MRS. FREDRICK W. SWAN, JR.

Kay Burnett Weds Fredrick W. Swan

Kay L. Burnett married Fredrick W. Swan, Jr. at a candle-light ceremony June 5 at the First Presbyterian Church of Plymouth. Dr. Henry Walsh officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Donald Thomas of Chelsea. Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick W. Swan, Sr. of Wayne are the parents of the bridegroom.

For her marriage the bride chose a chapel length gown of chantilly lace with a train. She carried a nosegay of white carnations, American beauty roses and lily of the valley.

Connie K. Strauts served as matron of honor. She wore a floor length gown of yellow shantastic and carried a nosegay of tinted carnations.

Stukey Hirth and Janet Theuser were bridesmaids. They wore blue shantastic gowns. Ronald E. Swan was his brother's best man. Dale Hirth and Dean Theuser seated the guests.

A reception for 100 at Wildwood Hall followed the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Bentley High School, while her husband graduated from Wayne High School.

Following a wedding trip to Hawaii the newlyweds will reside in Plymouth.

MRS. GERALD B. FISCHER

Long-Fischer Ceremony June 12 in Pennsylvania

St. Matthew Lutheran Church in York, Pennsylvania, was the scene of the June 12 wedding of Catherine Louise Long and Gerald Buckley Fischer.

The Rev. Gordon E. Folkemer and the Rev. Russell M. Long performed the double ring ceremony. Rev. Long is a brother of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell E. Long of York, while the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald J. Fischer of Plymouth.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long gown of silk organza with Alencon lace trim around the scoop neckline. The skirt was accented with a self band in a bow with streamers flowing into the train. An ivory illusion veil was draped from a garland of Swiss pearlized petals and a cluster
