

Church Bells Peal for Freedom Sunday

In accordance with the designation of July 4 as "Let Freedom Ring Day" by Governor Romney area churches have been requested to ring their bells at 1 p.m.

The mayors of Plymouth, Livonia and Farmington have all issued proclamations urging citizens to join in the observance.

Residents in Redford Township, Garden City and Nankin Township have also been urged by their officials to observe the day.

The three year old program is under the direction of the H-Y clubs of the Michigan YMCA. Last year 212 communities participated.

'Drayton Lodge' Will Open Summer of 1966

It looks as though after 25 years of Rev. and Mrs. William H. Perkins of 1440 W. Ann Arbor Trail, Farmington, will manage to get a summer home built on Lake Louise, Michigan. Rev. Perkins, who is once again at the age of 76, has received more than $3,000. The congregation of the Drayton Ave. Presbyterian Church in Farmington has raised the money for his work as the visitation minister, administrative assistant, and for serving as the congregation's only minister for a year. The congregation wanted to send the Perkins on an all expense paid trip to the Holy Land, but in the words of Mrs. Perkins "since we had never thought about visiting the Holy Land we stated that if they wished to do something like that we would have to have these funds built up." The purchase of the 100 feet of lake frontage goes back to Rev. Perkins' pastorate of the Case Ave. Methodist Church during the depression. For five summers he took more than 200 kids from the area up to Lake Louise. Transportation was furnished by private auto in groups. At that time he was given the opportunity to purchase the "covered with white birch trees" at a nominal cost with the stipulation that a building be constructed within three years. This provision has been waived for the past 22 years because Rev. Perkins has always served churches in need and just has never been able to build. Mrs. Perkins told the Observer, however, that every two years or so the family would make the 200 mile trip just "to walk around the property." This summer though, thanks to their friends, a well built, drug, septic tanks installed and the foundation laid. Next spring the cottage will be built. There's no problem in getting the cottage—it's already been christened "Drayton Lodge" in honor of the people who made it possible. Rev. Perkins, who went back to Wayne State at 68 and received a master's in social work at 70, has had a varied career as a Methodist Minister,

Plymouth Girl Named to Post

Suzanne Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dumas Davis of 1325 W. Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth, was named Guild Girl of the Year at a recent statewide conference of the Michigan Guild Girls.

The 17-year-old senior at Plymouth High School was also elected one of three commissioners for the organization which is made up of member organizations for the American Baptist Churches in the community. In this post she will assist with planning meetings throughout the coming year and in formulating the conference next June. Suzanne was one of seven teenagers from throughout the state nominated for the post.

Rev. W. Moldwin Attends Conference on Economics

Rev. William G. Moldwin, pastor of the Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Livonia, has just returned from the Michigan Clergy Economic Education Conference at the Boyne Highlands.

He's enthusiastic about the conference, which brought 31 pastors of different denominations and 32 representatives of management, labor and government together, and about its practical value.

Pastor Moldwin told the Observer that "Basically the conference helped to bridge the social and economic differences between the clergyman and his congregation which is daily affected by the nature and problems of our economy."

"Anyone who has a pat answer or easy solution to the complicated problem of industrialization and automation is to be suspected," he continued. "The conference provided valuable skill for me to use in sermons and counseling to better interpret and understand the economic order."

Sponsored by the Clergy Economic Education Foundation at a cost of more than $8,000, the conference considered such topics as: economic values; the U.S. economy; international economy; the free enterprise system; banking and fiscal policy; credit; labor-management relations; and the problems of agriculture. Dr. John

W. Hicks, economist and assistant to the president of Purdue University; Dr. William T. Hogan, S.J., director of industrial economics at Fordham University; Mike Kerwin, education representative of the UAW; Larry Johns, executive vice president of the Isabella County State Bank and treasurer of the Michigan Bankers' Association; and Dr. Robert Kramer of the MSU School of Agriculture.

Sponsors of the Foundation are: American Federation of Labor; National Association of Manufacturers; American Iron and Steel Institute; American Petroleum Institute; Ford Foundation; Lilly Endowment Inc.; and National Consumer Finance Association.

Missionary Told About Work

A combined congregation of the Livonia and Farmington Seventh-day Adventist churches was addressed by visiting Pastor Clarence L. Powers at the June 19 church services.

The church sermon and afternoon Young People's meeting consisted of experiences from Pastor Powers' field of missionary endeavor—the Inter-American Division where he is the division president.

For nearly thirty-five years Pastor and Mrs. Powers have been active in missionary work in an area comprised of Mexico, the Guianas, the seven Central American countries, Colombia, Venezuela, and all the Caribbean islands—including Cuba, Haiti, and the Dominican Republic. "Through all the upheaval in these islands," Pastor Powers stated, "the advancement of the cause of religion continues to thrive, though all the squalor and poverty of some of this island area the gospel message advances and grows."

Mr. Glen Powers of Northville, who is the head Elder for the Livonia Seventh-day Adventist church, is a brother of Pastor Powers.
