

MR. AND MRS. DAVID ELSILA

Newly-wed Elsilas Touring Europe

In a beautiful but simple ceremony David Deutch, sister of the bride, officiated over the wedding of David and Elsie Elsila in the chapel of Temple Israel in Detroit Saturday evening.

The Rabbi M. Edward Syme officiated over the ceremony witnessed by 40 of the young couple's relatives and close friends. Following the wedding ritual 300 friends were the guests of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Deutch to honor the newlyweds at a buffet at Raleigh House in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Elsila, Westover, Southfield, formerly of Redford Township, are the parents of the groom.

The new Mrs. Elsila chose for her wedding a gown of white silk. A-line trimmed, bolero style, with cotton lace bodice of the bouquet of daisies. Her veil was held in place by a flat bow covered in the same bouquet of lace daisies signed by the bride. Attending the couple were Northville.

Karen Bauman Weds Howard D. May

St. Robert Bellarmine church was the setting for the June 20 marriage of Karen Ann Bauman to Howard D. May with Rev. Fr. Thomas Bodalski officiating at his first wedding as a new priest in the parish.

Parents of the couple are: Mr. and Mrs. James A. Bauman of Redford Township, and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh May of Fraser.

The bride wore a gown of white silk organza with a scalloped neckline and bodice of Alencon lace adorned with seed pearls. Her veil of illusion was held with a small crown of pearls and rhinestones. The bride's bouquet was a cascade of baby carnations, mums entwined with ivy and centered with one white orchid.

Linda Bauman, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor and her floor-length gown of American Beauty topped with a cascade of deep pink was fashioned with a velvet bow at the waist. Her flowers were dyed to match carnations and mums in a cascade with trailing ivy. Bridesmaids included: Cathy Hendricks, cousin of the bride; Isabel Fry, Marcia Harris, Joanne Steele and Lisa May, sister of the bridegroom. Their gowns were identical to the maid of honor's in pink with matching headpieces of short veils with a material-cut flower in the center with pearl pointed petals. They all carried bouquets of carnations, mums and ivy to match gowns. Dick Powell, a former room-

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the estate of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bauman in Rochester. A brunch for 100 guests was held in the Gold Room at the Oakland University Hall. A graduate of Thurston high school, Karen has been employed in the office of the S. S. Kresge at the Livonia Mall, and is to attend schools in Fraser and Ferris Institute.

MR. AND MRS. ALBERT LORENGER, Sr., celebrated their wedding anniversary with a party for family and friends at the home of their son Albert Lorenger, Jr. of Farmington.
