

Redford Defeats Detroit

Another feather in the cap for baseball in the Greater Livonia League!

It came last week when Redford Township of the Livonia-Detroit Free Press League knocked off West Seven Mile of the Detroit Baseball Federation, 2-0.

The game served as the first test between the so-called strong teams from Detroit against teams from the Livonia area.

"I sure was proud of the way our team came through," said Manager Al Turner of the Redford Townshipers. "Five of our regulars were all there, yet we still won impressively."

Arnold Helwig pitched the shutout—the first of two white-washing jobs the ex-Turston high star turned in during the week.

Helwig followed up by blanking Wayne, 6-0, in a Free Press League game.

He scattered two hits and fanned ten in the West Seven Mile battle. Tim Fisher's single and Dave Woloch's triple produced Redford's first run in the third inning.

In the fifth, Mike Turner walked, Helwig moved him to second with an infield out and Bob Holmes delivered a run-producing single.

Against Wayne, Helwig fished out three hits, while fanning nine.

Redford jumped off to a 3-0 lead in the first inning when Glen Knack tripled, Rick Harlow singled, Rick Collins singled and Terry Rothwell delivered a one-base blow.

In the fourth Redford bagged two more runs when Claude McTaggart was safe on an error and Turner and Knack followed with singles.

A walk and error ended the Redford scoring in the fifth.

Games are scheduled in the Free Press League this Wednesday and Friday at Henry Ford Field.

Wednesday's action matches Redford against North Dearborn at 8:15 p.m. and Wayne against South Dearborn.

On Friday, the Livonia Giants face Wayne at 8:15 while Redford squares off with North Dearborn at 8:15.

The regular season ends next Wednesday (July 21). Then will follow the playoffs to determine who'll go against the Oakland County Champs on Aug. 1 for the right to play in the state semifinals at Ann Arbor on Aug. 7.
