

Plymouth Dinner Features Dialogue Between Catholic and Protestant Clergy

The ecumenical movement, Christian unity, the meaning of the church, civil rights, and possible areas of cooperation towards Christian unity in Plymouth were some of the topics discussed during a Plymouth Ministerial Dinner last week.

Participating in a Christian Unity dinner billed as "A Dialogue Between a Catholic Priest and a Protestant Minister" were Fr. Alfred H. Renaud, Assistant Pastor of Our Lady of Good Counsel Roman Catholic Church, and Rev. John Miller, Pastor of Epiphany Lutheran Church.

The term "ecumenical" was defined from both the Protestant and Catholic points of view.

An Epiphany Concert of Sacred Music was held Sunday, Jan. 24 at the Holy Cross Evangelical Lutheran Church on Six Mile Rd. in Livonia.

The two choirs of the church under the direction of Mrs. Loraine Edwards, presented a program of choral favorites of the Trinity, Retreating, Advent, Christmas and Epiphany Seasons.

Members of the Chancel Choir are: Hene Berger, Gloria Bailey, Louise Dixon, Rita Doughty, Arlene Federoff, Fran Forsy, Richard Forys, Margaret Hillz, Pastor William Molvinn, Tyrone Polio, Andrew Polio, Mely Sagnaguan, Victor Santos, Jody Schauder, Norman Soronen and Rosemary Young.

Love As A Power Talk Set for Sunday

The vital nature of love as a power that can reshape human lives will be brought out in Christian Science churches this Sunday. The subject is "Love," and the Golden Text from 1 John 4(7,8) underlines the theme: "Beloved, let us love one another; for love is of God... He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love."

Adult Discussion Classes Begin at Timothy Lutheran

A 10-week series of Adult Discussion classes began Jan. 17 at the Timothy Lutheran Church in Livonia. The church is located at 8820 Wyandotte Rd. Six different topics are slated for the Sunday morning discussions. They are: Place of Prayer in Life, a series of taped devotional type lectures by Dr. George Aze of the Lutheran Seminary and moderated by discussion leader Edward Waber, will be at 9 a.m. Parents Class designed for parents with children in grades one through six. It will help parents assist their children in learning what is happening in Sunday School to daily life. The discussion leader for this class, which will be at 9 and 10 a.m., is John Harrington. effort on the part of those who claim Christ to understand one another, to understand their differences and to respect and seek not to violate these differences.

He said that the idea of forming one big church is a misconception and that in participating in a Christian Unity dinner billed as "A Dialogue Between a Catholic Priest and a Protestant Minister" were Fr. Alfred H. Renaud, Assistant Pastor of Our Lady of Good Counsel Roman Catholic Church, and Rev. John Miller, Pastor of Epiphany Lutheran Church.

The term "ecumenical" was defined from both the Protestant and Catholic points of view.

Organizational Changes Made at Faith Lutheran

Three main changes have been made in the structural organization of the Faith Lutheran Church in Livonia. The changes are:

Creation of a Board of Directors with direct responsibility to the congregation for all its actions; Congregational meetings scheduled on a quarterly rather than the present monthly basis; and

Honor Cantor On 75th Year

The Sisterhood of the Livonia Jewish Congregation will honor Cantor Henry J. Blank, Cantor of the Livonia Jewish Congregation, on his 75th birthday with a birthday party on Saturday, February 6, at 8:30 a.m. in the new Synagogue Building, 29475 West Six Mile Road, in Livonia.

seeking to find the divisions Christians wished to re-visit because the believes that she is truly Christ's church.

Cautioning that the movement will be "a slow thing," he said he would talk to each other as "trying to understand each other." In order to accomplish this, he said, we must love and talk to each other. The virtue of love is important here because it is the "law of love which all Christians practice."

Fr. Renaud also agreed that the idea of forming one large church is a misconception because "nobody will ever be encouraged to violate their own conscience" and said that to gloss over the differences existing is as much a heresy as to underestimate them.

Episcopal Priest Will Be Ordained

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church of Livonia will be the setting for the ordination of the Rev. Mr. William R.
