St. Pat's Day Celebration Set at Village Pump

The Village Pump in Farmington is celebrating St. Patrick's Day with some unique contests. The "Who'll be the first to Sweepstakes" will be held in the parking lot beginning at 5 p.m. Wheelbarrows will be furnished by the courtesy of Mary Kemp of American Hardware.

Inside the Pump corned beef and cabbage dinners will be served. The public is invited to attend and browse at their leisure. The paintings have been done by local artists and will be for sale at the show.

Trophies will be awarded to winners of all the contests.

The Pump is noted for its atmosphere and fine cuisine. Lunches and dinners are served six days a week. The restaurant is closed Sunday.

The Village Pump is located at 32350 W. 5 Mile Rd.

U. of D. Talk By Gabriel Marcel Set

Gabriel Marcel, France's foremost Christian Existentialist, a philosopher and playwright, will speak at the University of Detroit Student Union Ballroom at 8 p.m. Monday, March 15.

His topic: "The Contemporary Crisis of Dramatic Art."

The program is noted for its joint sponsorship of the Graduate School and the Repertory Theatre Green Room Programs of the University of Detroit.

The panel will be chaired by the Rev. James Caine, S.J., chairman of the U. of D. Theatre Faculty, and will include, in addition to Marcel, three drama critics: Louis Cook of the Detroit Free Press, Jay Gill, former critic for the Detroit Times, and Andrew Daily Star and Billboard.

The awards will be made by a judging committee of three Detroit critics: Jay Gill of the Detroit Free Press, and Frank Gill, former critic for the Detroit Times, and Andrew Daily Star and Billboard.

Prize-winning plays will be considered for production by the University Theatre, which reserves the option for first

Redford Jaycees to Mark Group's Tenth Anniversary

Three hundred Jaycees will descend on Redford Township's hospitality this month for a regional president's meeting.

The session will be held March 20 at the Kenwood Lounge, Five Mile at Telegraph.

Art Rockall is chairman for the meeting.

Meanwhile last Saturday, March 6, the Jaycees gathered for their 10th anniversary Birthday Ball.

The dance was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 25300 Five Mile, beginning at 7 p.m. with dinner. An hour-long cocktail party preceded the event, and dancing, disc-jockey style, was featured in the evening.

Hosted by the Jaycees Feb. 22 at Lela Valley Jr. High were the foreign exchange students from this area.

Farmingtonite Wins $20,000

Know-how has paid off for Richard A. Reynolds, of Farmington, who heads up a roofing company — the Reynolds of Reynolds Co., 26448 Grand River, in Redford Township.

Last week, he won the $20,000 Idea Home Contest, conducted at the Builders Home, Furniture and Flower Show. He did so, by guessing exactly the number of nails in a large jar. The number was 29,227.

He can either cash in, or apply the $20,000 to the purchase of any one of 16 model homes that were shown at the show.

Reynolds has been entering such contests at home shows for 20 years. This year, he said, "I noticed the nails were slightly larger than those in recent years, so I cut down my first estimate." He was, admittedly, amazed at he guessed the exact number.

He and his wife, Mildred, have no children. She is a secretary at the Lincoln Mercury Division of Ford Motor Co.

With College Band
ITHACA, N. Y. — William W. Youniss, of Livonia, is a member of the Ithaca College Concert Band which will present a public concert Feb. 28 in the new Music Building on the campus. Youniss is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Youniss, 9729 Middlebelt Road.

Counselors List Campus Visits To Schoolcraft

High School counselors from schools in the Schoolcraft College district will visit the campus during the next two weeks to talk to former students from their respective schools and gain an overall evaluation of the ways in which the programs of the high schools and college make it possible for students to go from one to the other with success.

The counselors hope to learn ways in which they can be helpful to students. The College hopes to be able to build even closer relationships with the high schools in the college district, discovering ways in which it may be of greater assistance to students.

The schedule of visits follows:

Franklin High—Tuesday, Feb. 16; Charleville—Wednesday, Feb. 17; Bentley—Thursday, Feb. 18; Garden City—Tuesday, Feb. 23; Plymouth—Wednesday, Feb. 24; Northville—Thursday, Feb. 25.

WSU Playwriting Awards Contest Prize Announced

Announcement of a grant and prizes for Wayne State University's 1965 Playwriting Awards has been made by the Department of English and University Theatre, sponsors of the annual competition.

A donation of $300 from the Greater Detroit Motion Picture Council has been accepted for awards in three prestigious categories: full-length play, one-act play and children's play.

The awards will be made by a judging committee of three Detroit critics: Jay Gill of the Detroit Free Press, and Frank Gill, former critic for the Detroit Times, and Andrew Daily Star and Billboard.

Prize-winning plays will be considered for production by the University Theatre, which reserves the option for first

Kid Brotherhood Party Saturday

Redford Township children between the ages of 7 and 13 will be hosted at a Children's Brotherhood Party next Saturday, March 13, sponsored by the Redford Township Assembly for Human Relations.

A hootenanny with a well-known local folk singer, movies, refreshments and a guest speaker will be featured at the Party, and admission to the event is free.

The party will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Redford Township Community Room, Beach-Daily Rd. at Edinore, one block south of Five Mile Rd.

Cinderella Opens Friday at Thurston

The Livonia-Redford Junior Theatre Guild production of Cinderella opens this Friday night at 8 p.m. at Thurston Little Theatre. The Friday performance is the traditional Family Night Showing.

Family Night is the evening when Guild members and season ticket holders get their children for an opening night performance.

Children's performances are slated Saturday, March 13 at 9:30 and 11:30 a.m. and 2 and 4 p.m. at Thurston.

It has been impossible to obtain a replacement date at Redford Union High School. Cinderella was originally scheduled to open at Redford Union on March 6, but because of the snowstorm was "bumped" by the "Senior" Guild's production of "GIGI".

Other performances are scheduled: March 29 at Franklin High School, April 3 at Haddon School, and April 10 at Bentley High School.

Winter Sports Featured in Library Books

When the weather turns colder, there is always a surge of interest at the Livonia Public Library in books on winter sports — skiing, skating, ice hockey, ice boating, and other winter activities, according to Librarian Skip Rosenthal.

An excellent, recently-published book about winter sports is Arthur Lieber's "The Complete Book of Winter Sports" which covers a wide range of cold weather sports, including skiing, skating, bob-sledding, ice boating, curling, snowshoeing and ice hockey. The author is a well known journalist whose work appears in major magazines.

For the older, there are such newly published manuals as Frank Day's "If You Can Walk You Can Ski," Peter Estlin's "Skiing the American Way," "Ski Pointers by the Experts," "Skiing," and Ollie Polasek's "Skiing."

Ice Hockey, one of the fastest and most exciting of the winter sports, is described in "The Hockey Handbook," by Lloyd Percival, and "Andy Bathgate's Hockey Secrets," by Andy Bathgate.

Another book, S. Calhoun Smith's "Ice Boating" is a complete guide to ice boat design, construction, and sailing.

The library also has magazine articles and many other books on winter activities.

The South Branch is located at 2920 Plymouth Road, GA 7-1990, and the Sandburg Branch is at 30100 W. Seven Mile Road, 478-0700. The Livonia Library is open as follows: Monday through Thursday, 12-9; Friday and Saturday, 9-5.

Jim Wood To Host Music Show

Jim Wood, popular Detroit area radio announcer, will host the "Festival of Music" March 27 at North Farmington High School. The program, presented by the Kiwanis Club of Kenilworth, brings the talents of instrumental and vocal groups from Farmington area schools and the Kenilworths.

Wood's radio career has ranged from country and western shows to serious drama with Dr. Sterling.

In 1952, Wood became the host of "Music Hall," WJB's morning and afternoon record show. He took over the "Jim Wood Show" the same year which provided a vehicle for his abilities. As host of this live show, Wood conducted interviews, wrote material and introduced some of his famous characterizations:

Eleven Fingers Finkle, Dr. Kurt Helwig and Brandtley Fishkey to name a few.

Wood and his wife, Glenda, often work on skits together, sometimes incorporating some of their children (Susan, Deborah, Jemmie, Rebecca and Stephen).
