, and runs through Monday, September 7. The Wayne, Oakland, and Macomb Societies of Optometry will offer again this year their visual screening project free to adults, and children, and to those who have not had an eye exam in the last year.
