Jaycee Auxiliary Sponsors 'Skyscraper' for Benefit

Tickets are still available for the Metropolitan Jaycee Auxiliary's benefit performance of "Skyscraper" at the Fisher Theater Sept. 23. The performance is part of the pre-Broadway run of the new musical scheduled to open in New York the first of October. Julie Harris starts in this adaptation of Elmer Rice's "Dream Girl." It is her first musical role. Sammy Kahn and Jimmy Van Heusen have written the music. Jaycees from throughout the area are cooperating in the benefit for the Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children. The Metropolitan Jaycee Auxiliary is a group of 33 Jaycee Auxiliaries who have united to sponsor the second annual Fisher Theater benefit. Proceeds from the event will go to the placement fund of the MAEDC. The placement fund provides specialized treatment at private facilities for disturbed children. The cost of this treatment and living away from home is very expensive and impossible for some families. This is the third year the Michigan Jaycee Auxiliary has helped MAEDC as a state service project. Last year the Jaycees financed the treatment for three disturbed children. Besides fund raising activities for the placement fund many auxiliaries work directly with child guidance clinics and hospitals in their area. Local Auxiliary members on the Central committee are: Farmington: Mrs. Donald Kobman; Mrs. Ralph Parand; Mrs. Richard Tupper; and

Mrs. Nory Kennedy. Redford Township: Mrs. Herbert Cole.

While the Garden City, Plymouth and Nankin Township organizations do not have members on the Central committee they are participating in any local Jaycee event.

Ticket information may be obtained from any local Jaycee Auxiliary member.

MR. AND MRS. JERRY CLIFTON GIBBONS

Carol Lee Rothrock Is August Bride

Marriage vows were exchanged between Carol Lee Rothrock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Rothrock, Fox, Redford Township, and Jerry Clifton Gibbons, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Gibbons of Grandville, in Detroit.

Rev. William Whitledge officiated at the Aug. 7 ceremony in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in Livonia. The gown chosen by the bride was designed by her and made by her grandmother of silk organza over taffeta. Her full skirt featured a train of seven tiers of organza edged in Venice lace. The elbow length sleeves were sheer. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis in a crescent design.

Camilla Aulerich, Ann Lynn Rockwell and Vonnice Evans were attendants gowning in sleeveless sheaths of yellow nylon dotted swiss over taffeta. They carried white mums and yellow daisies in baskets. They also wore picture hats.

William Evans served as best man with Richard Felner, Rich-ard Aulerich, James Evans

seating the guests. A reception was held at the church for 150 guests. Following the reception the newlyweds left for a week at Honey Harbour. They have taken up residence in Redford Township.

The bride is a graduate of RU High School and Michigan State, and now teaches at Redford Union.

Her groom is a graduate from Redford High and is presently a student at Henry Ford College.

Holda-Krause Marriage Rites Held Aug. 27

Janice Alynne Holda of Redford Township became the bride of David John Krause of Plymouth on Aug. 27 at the First Church of the Nazarene in Detroit.

For her marriage the new Mrs. Krause wore a silk organza gown with an all lace chapel train. She carried phalaenopsis orchids, sweetheart roses with an ivy cascade.

Joyce Ann Holda was her sister's maid of honor. Diane Gustafson and Arlene Blight were the bridesmaids. They carried pink sweetheart roses and blue delphiniums and wore different shades of blue gowns.

Warren Carlson served as best man, while Brian Kraus, David Butler, James Anderson and Bill Holda acted as the groomsmen.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Michigan, while her husband graduated from the Lawrence Institute of Technology.

The newlyweds will reside in Plymouth.

Kennedy-Kull Ceremony Sept. 3

Karen Elizabeth Kennedy and Allan A. Kull exchanged marriage vows Sept. 3 at the Methodist Children's Village Chapel. The Rev. Jon M. Clapp of Lola Valley Methodist Church officiated at the double ring candle-light ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kennedy of Redford Township, while the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kull of Detroit.

For her marriage, the new Mrs. Kull wore a lace street length gown and carried a bouquet of white carnations and ivy.

Joyce Geiger was maid of honor and wore a blue lace street length dress. She carried blue and white carnations.

Thomas Moran was best man, while David Beyreis and Joseph Kray acted as the groomsmen.

Following a reception for 100 guests at the Sun-White, the couple left for a one-week honeymoon in northern Michigan.
