Fairgrounds Meeting Held By Witnesses Witnesses from the Farmington Congregation have just returned from their four-day meet held at the State Fairground where 16,870 heard N. H. Knorr, president of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society, deliver the public address, "Peace Among Men of Good Will" or Armageddon? THE OPENING words of Knorr's Bible discourse were, "Are there a man or woman of goodwill? If you are, then you are one of those about whom an army of heavenly angels spoke in union, almost two thousand years ago. Why did those angels appear and speak? Because an event had occurred that will yet result in eternal peace to years ago on this earth that is now renewed with a third world war." Further along he pointed out, "Upon earth peace among men of good will - that has been a famous quotation for the past nineteen hundred years. But what has been its effect upon the world of mankind? "As far as international affairs are concerned, the years of world peace have been few since the first said those soothing words. "In this respect, the world situation was not changed by the birth of Jesus in Bethleem. For over a thousand years it has been very easy for Christendom to sing 'Gloria to God in the highest, and on earth peace to men of good will' at her Christmas time. But history shows that this has not promoted or established world peace."

Penny Kelbert, a June graduate of Clarenceville high school, is spending the summer in Grossensee, Germany. She is working with the American County Council of Churches, Youth for Understanding program, directed by Mrs. Rachel Anderson. Penny is living with the Mayers of this quaint village of 1,000. Mr. and Mrs. Willy Russ, her family include two other young people, Marion, 17, and Peter, 16. Russ also holds the position of Fire Chief while residing on a 120-acre farm. Leaving the Metropolitan Air Terminal on June 27, Penny arrived at Amsterdam, where she was given a 24-hour rest and tour of this old world capitol, while waiting for train reschedule. From Amsterdam, she flew to Berlin, where she is living there on Monday, June 29. SOME OF HER outstanding "treasures while a visitor in this country include a trip to Berlin where she reports there is so much to tell that she cannot put it all on paper, a visit by train to Hamburg. Yet to come is a boat trip around an island called Hogeoland, in the North Sea. Penny is sending a daily report of her adventures to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Kelbert, 21105 Hugo Ave. in Farmington. They have found her letters most interesting. An excerpt from one of her letters follows: L. Braun Visits WMU Campus More than 3,500 freshmen who will be entering Western Michigan University at the first time next fall are getting a two-day advance taste of campus life this summer. Linda Braun, Farmington, participated in the first freshmen orientation program at WMU last week. Under the direction of Dr. Donald Davis, director of the Counseling Bureau, the freshmen are coming to the campus to learn something of their future programs of study, to meet with the counselors and to see the campus in general. Braun and her friends have had all the work because some social life has been planned too. When they return to the campus in mid-September they will be completely registered and have their fees all paid. They will only need to attend the orientation meeting for all new students on Sunday, Sept. 7, and attend their first classes on Tuesday, Sept. 15. Among the big-name stars at the free Music Shell programs, Aug. 28 through Sept. 7, will be Count-Basie and his band, Nancy Wilson, the New Christy Minstrels, and the Jimmy Wilkins band. Christian Science Bible Lesson Set Using "Spirit" as a name for God, the Christian Science Bible Lesson on Sunday will explore how the qualities of Spirit bring harmony into human affairs. Bible readings will include this description: "The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance, against such there is no law" (Gal. 5). Among selections from "Scripture and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be the following: "Mortals must gravitate Godward, their affections and aims toward spiritual things; they must learn the broader interpretations of being, and gain some proper sense of the infinite - in order that sin and mortality may be put off" (page 285). However rich or elevated you may be, a nameless something is always wanting to our imperfect fortune. It is a home-
