

Church Visits Indian Mission

Life on an Indian Reservation was experienced Aug. 28 and 29 by members of The Church of Jesus Christ when they visited the Faith's Muncie Indian Mission located in Ontario approximately 120 miles northeast of Detroit.

Many of the visitors from around the United States and Canada assembled at one of The Church's first Indian Missions for official services.

Rev. Eddy Gives His Side of Story

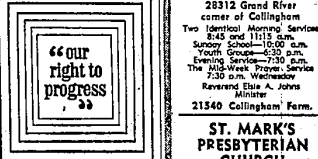

At the recent meeting of the Livonia Chapter of Parents Without Partners, the Rev. R. M. Eddy of the Universalist-Unitarian Church of Farmington, spoke on his beliefs and work.

He read one of his actual sermons and then read a newspaper account of the same sermon and gave the group his side of the stories that have been printed recently.

The Parents Without Partners church group does in no way back or rebuff anything any speaker has to say and does not take sides, according to PWP President Eldon Price.

The Livonia chapter meets every fourth Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. at the United Church of the Nativity, Henry Ruff Rd. at West Chicago in Livonia. The group includes members from Livonia, Plymouth, Farmington, Bedford Township, Garden City, Nankin Township.

Further information about the group and its work may be obtained by contacting Eldon Price at 422-3788.

Man's inalienable rights have deep spiritual roots. They grow the strongest when one grows spiritually -- in a life governed by God. "Contemporary Culture," a study how cults differ from orthodox Christianity, is among several new courses to be offered when Detroit Bible College begins its Evening School fall semester Sept. 16.

To be taught by Rev. W. Howard School, the course will include a review of the history and doctrine of various contemporary Christian cults.

Other new courses and their instructors scheduled for Evening School are: "Bible Story Telling" - Florence Reed; "Bible Study Methods" - Rev. M. Alfonso Ferris; "Christian Education" - Rev. Jack Bradford; "Operation Expansion" - Rev. Harold Moran; and "Teaching Aids" - Rev. Elmer Taylor.

Temple Beth Am Slaters Classes

Among the speakers at the synagogue were former Indian Chief, Kenneth Alberta, Church President, Goro Claravino, director of the project. He was assisted by Joseph Milantoni of Allen Park, Michigan and Anthony Scolaro of Detroit, also CIBA officers and active participants in the Muncie Mission.

Alberts stated The Church was always welcome on the reserve and the Indian people were indeed grateful for the assistance and good work of Claravino and the young people he was happy to see them taking an interest in The Church missionary work and was looking forward to the next field trip.

D'Amico pointed out the rewards of missionary work and cited personal experiences in this regard.

Substance Is Topic

Christian Science churches will explore the subject of "Substance" this Sunday. Passages to be considered from the Christian Science textbook will include these lines: "Mortals must look beyond fading, finite forms, if they would gain the true sense of things... When we realize that Life is Spirit, never in nor of matter, this understanding will expand into self-completeness, finding all in God, good, and needing no other consciousness."

Missionaries Will Speak

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Smith, for many years pioneer missionaries in Viet Nam, will speak at The Southfield Community on Indian St., north of Eight Mile Rd., on Sept. 12 at 7 p.m.

The Smiths have just returned from Viet Nam and will have an up-to-the minute report on conditions in that country and on the plight of Christians and missions.
