would keep him busy. Add to this the work and inevitable chaos involved in moving a household of furniture and the possessions of a family of five 180 'miles from Three Rivers, Mich. and the week becomes a little fusier. Add one sick five year old who ends up in a Three Rivers Hospital and the situation is further complicated. The result was that Rev.

Mospital and the situation is further complicated.

The result was that Rev. Zoelier moved all the possessions alone and left his wife and three children Diana, 6; Cynthia, 6; and Mark, 8 months in Three Rivers for a week or so. He hoped to have his family on him in Farmington at the belief of the control of the control in his words Rev. Zoeller is "ending up eight or ten miles freeding where I started out in 1930". The move to Farmington was because Rev. Zoeller liked the challenge of "getting a church built and building up the numerical size of the congregation." In addition to harbing Rev. Zoeller has attended two alt week Clinical Training Courses for Pastors. The courses were held at the Gowanda State Hospital in Helmuth, N.Y., and the Miami Valley Hospital in Dayton, Ohio. Both courses were connected with the Institute of Pending construction of the reaching the control of the Incernation is meeting in the Middlebelt Elementary the Hospital in the Middlebelt Elementary School just north of Ten Mile Rd.
