The VW Station Wagon Can't hold the whole population of Livonia or Plymouth or Farmington or Redford

It can hold a lot of youngsters who live in Livonia, Plymouth, Farmington and Redford. It can hold 9 adults or who knows how many children?

We have some rather extreme weather around here — both cold and hot... Fortunately, there's nothing in the VW that can freeze or boil... The engine's air-cooled.

One thing about Volkswagen owners — they're not very popular with gas station attendants. They know that you can go about 24 miles on one gallon of gasoline.

But you and the children and the neighbors' children will get along just beautifully in a VW station wagon.
