News from Kimberley
By JUDY BURNS GR. 4-3112

A lot of comment and concern was generated in Kimberley last week by one of our own adult residents' rubber-burning party on one of the subdivision streets at an accelerated rate of speed early one evening. Running out of control the car rebounded from a ditch onto a front lawn on the opposite side of the street, where a number of young children were playing. Miraculously no one was injured, but the close call weakened the knees of a lot of parents and has generated talk to prevent the recurrence of such recklessness.

CONGRATULATIONS to the all-Kimberley "Rams," 2 North Farmington T-Ball champions. The Rams, managed by Dave Meyer of Graythorne, finished the season with a record of 11 wins and 1 loss. Durs S and G. The champs are: Jeff Meyer, Kevin Brown, Steven Weber, Robbie Tournaud, Jim Carlisle, Brian MacGillivray, John Mace, Craig Aker, Jimmy Renell, John Tune, Bobby Magee, Dave Slader, Paul Brakora and Paul Bloomberg. The boys were fully coached by Ray Tune, Harry Magee and Dave Slader.

The Swim Club pool had a lot of water displaced on a recent Saturday afternoon when eager swimmers participated in the first swim meet held at Beechview. The men's relay was won in a splash by the team of Bob Hawthorne, Ray Tune, Jack Blanchard, Jerry Toohay, Neil Trombley and Dick Patton. Men's free-style champ was Ray Dudash and women's freestyle champ was Mermie McEachin of Springland.

OTHER FREE-STYLE winners were: for boys 15 and 16 Lindsey Chalmers; for girls 15 and 16, Kathy Thomas; for boys 13 and 14, Rusty Mitchell; for girls 13 and 14, Lynn Smith; for boys 11 and 12, Eric Walters; for girls 11 and 12, Susan Plante; for boys 10 and under, Thad Naquin; for girls 10 and under, Nancy Such; for boys 8, Bobby Magee; for girls 8, Susan Stoeckel; for boys 6 and under, Greg Young; for girls 6 and under, Carolyn Such.

In addition to the individual events, a number of relay races for the children resulted in several teams of winners. A family relay race was hosted by the Toohay household and Dick Smith, in that order.

THE SWIM CLUB'S busy schedule of late included an art show on Sunday, July 26. The twenty-two art paintings included Kimberley talent Pat Smith, Wynne Moore, Bettie Jim and Jan Wilmer, Lenore Frouzack, Wanda Northern, Harlon Tournaud, Randy Fluiter and Peggy and Vern McHaney. Bidding for the most popular painting went to Marla Laughter for her painting of the Court for her oil entitled "Kensington Walk."

The exhibit proved a number of our "Sunday painter" are exceptionally gifted on the other days of the week too and the display of paintings drew a steady flow of admirers. The C. Hessey of Northville, was read at the regular meeting of the Farmington School Board Monday night, July 27.

The Hesseys stated that they would like to purchase the flagpole at the old Farmington on Grand River, if it is available. The Board agreed that since they have several uses for the pole, a reply should be sent to Mr. and Mrs. Hessey that it is not for sale.
