- Ladywood High School teacher Sister Mary Cornelia, CSSR;
- Robert Dale Cherry of Detroit, a teacher at Frost Junior High School; and
- Farmington resident Wilbur Arden Stehake of 25415 Powers Rd., who teaches at Southfield Public School.

The Institute, financed by grants from the National Science Foundation, provides the high school teachers with advanced education in their chosen fields.

Each participant will take six credit hours of graduate courses for six weeks leading to either the master of arts in the teaching of mathematics degree or the master of arts degree in mathematics. The Summer Institute runs from June 28 to Aug. 6.

Each participant will receive a stipend of $400 if he lives in his regular place of residence and $450 if he lives away from his regular residence. Each will also receive $90 per dependent (up to four dependents), and a travel allowance.

Clar'nceville To Borrow $100,000

The Clarenceville School District will borrow $100,000 to meet current financial needs until state aid-to-education payments reach the district later this year.

The Board of Education authorized the loan at its June 10 meeting. Manufacturers National Bank was declared low bidder for the transaction.

Board members authorized the hiring of three new teachers. Allen Huso will teach high school commercial courses; Mary Bush and Martha Sleaf will receive elementary positions.

The Board boosted vacation time for custodial employees to three weeks after 10 years of employment with the school district. Cafeteria employees were given an upward salary adjustment.

In other action:

- The Board will ask the Oakland County Road Commission to erect "Slow-School" signs near public schools.
- A report was received from the University of Michigan Accrediting Committee pointing out "several outstanding features of the present senior high school program."
