

PTA NEWS

Farmington

A meeting will be held on Thursday, Nov. 4, 8 p.m., at the Mile School, the topic to discuss the upcoming school election.

Vernon Fisher, Trustee of the Farmington School Board will answer questions following his presentation.

After the discussion, the 5th graders under the direction of Mrs. Marilyn VanWagner will demonstrate how music is taught to the students of the Mile School. Songs of the coming Thanksgiving season will be the theme of this musical presentation.

HIGHMEADOW

With the announcement that the American Education Week is Nov. 5-12, the children of Highmeadow School have invited their parents to Open House on Nov. 9th at 7:00.

The teachers will be in the class rooms to welcome and talk with parents. The students will have samples of their work on display and a "pass" into the work books offered for enlightening. The Highmeadow Band will present a few numbers to illustrate some of the work done by the Music Department this year.

A guest speaker from the Board of Education will discuss the coming election and the guiding genius of democracy. The National Education Association, reminds each citizen that good schools, his own responsibility.

President Johnson has called education a "prime investment" and the guiding genius of democracy. The National Education Association, reminds each citizen that good schools, his own responsibility.

BEECHVIEW
Approximately 500 parents attended the October PTA meeting and open house at Beechview Elementary School. During the meeting, Leland Clifford, president of the Farmington Board of Education, explained the millage proposals on the November election ballot, and Gerald V. Harrison, superintendent of schools, joined him in answering questions on this subject.

President William Flattery introduced the Beechview PTA committee chairman for the 1965-66 school year. They are: vice and mens, Katherine Whitte; program, Harold Shipley; membership, Barbara Shaw; hospitality, Joyce Smith; publicity, Jerry Moore; safety, Donald Stewart.

Donald Stewart, magazine, Edward Klein, health, Catherine Howard, historian, Sandra Flattery, legislative, Sanford Bloomberg, stamp, Marvella McEachern, greeter, Betty Kaler.

Kenneth C. Lachmann, principal, introduced the Beechview teaching staff. It was announced that Mrs. Yvonne McInerney is the new teacher vice-president.

The next Beechview PTA meeting will be held on Monday, Nov. 15.

LONGACRE

Parents of children attending Longacre Elementary School are invited to attend Open House, Wednesday, Nov. 10, at 8 p.m.

Many items on display have been made by the students showing their progress during the school year. Open House is an excellent opportunity for mothers and fathers to view their children's work, see the school's facilities and meet the principal, Walter Jablonski and his staff of teachers.

In prior years there has always been a general business meeting of the PTA held before the Open House began. This year in conjunction with their policy of exploring new and exciting ideas and fields for projects, the PTA Board has decided NOT to hold a business meeting during Open House. Parents will meet as usual in the multi-purpose room of the school where Mr. Jablonski will deliver a short welcoming speech and introduce his staff of teachers.

In addition one of the administrators and a member of the Board of Education of the Farmington School District will talk on the coming school election Nov. 15th.

The exciting and magical aura of the circus has enveloped the halls and classrooms of Longacre this past week. The "best circus film ever made" will be shown on Friday, Nov. 5 at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of Longacre and is sponsored by the PTA.

WOODDALE
Wooddale parents are looking forward to the annual PTA open house to be held at the school on Tuesday, Nov. 9 at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Barbara Brown, member of the Board of Education, will begin the evening with a discussion of the three school election proposals to be put before the voters of the Farmington Public School District on Nov. 15.

Following her talk, parents will adjourn to their children's classrooms for interesting presentations by the teachers and a look at their children's work. Before leaving for home, everyone is invited to pause for refreshments in the cafeteria.

WESTBROOK

The October meeting of the Westbrook Parents Teachers Association proved to be very informative for parents attending. Mrs. Evelyn Nikorak, president, announced W. Mills and Mrs. Eleanor Poulson are to be delegates to the PTA Council. She also announced there would be a continuation of the sale of U.S. saving stamps. The stamps will be sold by volunteers, Mrs. Hazel Lambert and Mrs. Betty Fleming, starting today, Wednesday, Nov. 3.

PTA urges parents to help youngsters participate in the regular habit of buying Saving Stamps and encourages savings.

Mrs. Rosemary Pearson, Health Chairman, gave a short message on the dangers of poisons and overdoses of common medicines such as aspirin. The meeting was turned over to Jim Hollingsworth, sixth grade teacher, Mrs. Patricia Victory, fourth grade and Mrs. Norma Klismet, helping teachers for their program on "Creative Teaching." Emphasis was on how parents can motivate the child in the home and how to improve parent-teacher-child relationship. Parents were encouraged to read with and to their children at an early age. The teachers explained the school program to provide enrichment which interest and challenge students.

Sixth grade class won the PTA award for the month. Mrs. Rose's fifth grade class has purchased an art farm with their award money from last month.

Trick, Treat Then Terror In Township

At about 8 p.m. on Friday, Mrs. Bernard G. Golden heard a voice from outside her home at 29700 West 13 Mile Road, holler: "Trick or Treat."

She opened her door partially, to where the safety latch barred its opening further. Looking out, she was startled at the size of the three masked young men facing her.

She attempted to slam the door in their faces. But they smashed it open. Two of them were brandishing pistols.

They bound Mrs. Golden and her two daughters—Judith, 19, and Susan, 11—with rope and tape. Then they proceeded to rob them of $7,500 in cash and jewelry.

Mr. Golden came in at this time. He attempted to make a fight of it. But one of the youths pressed a gun into him.

Tree Spraying Causes Accident

Two drivers were injured at the intersection of Grand River and Middlebelt last week, when, according to Farmington Township Police, one of them failed to stop for a traffic signal. He blamed a befogged windshield for his oversight.

The driver, Harvo Jan Isbill, struck a car driven by Richard Williams and Cox, of 15676 Deering, Livonia. The vision obscured by tree spraying, being done by the County.

HALLOWEEN COSTUMES BROUGHT A Fay Petchuk, Barbara Okrutsky, Carol Simone, Cathy Wornak, Louise Rein, Rita Reedy and Ann Kip. This is an annual event for the Lana Beauticians and both the customers and the operators look forward to the fun.

Gourmet Visit Epicurian Poland

The Geographic Gourmet Club, consisting of food and fun loving suburbanites, took a gastronomic trip downtown last week to Martins Restaurant near the Chene market where they enjoyed such Polish specialties as mizeria, kielbasa po Warzawski, fried miltail, pierzoki sera, and cruciaki.

These items translated into everyday American were cumulated with such items as sausage, hunter stew, cheese dumplings, and angels wings.

Representing Garden City, Livonia, Farmington, Plymouth, Redford and other western suburbs, 35 care-free men and women ate a generous family style dinner from red and white checked table cloths consisting of fermented rye soup, herring, pigs feet, sauerkraut, pickled beef, buckwheat sausage, stuffed cabbage, braised beef with Warsaw mushroom sauce, stuffed Ukrainian dumplings, and many other Polish specialties.

Topping off the desserts were cheese, plum and appleauce blintzes, Polish coffee cake, light pastries, and cheese cake.

Martins Restaurant, long a favorite haunt of circumnavigator George Pierrot and Slavic area professors from Wayne State University is run by Louis

Paul Lutzeizer, who coordinate the activities of the group, said the epicurian adventures hoped to take a gastronomic trip to Italy next followed by an excursion into the gypsy violin, zither, and chicken poprikash world of Hungary.

Farmington Will Offer Chest X-Ray

The Oakland County Health Dept., in conjunction with the City of Farmington and the Downtown Farmington Shopping Center, has scheduled a mobile test and x-ray unit for Farmington from Monday, Nov. 8 through Wednesday, Nov. 10.

The unit will be located next to the Farmington Board of Commerce Building, at 3311 Grand River and Grove Street, in the northwest corner of the shopping center parking lot. On Monday it will be open from noon to 2 p.m., and from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. On Tuesday and Wednesday, it will be open from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., and 2 p.m. to 6 p.m.

The tests are intended to discover diabetes as well as TB.

Monoxide Kills Two From Twp.

Two residents of Farmington Township, and a companion died in their sleep, on Friday, Oct. 29. The two Farmington residents, Mrs. Mary Ann Lyman, and Ernest J. Knight, 16, of 29089 Ravenscroft, were on a bow-hunting trip. Karle's 17 year old son, Jack, was hospitalized. He slept through the fatal night, and woke up in the morning. He went back to sleep until late in the afternoon. When he woke up for the second time, he discovered that his father and his friend were dead.

Farmington High 1956 Graduates Plan Reunion

Plans are now being made for the 10 year reunion of the class of 1956 of Farmington High School. Tentative plans call for organizing a committee to work this fall on contacting class members and making necessary arrangements for a spring get-together.

Dave Harrison, Mary Giffin Beattie, Judy Dwyer Robinson, Jerry Wheeler, Nick Siefert, and Don and Alice Nichols are serving as members of the organizing committee. The committee is now attempting to make a mailing list for the 130 member class.

Members of the Class of 1956 who live in the Farmington-Livonia area are asked to contact Don and Alice Nichols at GR 6-3879.

Rob TV Store

Morrell's TV Service, 32623 Grand River, was broken into last week. Six TV sets were removed.

250 Attend Buckingham Fall Dance

Two hundred fifty people attended Buckingham Village Civic Association's annual fall dance held Oct. 23 at Roma Hall.

George T. Troy and his Gay Tones provided the music for both dancing and dining.

Highlight of the evening was when George Klindred, past president of Livonia's Federation of Civic Associations called out the winners of 17 door prizes.

Civic Association president, Fred Hotchkins said dance chairman Lee Ora Kerstein and the social committee "did a marvelous job on promoting the dance and decorating the hall and tables with fresh cut flowers in the fall theme. The dance was without a doubt a success and profitable for B.V.C.A."

Plans for the President's Ball to be held April 30, again at Roma Hall are under way.

Bowling Alley Is Robbed Big

The Country Lanes of Farmington, 36300 Nine Mile Road, was broken into during the early morning hours of Oct. 22. According to Farmington Township Police, a door was pried open. Police say approximately $2,079 in cash and checks was removed.
