

Come Along To England With Livonia Kiwanians

Second Central Kiwanis Travelogue at Franklin High School, Lecture Auditorium, Joy Road in Livonia, will be Sunday, Oct. 31 at 7:30 (sharp).

The Countryside of England will be brought—better than life—via Thayer Sound with his "Byways in Britain." There's a variety of windswept moors where wild ponies roam, where there are deep forests, mountain glens, neat farms and picturesque coastline. The villages dot the land with thatched cottages, stone houses and interesting churches.

The film shows the fascinating occupations such as working in silver and stained glass or making musical instruments. The Morris Dancers, boys racing the rolling cheeses and the running of the old steam train—all part of the wonderful evening in store for you on your visit to England.

For ticket information call Art Gotts, GA 1-0800.

Patricia Kale Married Oct. 9

Patricia Ann Kale became the bride of Gary David Rose on Oct. 9 at a candlelight ceremony at the Franklin Community Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kale of Plymouth, while Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rose of Detroit are the parents of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original Blanche gown. It was a long sleeved, belted, ivory satin with an empire midriff and chapel train. She carried a cascade of white roses.

Sandra Kale was her sister's maid of honor, while Connie Rose, Judy Banks and Mrs. Robert Annett served as bridesmaids.

They wore floor length empire gowns with green bodices and champagne colored skirts. Miss Kale carried light and deep yellow carnations and the attendants carried bouquets of light yellow carnations.

Nancy Greenhaw was the flower girl, while Edward Sholch served as the ring bearer.

Daniel Rose was his brother's best man, while Robert Rose, Robert Annett and Ronald Petaja acted as the groomsmen.

A reception at the church followed the ceremony. Guests from Grand Rapids, Traverse City, and Dayton, Ohio were in attendance.

The bride is a graduate of Bentley High School, while her husband graduated from Bedford High School.

Franklin Knolls Go the Yoga Way

The Franklin Knolls Woman's Club will meet Thursday, Nov. 4, at St. Coleman's Social Hall at 12 noon. Mrs. Elmer Leil has planned a lesson in Yoga demonstrated by Mrs. Ruth Gill and her assistants, in which all members will participate.

Mrs. James Laffer, second vice-president of the Woman's Club, arranged the October luncheon so well the members wish to extend our sincerest thanks.

Mrs. James Mooney chairman of this month will hostess this meeting with Mrs. Ray Sullivan, Mrs. Chris Bowles, Mrs. George Owen and Mrs. William Fay and serve a dessert after the lesson in Yoga.

The sewing group will meet to sew on cancer pads at the home of Mrs. Al Sobel 2570 Glenhurst at 12 noon and Mrs. Joseph Gibbons 32715 Briarcrest at 8:00 o'clock on Nov. 10th. White material is needed.

Teressa Sue Cloar

The engagement of Teressa Sue Cloar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Price C. Cloar of 120 Union St., Plymouth, to Alan L. Curtis is announced by her parents. Parents of the prospective bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Curtis of Ridge Road, Plymouth Township.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Plymouth High Class '65. She is employed by Mathematical Reviewers University of Michigan. Mr. Curtis is a graduate also of Plymouth High Class of '63. He attended Ferris State College and is employed at Bathey. A late January wedding is planned.
