

MRS. ROBERT WAYNE SPARKMAN

Martha Mary Chapel Is Scene of Ceremony

The Martha Mary Chapel at Greenfield Village was the setting for the June 25 wedding of Roxanne J. Smith and Robert Wayne Sparkman. Rev. Henry Walsh performed the candle-light ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex A. Smith of Plymouth, while the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Sparkman of Plymouth.

For her marriage, the new Mrs. Sparkman wore a white silk organza sheath with elegant re-embroidered lace and seed pearl appliques and a chapel train. The French illusion veil fell from a circlet of white roses and Stephanotis. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, Stephanotis and ivy.

Sally A. Hallen was maid of honor. Christine Klemach and Sandra Seward were the bridesmaids. They wore identical blue silk organza sheaths with Dior-bow headpieces with lulle veils and carried cascade bouquets of shattered carnations.

Delbert Nolan was the best man. Seating the guests were Buzz Smith and John Marcum. A reception for 135 at the Dearborn Inn followed the ceremony. Out of town guests from Lansing and Flint attended.

The couple are graduates of Plymouth High School and a University of Michigan. The bride is a member of Chi Omega sorority while her husband is affiliated with Sigma Chi fraternity.

The newlyweds will make their home in Plymouth.
