Many sophomores thought is alike on their opinions of the Sophomore Orientation Dance and the Sophomore Orientation Dance and Harry Methonald all agreed that the dance was "pretty and "splendid." Marsha Nichols and April Bonner thought the dance was "a lot of fur" because it gave them a chance to "meet new friends. Gary Haughty and "splendid." Which goes to show that Candy Robinson was right in Saying, "I like the BIG TURN OUT."

They Beat Us To It

Folks down in Rio De Janeiro have beaten Livenians to the draw. They dedicated their Escola Publica Adlal Stevenson late last month.

The public school is in the Iraja trade workers' housing project and is one of the most modern in Brazil.

At the ceremony dedicating the school in memory of the Isu United Nations Ambassador, United States Consul General Roy T. Davis said, "Nothing could so move the democratic spirit of Addal Stevenson more than to know his name was were among the chief concerns of the late stateman, who represented the U.S. in the United Nations, and among the engits, Stevenson considered education for all one of the most important.

Livenia's Adlal Stevenson High School, now being completed at Six Mille Road and Whiley Drive, is scheduled: to be dedicated late in October. Stevenson students are currently housed at Bentley High by using double sessions as a solution until the third secondary school is open.
