

Dinner Meeting To Open AAUW Fall Calendar

The Farmington Branch of the American Association of University Women will open its new year with a meeting Wednesday, Sept. 16, 8:30 p. m., at the First Farmington Savings & Loan Building, 22725 Orchard Lake Road. Again this year it will be a social evening beginning with a potluck dinner and with the purpose of becoming re-acquainted with the purposes of AAUW and learning what the various study groups plan for the year. Prospective members have been invited.

Serving on the committee for this meeting are Mrs. Clayton M. Cunniff, chairman; Mrs. Elmer Schacht, Mrs. John A. Allen, Mrs. Craig Porter, Hostesses will be Mrs. Marvin Schaeffer and Miss Marylou Schlem.

PLANS ARE being made by the membership to hold a book sale Sept. 24-25 in the First National Bank of Detroit Building, corner of Grand River and Farmington Road, to benefit its fellowship program.

Last year proceeds from the book sale were used to contribute to the International Fellowship for University Women Relief Committee for the needs of refugee scholars in Europe and Asia as well as to the International Fellowships Endowment. Among recipients of these fellowships is Dr. Hertha de Villiers of South Africa who will be studying physical anthropology at Wayne State University.

Prince of Peace Women's Group To Meet Sept. 15

The Women's League of the Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, Farmington, is pleased to announce that the first meeting of the year is to be held September 15, at 8 p. m. Opening devotions will be led by Clara Thoms, assisted by Marge Bey and Lois Mohl. "The Many Faces of a Christian Woman" is this year's theme and for this month, "The Woman Who Travels" will be featured.

Lisa Facknitz, a summer foreign exchange student from Farmington, will speak on her visit to Holland. She has many interesting tales to tell and will show a number of pictures, depicting life in Holland and other phases of her trip. You are cordially invited to attend and hear the most informative and entertaining lecture and also to stay for refreshments, which will be served by the hostesses, Ruth Thompson and Margarette Welti.

Three Flags Chapter Of DAR Sets Meeting

The Three Flags Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution will have their fall meeting at Mrs. George Sanderson's home in Lathrup Village on Monday, September 14. Mrs. Lyra Larges and Mrs. Paul Fairbrother will assist the hostess at the noon luncheon. The new officers will take over at this time.

Mrs. William Arverson, regent will preside at the business meeting at which time plans will be discussed for the regional meeting to be held September 17 at Henry Ford's Fairlane home.

Pioneer Golden Age Club Has Dinner

The Pioneer Golden Age Club of Farmington had a dinner on Tuesday, Sept. 1 at the home of Mrs. Eva E. Ross of Purdue Street. Twenty-three were present to enjoy a very nice dinner with all the trimmings and the evening was spent playing cards and enjoying organ music.

Franklin Shopping Center. Ursula and Doris Ann of Franklin Drugs and Beauty are working together to teach the girls.

Franklin Center Teen Program a Huge Success

Teenagers have made an overwhelming response to a program offered by Franklin Drugs and Beauty by Rudolph and Doris Ann, both located at the Franklin Shopping Center, at Fourteen Mile and Middlebelt Roads.

Ursula, cosmetician consultant at Franklin Drugs, and Doris Ann of Beauty by Rudolph and Doris Ann, have worked together to offer a series of Charm, Poise and Culture Sessions for teenagers.

The first session was held August 31, September 1 and September 2. The response was so great that another series of sessions has been scheduled for September 14, 15 and 16. Owners of Franklin Drugs, Sam Friedman and Irving Tenenhouse, and owners of the beauty salon stated that the unexpected response to the program is an indication of a need for more community-sponsored activities. It is their hope that other groups will offer activities to satisfy the apparent desire of young people to learn more.

Madrigal Club Golden Jubilee

The Madrigal Club of Detroit is about to celebrate its Golden Jubilee.

During this anniversary year, the Madrigal Club hopes to enlarge its scope. We would like to bring our work before a wider audience and to perform music requiring instrumental accompaniment. To do this we need more than ever vocalists with the ability to sing receding.

Also this year we are extending an invitation to audition to instrumentalists. THE MADRIGAL Club has many things to offer those who are interested in performing fine music.

The Madrigal Club meets every Monday at 7:30 p. m. at St. John's Church Hall at Woodward and Montclair.

Auditions will be held Friday, September 11, at 7:30 p. m. and Monday at 7 p. m. For further information please call Mrs. J. D. Williams, TU, 4-6292, or Mrs. R. Belanger, GR, 4-7098.

Springland Women Set Sept. 14 Meeting

The Springland Women's Club will have a flower arrangement demonstration by Kathy Zickel, president of the Hill and Dale Garden Club, on Monday evening, September 14, at 8 p. m. in the home of Mrs. William Carter, 28103 Springland Drive.

Co-hostess for the evening will be Mrs. Darrell Ashley. All women living in Springland Sub-division are invited to attend.

Last week Tuesday the Women's Association met at the home of Inez Bentley with 25 in attendance. The co-hostesses, Ginny Albertsen and Pat McGrath, made delicious peach pies for the dessert. Mary Tyron conducted the business meeting and welcomed two newcomers to Wood Creek, Geneva Rogind and June Inman. Angie Seay came with what handsome new son of theirs — he is a dear. Cancer pads were sewn.

James Costigan will be married next week Saturday, September 12 to Judith Stedek. The ceremony will be held at the Divine Child Church in Dearborn. Jim is planning to continue his college work at Lawrence Tech.

MARY AND MAUREY Tysen have as house guests Mrs. Kenneth Gorman, and her daughter, Mary Lynn. This family now lives in Glenora, Calif., but the two families were close neighbors for 8 or 9 years when they both lived on Lahser Rd. Eva Gorman's two boys and Marvin and Tommy Tysen were brought up together for those years. Eva and Mary Lynn will be here for about three weeks. They have been with Eva's sister in Livonia and came out here last Sunday evening to stay about ten days.

Shelia Carlson celebrated her birthday last week Wednesday by inviting the three smolek children to join her brother, Bruce, and herself for horseshoe ride at the Apache Stables. They then returned to her home for a birthday luncheon including, of course, a birthday cake and ice cream.

The alumnae and mothers' association of Convent of the Sacred Heart Bloomfield Hills will hold their annual fashion show "Motors and Modes" on Wednesday, September 23, 8 p. m. Fashions will be by Claire Pearson, furs by Roberts, children's fashions by Ethel Pollock, the Chrysler, Ford, and GM cars will be on display. There will be two showings. Tea will be served before the 2 o'clock show and refreshments will follow the 8 o'clock show. There will be a fashion award and the winner may choose a fur styled by Roberts, either an outer jacket, minnie stole, or a broad tail jacket. For further information please call Genevieve Fellrath 11 MA. 6-5318.

DICK AND Eleanor Deschoff, with their ten-year-old son, Freddy, have been on a very interesting trip through historical country. They drove first to Great Smokeys stopping in Gatlinburg, then on to Chattanooga and Lookout Mt. They then followed the route of march of General Sherman to Atlanta, and Savannah, Ga., then north to Fort Sumpter, S.C., and visited many historical spots about Charleston, S.C. where they went on board the battleship "North Carolina"; next to the tobacco country of which Goldboro is the center;
