

MR. AND MRS. JOHN HERBERT WOODS

Helen Otwell Wed in Plymouth Aug. 21

Helen Louise Otwell became the bride of John Herbert Woods at an afternoon ceremony on Aug. 21. The Rev. Hugh White of the First Methodist Church of Plymouth performed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Otwell of Plymouth are the parents of the bride. Parents of the bridegroom are Dr. and Mrs. Robert Woods of Grosse Pointe Shores.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of imported silk organza with a scooped neckline and long sleeves. Her tiered silk illusion veil was secured by a cap of organza petals, and lilies of the valley. She carried a cascade bouquet of white fugi and snowdrift mums and pink sweetheart roses.

Carol Otwell was her sister's maid of honor. Linda LaGrow and Sus Shidner were the attendants. They were dressed in floor-length gowns of aqua linen accented at the waist and hem with a deeper aqua trim.

The maid of honor carried a cascade of bouquet of pale pink carnations and deep pink sweetheart roses while the bridesmaids carried pale pink and aqua carnations.

James Woods served as his brother's best man, while William Otwell and Gary Alderson acted as the grooms.

Solist for the ceremony was Kathy Otwell, a cousin of the bride. A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the church's Fellowship Hall.

Following a honeymoon in northern Michigan, the newlyweds will reside on the campus of Western Michigan University. They are both students at WMU and will graduate in June.

Bloodmobile Sets Date for Livonia

Over the past several years the population growth of the Northwest area—along with increased production and economic expansion has brought with it an increase in community responsibilities which must be shared by us all.

Among the more vital community services to experience an ever-increasing demand has been the Red Cross Blood Program. As population figures become larger, the calls for blood become greater. Red Cross serves as a collecting agent for blood. Because you give, blood is available through your group account when you need it.

The bi-monthly Northwest area bloodmobile is visiting the Red Cross Office, 31228 Five Mile Road in Livonia, Thursday, Sept. 16, from 3 to 9 p.m. For an appointment to give, call 422-2787.

"PWP" means Parents Without Partners.
