Farmington Acres News

BETTE WILLARD

476-3883

Some youngsters from the subdivision trooping off to school for the first time as kindergartners this month were Debbie Maguire, Donny Scholvan, Nancy Marling, Lisa Carr, Kent Brandt, Janice Crovitor, Pam Dotson, Maureen Stock, Debbie Smith and Pam Scholter.

THE NAME of this column will soon be changed from the "Acres News" to the "Meadows News." The majority of residents prefer "Meadows" over "Acres" and this was agreed upon back in February, 1961. The Articles of Incorporation, issued by Michigan Corp. & Securities Commission, has us listed as Farmington Meadows. (The "builder" had us listed as "Acres" for building purposes only.) Latest news from the Home-owners Association is that Orman Bowers is the new Membership Committee Chairman. The Association has voted that the "68" membership fee remains at $4 per family.

THE CITY has been informed that some installation is needed at the "Acres Square" to prevent cars from entering the square area. Parents are asked to inform their youngsters that they are not to ride their bikes on the square. The School Board will soon be creating signs prohibiting bike riders.

People living in the "Meadows" vote at Planders Elementary School. Get registered and vote Nov. 3.

The Hamiltons of Robinwood are extremely happy to have their son Larry back home with them. Larry is in the Air Force. At the end of his thirty-day "leave," Larry will be re-located in South Carolina.

TOM MITCHELL and Robert Lieber are home from Kingston, Michigan, where they held summer jobs at the Hill and Dale Ranch. Robert's job was "Ranch Director" and Tom was "Pool Director."

Teenage Marchers for ALSAC—Leukemia Drive, were Donna Bowers, Theresa Piskowski, Diana Rietor, Brenda Zolka and Kathy Willard. Congratulations girls on a job well done.

Members attending Bridge Club No. 1 on Sept. 10 were Marge Stock, Polly Lawshe, Grace Mitchell, Mary Lou Din-

PIANIST JAMES TOCCO will present a piano recital at the Detroit Institute of Arts Auditorium, 3200 Woodward Avenue in Detroit, tonight (Wednesday, September 23) at 8:30 p.m. A well known pianist who has thrilled audiences from coast to coast and abroad, Tocco is a native of this area and his family resides in Farmington.

Wooddale PTA Book Fair Set

Wooddale PTA will begin its season of activity with a Book Fair in conjunction with an outstanding speaker, Dr. Thelma James of Wayne State University will speak at the first meeting on Monday, October 5. Dr. James' topic will be "Words Spoken and Words Printed."

Books will be on display at the school from September 22 to October 5 and orders may be placed the evening of the meeting. Plan now to attend this meeting and to enjoy Christmas book shopping early.

TICKETS FOR the four Young People's Concerts given by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra may be purchased beginning Tuesday, September 22. The cost of these concerts includes transportation to and from Ten Mile School. The schedule includes: Nov. 21, The Story of Ferdinand the Bull featuring Allen Thayer, Announcer; Dec. 2, Nutcracker Suite featuring the Detroit Ballet Theatre; Feb. 13, 66 (Comie Opera) featuring the After Dinner Company; and March 27, Carnival of the Animals featuring Stuart Hampe, Cartoonist.

Tickets for all the concerts must be purchased before October 15 and will be sold on a first-come, first-served basis as the number of seats available are limited. Contact Mrs. Rabideau, GR. 47017, for further information.

The annual membership drive is now in progress. Support your PTA with memberships for both mother and father.
