Film on Emotionally Disturbed Children Highlights Redford MAEDC Meeting

The Redford Chapter of the Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children had a film showing for its March meeting when the speaker was unable to attend.

The film, entitled "Who Cares About Jamie?", depicted the effect of adults on a child in a routine day of his life. Claire Davis from the Michigan office brought the new film to obtain the impressions of the group as to its value for purchase. Eight students were present from Marygrove College. Discussion followed on the aims, goals and functions of MAEDC and its local chapters; and on legislation regarding disturbed children.

Legislation has made facilities available but can only be of benefit when utilized. Parents groups are needed to request films showing for its March meeting when the speaker was unable to attend.

South Redford and Redford Union Districts have agreed to make a study of the situation. State Aid is provided for this service of Special Education for disturbed children and costs much less than the placing in institutions, the children who are in need of this service.

A board meeting followed the general meeting. The decision was made to donate the MAEDC recommended book "No Language But A Cry" to the public libraries in Redford Township, Livonia and Farmington; also to donate two copies of the Suburban League Book "Blinkie The Forgetful Clown" to the Methodist Children's Village for the younger children's cottages. Presentation of the books has been made.

The Redford Chapter is the only Chapter of MAEDC which is not connected with an institution or school but is dedicated to the service of parents with children in the public schools as well as the institutions. The Chapter is looking forward to enlarging the membership so as to have more contact with areas outside and around Redford Township including Detroit. Membership is $3 per year including both state and local dues, and may be mailed to the treasurer, Mrs. Beverly Kay, 16864 Sunderland, Detroit, 48219. Membership is not necessary to attend the meetings and the public is welcome.

The next meeting will take place on April 22 at 8 p.m. in Methodist Church, 26645 W. Six Mile Road. The speaker will be Ann Tentenny, Director of Nursing, Northville State Hospital, who will explain the children's school program.

Chapter officers attended the Northwestern Child Guidance Clinic Annual Meeting where speaker David Wineman spoke on "The Role of The School, The Clinic And The Home." Wineman recommended more conferences between these people to establish closer contact with more understanding. The Redford Chapter is glad to give parents the help they need to achieve this type of understanding. Professionals and interested persons desiring to aid disturbed children are also important and welcome to the Chapter meetings. Refreshments will be served.

Human Relations News For The Suburbs

By ROBERT MILES EDDY
Farmington Human Relations Council

The tendency to see problems of human relations in terms of "we" and "they" seems to be growing. I keep hearing suburban residents talk about "them" moving in and what "we" should do. There are no solutions to our problems in these terms. Only as "we" discover that "they" are also people with virtues and vices, pains and pleasures, dedication and selfishness, wisdom and stupidity—just like "us"—only then will our insoluble inter-group problems become solvable problems of human relations.

But our suburban isolationism makes it difficult. The legacy of job discrimination makes the percentage of Negro families able to afford suburban homes very small. According to our Michigan Constitution any Negro family who has the money can move to a large suburb. But how many of that affluent minority are willing to risk neighborhood favor? Not many, perhaps one in a hundred, so the chance of my area becoming integrated—except in token fashion—is pretty slim. "Good" some would say. I say, "Terrible," not so much out of concern for chocolate-skinned children as out of concern for my own. I know that this racial isolation makes my children subject to a pernicious disease: prejudice. For no matter how much I talk to them of the virtues of integration, their "we" will be white. There just aren't any Negroes around, to keep that unconscious assumption of whiteness from entering into their definition of "we."

Despite the proliferation of lava, center Detroit is becoming more solidly black each year. The suburbs are still overwhelmingly white. "They" are black; "we" are white. The center city melting pots, which amalgamated Poles, and Italians, Irish and Jews, Germans and Greeks into the exotic blend we call America, no longer exist. In their place holds a pressure cooker of frustration, every day fixating the alienation of 10% of America's citizenry from the other 90%. Pressure cookers explode if left to boil too long.

White America's dedication to Democracy and Judeo-Christian ethics has, so far, failed to create a large enough "we." Perhaps enlightened self-interest will.

It is not enough for well-meaning whites to say "we won't throw stones if 'they' move in. We must do everything in our power to make 'them' part of 'us.' Many of my friends disagree, but I believe we must take positive action to bring more Negro families to our suburbs—not to much for "their" sake as for "our" own.
