Senior Play at Thurston

By LYNN BARNETT

Tickets went on sale Wednesday, Nov. 3, for the all-school play "The Great Big Doorstep." The cost is 75 cents for students and $1 for adults. There is a special Thursday night rate of 50 cents for students. The play will take place in the little auditorium Nov. 11, 12, and 13.

Thurston had two big sales last week, Nov. 2 and 3. The recipients of the profits were the French Club and the sophomore class.

Pictures of clubs and organizations were taken Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 8 and 9 for Thurston's 1965 "Vita" yearbook.

The Homecoming game of the "Eagle Outlook" was on Nov. 3. It consisted of eight pages of 25 pictures of the festive Homecoming's week-end.

School was recessed November 4 and 5 for the annual Teacher Institute. The teachers met at Cobb Hall Thursday and at different schools in Wayne County on Friday.

WIDE-AYAKE SLIDE-SHOWING

One way of measuring the success of a slide show is to count the number of watchers who are still awake at the end of it. One proved-effective way to accomplish this feat is to keep the show moving along snappily. No distracting, boring, apologetic pauses to unstick a stuck slide.

The one sure way to know if you guarantee a pause-proof slide show is to use a KODAK CAROUSEL Projector. Now, if you shudder at the potential pain in your pocketbook because of this suggestion, it's because you haven't been watching our camera counter regularly enough. It's true that a KODAK CAROUSEL Projector used to be a pretty hefty investment. Worth every penny, because it gave you unbeatable Kodak quality, positively jamproof slide-showing, remote control over forward, reverse, and focus, and automatically-timed slide changing, but pretty hefty.

But it recently occurred to someone that many people didn't need or want all this automatic fancy stuff. So, while the Kodak folk were busy redesigning their projector to a streamlined, compact, handsome little brute, they also added a couple of models for those of us with simpler tastes. The solid construction is the same, so is the jamproof, 80-slide round tray. But the price, depending on the features you want, are very, very much lower.

And if your budget is still too slim, or your slide requirements less demanding, you can still have Kodak quality in the KODAK READYMATIC 300 Slide Projector—it doesn't even need trays! See one, see them all, start putting on better slide shows.

BULLETINS FROM BENTLEY:

Surprise Pep Assembly Given for 'Bulldogs'

By SUE DOWELL

Bentley high school likes to give surprises. The student body surprised the Bulldog football team last Thursday afternoon while they were practicing for their final game of the season.

It was a pep assembly that helped to get the students as well as the team in good spirits for Friday night. Mr. Webster served as host while the cheerleaders helped get things under way. A pep band also took part in making the afternoon a big success.

Just about every Tuesday after school, over 100 Bentley students take part in a club that involves only fun and singing—Folk Singing group. Last year the club started out with less than 20 members and now has well over 100 with more joining all the time.

During the Folk Singing club meetings many solos are sung by students like Leigh Manning, Jack Nichols, Dave Mondell, and Jeff Soehlin.

Officers for this year's club have been chosen but Sue Eggen has been doing a good job of keeping the club in hand.

Miss Register, one of the teachers at Bentley has been kind enough to be sponsor of such a fun club.

"Uniques" is the theme of this year's Yearbook. It is the time when all Bentley students are given the opportunity to order yearbooks.

The books are on sale now and will continue until Nov. 22. The price for a copy will be $3.75.

For those Seniors who wish to have their name engraved in gold on their yearbooks an additional 50c will be charged.

The cover of the Yearbook will also be unique. It will consist of a white cover with green lines running through the white. The main attraction will be a gold seal surrounded by two hands.

LIVONIA GROUP REORGANIZES:

Urge Strong Citizen Involvement in School Board Advisory Council

Building a broadly based citizens' committee in the Livonia School District is the goal of the newly reorganized School Board Advisory Council, which held its official meeting last Wednesday in the Board of Education offices.

Committees on school construction and maintenance, and federal-state involvement in Livonia public education were formed, officers were elected, bylaws were ratified and purposes, projects and goals of the citizens' group were discussed.

The Council's steering committee urged interested groups to send delegates to its next meeting, Wednesday, Dec. 15, at 8 p.m. in the Board of Education building, 15125 Farmington Rd.

"We want to have the broadest base of representation possible in the district," a statement issued by the Council said, "and we urge each PTA, civic association, service club, church and school district employees' organization to select a delegate and alternate."

Names should be sent to membership chairman Connie Hietala, 29193 Brody, Garden City, or telephone her at 422-8711.

President of the Council is George Kindred of 4357 Arden. Kindred has served as Federation of Livonia Civic Association charter president and as a sub-committee chairman of the Citizens Advisory Committee for Community Improvement. He and his wife are parents of three children, two currently in Livonia schools, and a third who will enroll next fall.

"I am vitally interested in quality education and educational improvement of our excellent school system," he said. "I believe the Council delegates have selected a steering committee that is dedicated and will work diligently toward that end. I want to commend the School Board for its support, and particularly its statements that it was not reforming the group to push future school bond votes."

Other officers elected are: vice-president, Morris O. Stein, 14609 Country Club Drive,

THESE COLORFUL POSTERS advertising the United Nations were among more than 100 prepared by Livonia high school students to mark UN Month, just concluded. The prize-winning entries in the citywide contest belong to Greg Gorham, 15, 37025 Parkhurst; and Jane Lounsbury, 15, 30276 W. Seven Mile, both 10th graders at Stevenson High.

ST. AGATHA ACCENTS:

Gomez, Morticia Take First Prize

By MARY LOU MANGOLD

"Shil Life" a costume party hosted by the junior class, was held on Oct. 29, from 8:30 to 11:30 in the school gym.

In place of the usual costume party, one ordinarily expects to meet at a school dance, a variety of shrouds from the sophomore, junior and senior classes attended the affair. Gomez and Morticia Adams, usually known as Dennis Willstock and Christine Kessler took first prize of $5 for the most original costumes.

Dennis Phillips, as a shining silver robot complete with flashing lights, won a special $5 for his costume.

Thurston Slates Parent Confabs

Thurston High School's parent-teacher conference, scheduled this fall for Nov. 15, 16, and 17, received state-wide publicity in the November issue in the Michigan Education Association Journal, official publication of more than 80,000 Michigan teachers.

Written by Assistant Principal Helen Ditzhazy and Eldon Hamm, Journalism teacher at Thurston, the article describes the plan initiated by Principal Frank Bloch wherein parents can come to school and see all of their children's teachers at one time without pre-arranged formal appointment.

Bloch again urges parents to come whenever it is convenient on either a Monday or Wednesday afternoon or Tuesday evening.

Where possible, he indicated, it will be helpful if the following schedule can be followed:

Nov. 15—1:00-1:30 A-B; 1:30-2:00 C-D; 2:00-2:30 E-G; 2:30-3:00 H-I; 2:45-3:15 K-L. Nov. 16—7:00-7:30 A-C; 7:30-8:00 D-G; 8:00-8:30 H-M; 8:30-9:00 N-T; 8:45-9:15 U-Z. Nov. 17—1:00-1:30 M-O; 1:30-2:00 P-R; 2:00-2:30 S; 2:30-3:00 T; 2:45-3:15 U-Z.

kin to Captain Crunch—proved most popular. Hell's Angels—alias the Senior boys—also captivated the notice of those in attendance.

A hotpotato, sponsored by the senior YCS, took place on Sunday evening. All St. Agatha students were invited, as well as those from Our Lady of Sorrows, Farmington, and the catholicism class members.

Christ the King crowning took place on Friday, Oct. 29. The ceremony opened with a procession into Church by the senior Young Christian Students—Christopher Berger, Daniel Kuryla, Gregory Brewer, Kenneth Krupansky, Daniel Gilis, Gerry Kaminski, Robert Garber, Patrick Murphy, John Marshall, Edward Schrock, Terry Dillon, Joseph Wenzelak, and John Harvey—in green caps and gowns.

An Act of Consecration to Christ the King, Scripture reading, crowning by Y.C.S. president John Harvey, rosary, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament completed the program.

Next Friday is "Be Kind to a Teacher Day." Students will choose a special teacher to be especially helpful to.

A Paper Drive is being held this week, on Wednesday and Thursday. The sophomore class is in charge of this activity.

On Saturday, Oct. 30, seven members of the Future Teachers Club attended the annual F.T.A. which was held at the University of Detroit.
