

Adolph Konopkas
Note 50 Years

Adolph and Josephine Konopkas of 20110 Mayfield Avenue, Livonia, celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary, Sept. 6, at the home of their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Skow of 19970 Mayfield, Livonia.

Adolph and Josephine were married in St. Joseph's Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., by Father Sewitz. After their marriage they lived in Warren, O., until 1936, when they moved to Detroit. They have resided in the "City of Livonia" for the past two years.

The Konopkas had two children, Irene, who is now deceased and Eleanor. The Konopkas have four grandchildren, Beverly, Kenneth Jr., Roger and Jane.

During the weekend of the celebration, the couple were visited by many friends and relatives, including members of the Polish Baptist Church. Mrs. Konopka's sister-in-law, Mrs. Nellie Szepietowski, her son, Stanley and his wife, Marie, were guests at the home of Adolph and Josephine on Aug. 29, but could not stay for the dinner given on Sept. 6.

Mrs. Konopka's niece, Mrs. Nellie Leini, her husband, William and their two sons, William, Jr. and Richard of Warren, O., were guests at the home of Eleanor from Sept. 4 to Sept. 6. Mrs. Konopka's niece, Sister Estelle of St. Cabrini's School in Taylor, was also present to congratulate the couple.

New Addition

STILL HOLDING HANDS Emma and Charles Meier celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at an open house Sunday, Sept. 12 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Bond on Grandon, Livonia. Mrs. Bond is the daughter of the Meiers. The couple has four children, one son who was killed in Italy during World War II, eight grandchildren. Meier is a retired Detroit Times employee. Presently the couple travel and Meier works at his hobby work, wood-working. Of his marriage he says he is still "the silent partner".

"Fashions A-Go-Go"
First On For Fall

"Fashions A-Go-Go" is the intriguing title of the gala fashion show being held by the Women's Group of Our Lady of Sorrows Church, Tuesday evening, Sept. 21, at 8 o'clock.

Noreen Martin will be Chairman of the affair and it will be held at Our Lady of Sorrows Church. Seats will provide the clothes and members of the group will be children's clothes shown as well as adults'. There will be several bonus attractions in addition to the fashion show.

A comedy skit with wigs will be shown during intermission and there will be a full wedding party instead of only the traditional bride in white.

Irene McKinnon will be the fashion commentator and models will be Jane Fagan, Mary McHugh, Dottie Dawson, Marilyn Robertson, Ruth Nichols, Peg Girardo, and Shirley Horner.

High school girls Linda Applegate and Julie McKinnon will model and the children's clothes will be modeled by Mari, Megan, and Maureen Martin.

Sounds like a fun evening so hurry and call Noreen Martin, 474-1383 or Florence Zeglin, 476-0020 for reservations. Tickets are $1.50 for adults or $1 for children.

Mr. and Mrs. George Morse of Livonia announce the engagement of their daughter, Susan to Daniel Zawacki. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Zawacki of Livonia. Both are Bentley High School graduates. The prospective bridegroom attends Scholastic College. An August wedding is planned.

The fellow who thinks he knows it all might get it if he knew when to stop talking.

Gladner-Remeny Wed in Temple

Sharie Ann Remeny and Al Remeny, Jeffery Zussman es- bert Jonathan Gladner were coting guests and bridesmaids. Following a 10-day honeymoon in Toronto and New York City the newbrides will live on Remeny and Cantor Harold Orbach officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Remeny of Shrewsbury, Farmington are the parents of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gladner of Danville, New York, parents of the groom.

The bride's gown of silk organza was designed with a hi-rise waist. The bodice had cap sleeves and a shallow scoop neckline trimmed with imported Swiss flowers which continued down the front of the A-line skirt to the hemline. The back of the gown was fashioned with a chapel length train accented with a bow at the waist. A bow of silk organza centered with a ruffled trim in pearls held a veil of silk illusion. The bride carried a nosegay of stephanotis.

Mrs. Ira Carmen and Mrs. Frederick Goldberg were matrons of honor. Felice Parrish and Nancy Kander were bridesmaids with Gail and Amy Carmen serving as flower girls.

The were gownned alike in full length frocks of white embroidered silk organza over pink taffeta tied at the waist with orange velvet streamers. Their headpieces were bows of matching material.

The flower girls wore short dresses of white embroidered silk organza over pink taffeta fashioned with hi-rise waists and butterfly sashes.

Gerald Krueger was best man with Jerry Share, Douglas
