

Here's A Guide to Candidates for Tuesday's Court Election

Next Tuesday, Wayne County voters will choose four members of the Wayne County Circuit Court. To help Observer readers evaluate the eight candidates in the race, the League of Women Voters of Livonia has again prepared this voters guide.

The League of Women Voters is a national, non-partisan organization established in 1920 to encourage active and informed citizens' participation in government. It never supports or opposes any political party or candidate, but it does present factual, non-partisan information on candidates and ballot issues.

EIGHT CANDIDATES FOR WAYNE COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT JUDGE

NOVEMBER 2 ELECTION

Four to be Elected. Term Expires January 1, 1971.

Salary: $29,000 Annually ($15,000 to be paid by the State, $14,000 to be paid by Wayne County).

The state legislature created seven new circuit court judges for Wayne County, four to be elected this fall and the other three to be elected in the fall of 1966. Following is biographical information on each of the eight candidates in the November 2 election.

St. Agatha Accents
with Mary Lou Mangold
With pomp and solemnity, the class of '66, robed in green caps and gowns, marched down the aisle to receive, behind rings in the Ring Day ceremony on October 13.

The rite, conducted by Father John R. Reid, took place at a special 9 a.m. Mass attended by the high school student body. Father Reid explained the symbolism of the green gown, gold and engraved crest of the rings.

After Mass, the seniors attended a pancake and sausage breakfast hosted by the sophomores. The luncheon was decorated with a fall motif, carried out with brown and gold crepe paper and sunflower centerpieces and favors.

In the center of the circle of tables stood Missie "Peanut" characters made of paper mache and wearing green mortarboards. At the breakfast Gregory Brown, senior president spoke for the class in his thank you address.

On Wednesday, 14 finalists read for parts in the one-act play "Anastasia".

The judges - Sister Helen Charles, Sister Paul Christine, Sister Mary Edward, and Miss O'Leary - cast the play:

Anna-Beth Brown, Empress - Susan Behrend, Liebenberg, Pamela Kovarik, charwoman - Jessie Gorden, Varva - Mary Lou Mangold, Bounine - Tom Seney, Petrov - Paul Perko, Chernov - Michael Mc Mahon, Paul-Timothy Rourke, sleigh-driver - Stephen Funke, Sergei - Arthur Francis.

Rehearsals began Oct. 18. Dress rehearsal is scheduled for Nov. 17, and the play will be presented at the Genesee Drama Festival on Sunday, Nov. 20.

Acting as directors are Sister Helen Charles and Sister Paul Christine. Scenery director is Miss Charlene O'Leary.

The 1965 Torch Drive began at Saint Agatha's Oct. 13, and will run until Nov. 3. Home-room representatives who collect donations each day during co-courts are: Sue Behrend, Donna Baker, Jessie Gorden, Mary Winklerjohn, Denise Wittstock, Marcia Meisner, and Ron Blackmore.

Each day the room with the highest percentage of returns displays "Torchy" the traveling trophy, for the day. The room with the highest total percentage at the close of the drive will keep "TORCHY." Chairman of the drive is Mary Lou Mangold.

Student of the Month for October is John Marshall. Since transferring to St. Agatha's in his junior year, John has served the school in many ways. He was treasurer last year and Student Council President as a Senior.
