

AT ST. ANDREW'S
Community Healing Service
Held Wednesday Evenings

Each Wednesday night at 8:30 o'clock a community healing service is being conducted at the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Livonia.

The service, which has its origins in the New Testament, is designed to help those afflicted by personal, physical or emotional illness. It is a spiritual act with the individual bringing his problems to the altar for assistance.

Illness is asked to be "put to flight" in the words of the service while the administering person lays his hands on the individual's head.

This is an Apostolic Rite which has been dormant for many years and is currently being revived. St. Andrew's is

Sacrificial Meal to Highlight
WCS's Meeting

The Annual Sacrificial Meal and Communion Service of the W.C.S. of the Newburgh Methodist Church will be held on Thursday evening, April 8, at 8 p.m.

Taking part in the program will be Madams Virginia Britton, Gladys Ryder, Fern Isa, Jean Bennett, and Sylvia Barclay.

Special music under the direction of Mrs. Wilfred Nixon, will be provided by a quartette composed of the following women from the Ruth Circle: Madams Joyce Lovak, Mary Alice Trosten, Jean Loomis, and Alida Tucker. They will sing the hymn, "Glorious Spread His Banner Over Us."

Clyde Fink will sing a tenor solo. His selection will be "The Palm."

Rev. Paul Greer will give the meditation and grace at the Sacrificial Meal. The Ruth Circle will be the hostesses.

Others during the service are Mrs. Jean Meroney and Mrs. Jean Blaisdell.

This annual affair is one of the spiritual programs of the Woman's Society each year.

College Concert:
Set at Covenant
Community Church

The Houghton College Concert Ensemble will give a concert at Covenant Community Church in Redford Township at 7 p.m. Sunday, April 18.

The Concert Ensemble, which represents Houghton College, Houghton, N.Y., is conducted by Professor Edson Barney and features 20 vocalists, bass violin, cello, viola, three violins and a piano. Its repertoire includes music of the Baroque, Romantic and Contemporary periods. Sacred works predominate, with instrumental compositions offered for variety.

51 Confirmed
at Hosanna Tabor

Fifty-one members of the Hosanna Tabor Lutheran Church Confirmation Class of 1965 will speak their vows and formally become members of the church on Palm Sunday, April 11. The confirming pastors will be R. G. Franck and D. M. Hadviger.

On April 4 the Confirmands of the church presented "Minute Testimonials." This testimonial is based on a section of Luther's Small Catechism which the class has been studying.

Passover Program
Slated for Monday

Most of us are unaware of the strange and colorful past history of the holiday now celebrated by the Jews as Passover.

It originated 2,000 years before the time of Abraham. At one period in the history of the Jewish people it was solely an agricultural holiday with little religious connotation. During modern era it was known as the "Festival of Fear."

There and many more historical facts will be brought to light in the "Passover of Passover Through the Ages" being presented by the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Am on Monday, April 12, 8:45 p.m. at the Cohen Bldg., 31549 Seven Mile Rd., Livonia.

Taking part in this ambitious endeavor will be Sisterhood members Celia Cohen, Ethel Gersten, Millie Hinkley, Rox Kellman, Gloria Lawrence, Dorothy Flank, and Rox Case.

Our Lady of Sorrows Credit Union Names Assistant Manager

Daniel E. Cafolla has been named Assistant Manager of Sorrows Parish Federal Credit Union, 3716 Grand River, Farmington. He was previously employed as manager of the Chubbington Community Federal Credit Union.

Sorrows Parish Federal Credit Union was chartered by the Federal Government, 1953, to serve the members of Our Lady of Sorrows Church. Following two years of growth, the members constructed their own building late in 1963.

The Union's assets have grown to over $200,000. In 1964, it was able to return more than $12,800 to its members. This represented a 17% refund of interest paid during the year.

Confirmation Class

Pastor Norman Berg confirmed an adult confirmation class of four at St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Plymouth recently. Sixteen children were examined in a worship service last Friday in preparation for confirmation on Sunday.

Are You A UNIVERSALIST - UNITARIAN Without Knowing It?

You may be if you believe that:
Religion is a way of living rather than a set of beliefs. Truth in religion is available to anyone willing to seek it. Religion is not a matter of faith alone, but of the concern of religion.
