CAMP OAKLAND
Hayley Mills Sets Benefit
 Hayley Mills will appear in person at Ford Auditorium in the world premier of Walt Disney's latest film, "That Darn Cat." The comedy-thriller will be presented at 8:30 p.m. Nov. 12, by the Women's Committee of Camp Oakland.

Mrs. Ben D. Mills, chairman of the Women's Committee, says the performance is a benefit for the Oxford, Mich. Hayley Mills, who will appear in person at Ford Auditorium in the world premier of Walt Disney's latest film, "That Darn Cat." The comedy-thriller will be presented at 8:30 p.m. Nov. 12, by the Women's Committee of Camp Oakland.

Nineteen-year-old Hayley Mills and her mother, playwright and authoress Mary Hayley Bell Mills, will come to Detroit from the filming of a movie in Mexico. From here they will return to England, their home.

English actor John Mills is Hayley's father. "That Darn Cat" pictures Mills Mills as an imaginative young lady who, with the aid of her cat, solves a kidnapping robbery. This film has been selected by New York's Radio City Music Hall as its Christmas feature.

The world's first public performance of "That Darn Cat" is being presented through the cooperation of the United Artists Theatre.

Assisting Mrs. Mills with management are Mrs. Parbury F. Schmidt, John S. Kerr, Mrs. W. B. Calhoun, Mr. Mrs. William B. Chandler, Mr. Mrs. Robert J. Coughlin, Jr.

Tickets for the premier are available through representatives of the Women's Committee of Camp Oakland. They are also on sale at J. L. Hudson Ticket Agencies (Downtown, Northland, Eastland, Westland). Ford Auditorium office of First Federal Savings of Detroit and the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Detroit. Also at Camp Oakland provides a year-around home for boys and girls who would otherwise have no

'In White America'
To Appear at U of D
 U. of D. Town and Gown Celebrates Series.
 "In White America" is a highly charged drama which traces the Negro experience from slavery to the present through speeches and recollections presented exactly as they were originally spoken or written. The resulting chronicle is both moving and convincing.

The 1965-66 season of the Plymouth Guild opens with a hilarious Broadway comedy set in a decrepit mid-Victorian mansion at the edge of a dump.

Three soundtracks convolve their way into "Opal's" heart with intentions of doing her in, so they might collect on her insurance. However, fate steps in and complicates their well laid plans thus providing a surprising end.

Senior Citizens will be invited to "opening night" as guests of the Theatre Guild.

A little learning is a dangerous thing only when man decides to let it go at that.

Puppy Contest Ends Wednesday
 Kids you still have another week or until Nov. 3 to enter the Terrace Theatre's "Win A Puppy Contest."

To coincide with its showing of the Walt Disney film "Old Yeller," the Terrace and the Michigan Humane Society will award a puppy to the child submitting the best answer, in 25 words or less, to the question "Why should people be nice to puppies?"

Mail your answer to the Terrace Theatre at 30400 Plymouth Rd., Livonia.

Parent's consent is necessary in order to win the first prize.

The dog, who appears as Old Yeller, was originally purchased by the Terrace. Who knows, maybe a new movie star is currently residing in the Humane Society's kennel?

The best letter will be judged by William Marcus, manager of the Terrace; Frank Andrews, executive secretary of the Michigan Humane Society; Dr. John Gordon, owner of the Cardno Animal Hospital in Garden City; and Hap Sage, Observer Newspapers.

In addition to winning a puppy, the child submitting the best answer will receive: six months supply of Gaines Dog Re-Glue; one year of medical and preventative care at the Cardno Hospital; and a puppy bed, collar and leash from the AAA Dog and Pet Stores at Westland.

Royal Ballet Film Slates Livonia Date
 An evening with the royal ballet, starring the electrifying Dame Margot Fonteyn and Rudolf Nureyev, will be presented in Detroit on a two-day reserved seat performance engaged at the Livonia Cinema, Wednesday, Nov. 17 and Thursday, Nov. 18.

An evening and a matinee performance has been scheduled for each date at 2 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.

The full length technicolor film features four ballet highlights, "La Valse," "Les Sylphides," "Le Corsaire," and "Aurore's Wedding" from "The Sleeping Beauty." The performances were filmed at the Royal Opera House, Covent Garden, London.

Directed by the noted British film-maker Anthony Asquith and Anthony Havelock-Allan, who also produced the BHD Productions, also stars David Blair.
