Catholic Women Set Two-Day Convention

The need for a personal commitment to the cause of Christianity will dominate the attention of delegates and guests to the 26th Annual Convention of the Detroit Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women, set for April 28 and 29 at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Detroit.

Area women who are serving on the committees for the convention are: Mrs. Fred Stevens, 3237 Myrna Ct., Livonia; Ingeborga chairman; Mrs. Charles McAllister, 2832 James, Garden City, chairman for patron listing in Deane Year Book and for deaconry contact; Mrs. William Zager, 12890 Naulkline, Redford Township, Hostess Chairman for Western Wayne Deane; Mrs. Rocco Paluzzi, 11715 Rosedale, Livonia, chairman for the "We Neurotics" evening workshop; and Mrs. Patrick Brady, 32744 Lyndon, Livonia.

Mrs. Brady will present one of 10 "Programs in Action" at the annual meeting. She will relate how St. Maurice Alar Society relates to the DACC's structure and programs, and how in a special way the Christ, Mass Christ Child Shower and the Holy Hour for married couples on Jan. 10, the Feast of the Holy Family furthered the aims of the Council.

Sunday School Classes Move

The Lutheran Church of the Risen Christ Sunday School moves to the Allen Elementary School on Hagerty Rd. this Sunday.

Classes, which are offered for children from three years through teen ages, begin at 9:30 a.m. Permission was granted by the church, as the congregation District Board of Education to use the building on Sunday mornings from 9 to 11 a.m. on April 12.

The use of the school for Christian Education purposes is temporary, according to the Rev. David P. Romberg, pastor of the church, as the congregation will erect a new chapel and education building on Ann Arbor Rd. and McChamplish, west of Plymouth, within a year.

Formed just about a year ago, the congregation holds a service at 10:45 a.m. at a temporary chapel at 41233 Ann Arbor Trail.

Special novena services in honor of St. Anthony are being conducted weekly on Tuesday evenings by the Franciscan Fathers of Duns Scotus College, Southfield, Michigan. Services begin at 8 p.m. every Tuesday, continuing through June 8.

Priest Joins Mediations in Farmington

On April 23 Rev. Edward Konopka of St. Colman's Roman Catholic Church in Farmington Township will join a group of Farmington teen-agers at a Morning Meditation at the Antioch Lutheran Church in the Township.

The morning meditations are an outgrowth of teen-agers' requests for such a service last September to Rev. Kallreider, pastor of Antioch Lutheran. They were held each weekday from 7:50 to 8 a.m.

Presently participating in the meditations are: Pastor Carl Mehl, Pastor George Ramsey, Rev. William Holmes, Rev. Robert Sawyer and Rev. Kallreider.

The teen minute, daily service, which is a cooperative effort on the part of Farmington church, is not designed to replace any existing religious service, but merely to meet the needs of the students.

Church and religious affiliated youth groups are an accepted and often time consuming part of church life. They are so accepted that the basic purpose and reason for such groups and for church sanction of these groups is often overshadowed and sometimes forgotten.

Two such youth groups are illustrative of the many such organizations. These are the Pioneer Girls for girls from the third through 12th grades and the Christian Service Brigade for boys between the ages of 8 and 18.

Franciscan Day of Recollection Set for Boys

To give Detroit area boys and young men a close look at the life of a Franciscan Brother, a day of recollection is scheduled for Sunday, April 25 by the Brothers at Duns Scotus College.

Taking the form of a spiritual renewal, the day will offer three conferences led by Franciscan Priests and Brothers and afternoon and evening sessions in which the boys will participate.

Because they feel that their vocation is not very well understood, the Franciscan Brothers are inviting interested young Catholic men in the area to visit with them and learn something of the work and rewards that go with this way of life.

Victory Over Death
