

Golden Anniversary 'Coffees' Held For Country Day School

Mrs. Charles C. Bookout, 14049 Berwick, Livonia, will be hostess at a Country Day School Golden Anniversary celebration to be given in her home on Thursday, April 1.

Dr. W. Rodman Snelling, Headmaster of Detroit Country Day School, 22305 West 13 Mile Road, Birmingham, will be present to informally discuss the 60 year history of the school and its plans for the future, and answer any questions concerning the program at Country Day. The role of independent education in general.

Dr. W. Rodman Snelling

The coffee is being given for persons interested in learning of Country Day's academic opportunity in grades Kindergarten through Twelve. Parents of prospective students and those with children currently enrolled or graduated are cordially invited.

Mrs. Bookout asks anyone who is interested and would like to meet Dr. Snelling on April 1, at 9:30 a.m. in her home, to please call her for more information. 421-0379.

Mrs. Zar Reader of 28983 Wellington Road, Farmington will be hostess at a Golden Anniversary coffee to be given in her home on Friday, April 2. The honored guest there will also be Dr. Snelling. Co-hostessing the affair will be Mrs. William Doonan and Mrs. Paul Boel. Mrs. Paul Phillips, wife of the assistant headmaster will pour.

Sharon Lamb Weds Jon Avery De Young

MRS. JON AVERY DEYOUNG

Sharon Louise Lamb of Kalamazoo married Jon Avery De Young of Kalamazoo on Feb. 12 in Christ the King Lutheran Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll W. Lamb of Livonia. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John DeYoung of Kalamazoo.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a sheath gown of French faille with a detachable chapel length train. She carried a cascade of white roses.

Serving as matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Michael V. Kellogg of Ann Arbor. The attendants were Patricia Latta of Southfield, Joyce West of Kalamazoo, and Janice DeYoung of Kalamazoo. All wore ruby velvet A-line sheaths with matching pill box hats and carried pink Cymbidium orchids.

John McKay of W. Lafayette, Indiana served as best man. Seating the guests were: James Cole, Lance DeYoung and Robert Schmeimer, all of Kalamazoo; and Donald Phillips of Cleveland.

Following a wedding trip to Canada and Niagara Falls, the couple returned to Kalamazoo where both are employed at the First National Bank and Trust Bank.

The new Mrs. DeYoung is a 1950 graduate of Bentley High School and attended Western University. The bridegroom attended schools in Kalamazoo.

A reception was held in the church's social rooms for 200 guests immediately following the ceremony. An evening reception was held at Roma Hall for 100 guests.

Out of town guests from Pilot, Linden, Ann Arbor, Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo, Benton Harbor, Indiana and Ohio attended the wedding.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a sheath gown of French faille with a detachable chapel length train. She carried a cascade of white roses.

HAVING A COFFEE break and a talk about "Happiness Is A Thing Called You" are chairman Mrs. Bruce Duke (left) 27714 Forestbrook, and her arrangements chairman, Mrs. H. J. Richardson, 35960 Nine Mile. The local women are busy with plans for the program featuring Lorene Babcock, Dave Biles and Gordon Boring, plus a showing of spring hats. Presented by Women for the United Foundation (WUF), the dessert program is from 12:30 p.m. to 3 p.m. Thursday, April 1 at Our Lady of Sorrows Hall.

St. Pat's Dance Held by Elks

12 o'clock was truly the "Bewitching Hour" for Livonia Elks who attended the gala St. Pat's Night Dance, Saturday night at the B.P.O. Elks Lodge No. 2248 on Plymouth Road.

Mrs. M. Luchewski of 8576 Sanford Drive, Garden City was the winner of a color television set. She was crowned from bed at 12:15 by Howard White, Chairman of the Livonia Elks Michigan Major Project Commission, and hurried down to the Lodge to claim her prize. "I'm just speechless," was Mrs. Luchewski's reply.

Second prize went to Leo Foucher, of 8085 Wamingo, Garden City who won a beautiful stereo set.

Third prize, an AM-FM radio went to Pam Lyons of 35990 Leon, Livonia.

Consolation prizes went to Ron Snider of 14089 Susanna, Livonia and to Harold Moses and Herman Fenster, jointly, of Southfield.

The project was kicked off at another "Bewitching Hour" Midnight, New Years Eve, for the sole purpose of raising funds to help the crippled children of Michigan. A check for $1,000 will be presented to the state chairman of the Elk Michigan Major Projects Commission this week.

Thanks also go to Mrs. Mona Bissal of Livonia, Marilyn Styk of Detroit, Mrs. Agnes Ly, Mrs. June Bering, Connie Mayer, Fran Tuma, Beverly Kinn, Edith

Fawns Hold Pot Luck for Projects

The Livonia Fawns had a Pot Luck Dinner Feb. 27 at the Elks Lodge #2248 on Plymouth Rd. with the proceeds being donated to the Michigan Elks Major Projects Commission.

Various casseroles and meat dishes were prepared and served by the Fawns under the direction of Stephanie Sloat, chairman of the Pot Luck Dinner. Thanks go to Mary Juncman, Stephanie Sloat, Irma Vogel, Mary Bulloch, Wanda White and Patricia Smith for their help, and also to all the Fawns who brought food to make this affair a success.

WHAT'S AHEAD?

Little hats move closer to the head this season, look soft and smooth in sheers, silk, finely woven straw. Big, sweeping brims cast a romantic shadow across spring.

Part-Time Student Elected Honor Society V.P.

For someone who started her college education as something of a "lark" Livonia resident Caroline Roulier has come a long way.

This University of Detroit evening student was recently initiated as a charter member of the Six Mile campus chapter of Alpha Sigma Lambda, national honor society. At the same time she was elected vice chancellor of the U. of D. chapter.

Miss Roulier, 26, is the daughter of Mr. R. E. Roulier of 9390 Lathers, Livonia.

A summa cum laude graduate of Ladywood High School in 1956, she went to work shortly after as a junior clerk in the U. of D. College of Arts and Sciences office. Today she is secretary to the academic vice president and dean of the college, the Rev. Malcolm Carson, S.J.

She is also a senior in the U. of D. Arts College who stands 74 in a class of 574. All her coursework has been done in the evenings or on her lunch hour.

Miss Roulier took her first course at the University during her second semester of 1957. It was a two-hour speech course.

Last semester she is studying Italian Opera (an elective) and American Literature to ward the B.A. degree in English she receive in August.

Her outside interests, in the little time left over from school and work, are varied. Travel has been one of them. In fact, she took time off from her school work and a three month leave of absence from the University to tour Europe with her great aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Cashan P. Head of 30493 Grandon, Livonia.

She enjoys skiing, swimming and all kinds of sports. She is also an avid reader. Her tastes range from philosophy to modern fiction.
