

Mme Chennault's Northville Town Hall Guest, Nov. 18

Northville Town Hall will have as their second speaker Mme. Claire Chennault at 8 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 18 at 11 a.m. Mme. Chennault is wife of the famous General of the Flying Tigers of World War II. She will bring a "Report from the Far East."

Luncheon will follow the Town Hall speaker at Meadowbrook Country Club. For reservations call Mrs. Duane Butler, 348-0248.

Membership Lunch

The Faculty Women's Club of the University of Michigan, Dearborn Campus held their annual Membership Luncheon at historic Eotford Inn on Nov. 9. Attending the luncheon were Mesdames Beecher, Boffi, Cox, Cairns, Crafton, Dempsey, DeWitt, Despres, Eldot, Emerson, Fricke, Halkhor, Helm, Higgs, Jacobs, Kurekjian, Little, Rieck, Schroth, Simon, Stirtan, Verhey, Volke, Wallace, Young, Carlsen, Polk.

Talk Charm

Garden City Business and Professional women will hold their regular meeting Thursday, Nov. 18 (which is one week early on account of Thanksgiving) at the Roma Hall, 6:30 p.m. buffet dinner.

Program to be conducted by Carol Maxon, who is a graduate of the John Robert Powers school and the National Bridal Service.

The Personal Development program will cover posture, make-up, clothes, jewelry, etc. In charge are the chairman Helen Smith, and co-chairmen Alice Kay, Marla Scott, Edna Goss and Dolores Giddings. All members are urged to attend and visitors are welcome.

Hi-Lights of Europe Brought to Nankin

The Nankin Business and Professional Women's Club held their meeting Monday, Nov. 9 at Hillside Inn, Plymouth. Pinch-hitting for Mrs. Ray Muer, (who was unable to attend due to an emergency) was Miss Marian Houten.

Miss Houten entertained the guests with a recital of her recent three week trip to Europe. The trip had many highlights, the Louvre, Petty Palace in France, the ski-lifts in Switzerland. In Italy she saw the Vatican and witnessed the college of Cardinals marching into the cathedral to begin a council session.

Also outstanding was the reunion with a pen pal at Deventer, Holland which was arranged thru the Dutch Council. Scheduled for the next meeting is a discussion of a choice of a more suitable day to hold a meeting.

TB is a contagious disease. Christmas Seals help find ways to prevent it from spreading.

Ann Marlene Ridings Married in Livonia

A double ring candlelight ceremony at St. Matthews Church, Livonia, was the setting for the Oct. 2 marriage of Ann Marlene Ridings to Joseph William Sutschek. Rev. John Grenfell officiated at the ceremony.

Parents of the newweds are Mrs. and Mrs. Verchow Ridings of Farmington and Mrs. Joseph W. Sutschek and the late Mr. Sutschek of Long Island, New York.

The bride chose a floor length gown of traditional bridal satin with a scalloped neckline, long sleeves and a chapel train. She carried a cascade of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Barbara Cutler was the maid of honor, while Pat Wells and Heidi Matthias were bridesmaids. They wore floor length empire styled gowns with moss green long sleeved velvet bodices and vanilla crepe skirts. Their flowers were bronze nuns.

MRS. VANCE JOHNSON, 7556 North Hawthorne, Wayne, displays some of the attractive items that will be made at the Christmas Workshop, sponsored by the Stottlemeyer Elementary School P.T.A. The workshop will take place at the school, located at 34100 Marquette Rd., Nankin Township, starting at 8:00 p.m. Date: Tuesday, Dec. 7. Mrs. Johnson, Chairman of the workshop and her committee will demonstrate how to assemble the decorations.
