IN THE MICHIGAN CHEERING section were members of the Redford Suburban League. As a special event, the RSL chartered two buses for the Ann Arbor trip. In the rah-rah mood are (l-r) Enid Dobber, Ray Morrison, Loyd Dobbert, Audrey Crawford, Minnie Hanah and Nancy Simeneau. The next meeting of the League will be held at Kenwood Restaurant, Five Mile Road on Wednesday, Oct. 13. D. James G. is the guest speaker. He will reveal interesting facts of the unique demonstration project he piloted this summer. The League is the benefactor of special children.

'Sugar and Spice' Charm Course for Girls 8-12 Begins
Barbara Loren and Loreta Weller, District Wendy Ward Directors, Montgomery Ward and Company, today announced the introduction of their newest "Wendy Ward" charm course called "Sugar and Spice." This special new charm course is designed with the younger girls, ages 8 through 12, in mind. As Mrs. Loren states, "Our preteen years are the foundation of our teens... if your young girls are taught the fundamentals of good grooming, good posture, etiquette, and the social graces, they can be assured of a happy, well-adjusted high school life. We think that it is a good idea to get our youngsters started early in learning these essentials of charm... hence, the reason for the creation of "Sugar and Spice."
These Wendy Ward courses will be held only on Saturdays at each Montgomery Ward store from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. for five weeks beginning on October 23 and November 17. The enrollment fee of $7.50 includes the five, one-hour lessons and a "Wendy Ward" charm book.
At the conclusion of each complete course the pre-teens are allowed to participate in a "Sugar and Spice" fashion show under the direction of Barbara Loren and Loreta Weller. This fashion show featuring Montgomery Ward children's fashions enables the pre-teens to put to use many of the fundamentals learned in their charm classes.
"We are hopeful that 'Sugar and Spice' is as successful as our 'Wendy Ward' charm program. We are glad that we have the opportunity to give the same professional instruction to Wendy's little sister," says Miss Weller. "Anyone that is interested in this new charm course can enroll in the Children's or Young Junior Department in their neighborhood Montgomery Ward store."
