

Farmington Socially Speaking

By JERRY WENDT
ITS A GIRL for Farmington's popular Dr. Lawrence Goldman and his wife. At seven weeks, Ellen Francis has the poise of a debutante, blue eyes and dark hair.

A HANGING PARCEMENT was made by the children in the Special Education Class this week. They took a two foot piece of wax paper, folded it over a dowel. Then carefully placed a colorful collection of autumn leaves on the paper.

Next a hot iron was pressed on the paper and the leaves. Last a skin of yarn with two thumb tacks on each end. Presto, a colorful parchement to hang on the wall.

IT'S OFFICIAL. SATURDAY WILL BE Halloween. In addition to the trick or treat crowd, there will be several Halloween parties.

THE FARMINGTON JUNIOR Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a Halloween Dance for teens Saturday night, Oct. 30, at the Farmington Senior High School on Shawassee Ave. DISC Jockey Johnny Fen of Radio Station WFOV Pontiac will provide the music. There will be no admission charge.

THE TOPS CLUB will hold its annual Halloween party at the First Methodist Church on Thursday, Oct. 28. There will be a masquerade, games, and a low calorie buffet.

MR. WOODCREEKERS will start to gather at 4 p.m. Saturday at Westmont Court Circle for the round of fun events that have been planned for them.

PAM LOVE and LINDA JUNE will co-hostess a Halloween party on Saturday, Oct. 23, at the Love residence on Thorny Brae. Nearly 40 teenagers will gather. A scavenger hunt and a teen age buffet featuring hot dogs, cokes, etc. are just a few of the plans in store.

MEMBERS OF THE HOBBY CLUB had their annual progressive dinner. Mary and Bill Lowery served cocktails and tapas at their home on Thorny Brae to start the ball rolling.

Next a selection of salads and hot breads at the home of Paul and Ariana Mosher. Standing rib roast, fried chicken, and other items formed the main course at Stan and Wanda Gzik's.

The club wound up the evening with dessert and coffee and dancing at the home of Betty and Gary Munro on Peppercorn. Attending the fun filled and calorie laden evening were Ray and Norma Eckley; Irene and Fred Malkin; Jo and Kathy Ziska; Paul and Barbara Karbell; Harry and Betty Anderson; Marg and Frank Tuversen; Lucy and John Pertz; Jerry and Theda Thayer.

OUR LADY OF SORROWS is holding a class on the history of the Church. It will continue for nine weeks. Father Lachl will conduct the church class. It is titled "The Protestant and Catholic Reformation." Everyone is welcome.

SATURDAY NIGHT WAS DANCE NIGHT for Farmingtonites. St. Alexander's held their fifth anniversary dance at Roma Hall. Fred Day supplied the music. There was a lavish buffet of roast beef, chicken, ham, spaghetti, and pizza.

MEANWHILE, OUR LADY OF SORROWS held their annual "Parish Mixer," a get acquainted dance, at the church parish hall. "The Million-Aires" supplied the music and they danced until one o'clock.

ALTHOUGH AUTUMN is well on its way, the Garden Clubs are still flourishing. Harper Woods Garden Club presented "My Country 'Tis of Thee" a flower show in honor of Columbus Day.

THE JOHN F. KENNEDY MEMORIAL LIBRARY in HARPER WOODS was the site of the show. Mrs. Bob Hastings took third place in the "one member luncheon."

HILL AND DALE took a place ribbon for its Williamsburg 18th century table. Plates in deep red with white background were used. The centerpiece was red and white sumac.

IN THE JUNIOR DIVISION, Koonle Kustro, Karol Kustro and Pam Hastings took honors. "CUP OF FLOWERS" division again brought Koonle and Karol second place.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY to the Al Smalls—all four of them. Oct. 23 is the birthday of Al Small, Jr. Oct. 24 is the birthday of Al Small, Sr., Al Small III, and Mrs. Al Small. The Senior Smalls are in Florida so the usual big family celebration will wait until their return. Al Small is the general Farmington and Redford Observer circulation manager.

'Exercise' Ragweed Fireman Apprentice Ronald R. Conkright, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin T. Conkright, 2016 Gilman, Livonia, participated in First Fleet Training exercise "Ragweed," while serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Kitty Hawk.
