Last Chance To Be A 1965 Red Cross Blood Donor

Every eight weeks, but not more than five times a year, one can donate blood to the Red Cross. (And, many people do!) Have you donated ONE pint yet? During the month of December you have the opportunity to catch up on last year's resolution to make at least one visit to the nearest Red Cross bloodmobile. Better yet, bring a friend too. Particularly one who has never given before.

The next Red Cross bloodmobile will visit Livonia on Thursday, December 16, between the hours of 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. Hosting this bloodmobile is the Northwest Service Office, ARC, 31223 Five Mile Rd., Livonia.

For an appointment call 422-2787.

It's Got To Be The Largest Christmas Mural

When Tina and Nick Ristich of 1423 Arden, Livonia plan a party for their friends and relatives they really go all out in preparation for a memorable evening.

A few weeks ago, friends and relatives of the Ristichs received a specially written poem, inviting them to attend a party, Saturday, Dec. 11. In the meantime, Nick and Tina decided to paint a mural on their 42 ft wall in the basement. Slowly, and entire village began to take shape. Santa and his sleigh, are constructed of cardboard, and stand out from the wall. Santa has a cotton beard, felt gloves and shoe button eyes.

Two year old Krista and 7 month old Lisa weren't able to be much actual help but watched the proceedings in wide-eyed admiration.

There will be a Christmas buffet. Hams, roasted sausages, potato salad, Macedonian style baked beans, jello molds, cole slaw and of course loads of punch will be on the menu.

Over 60 guests are expected to attend.

Family Christmas Program At Southfield Church

"Christmas with Christ" is the emphasis of the Christmas Season at Southfield Community Church, 21122 Indian Street (between Beech and Inkster, North of Eight Mile) according to Pastor Raymond Bayne.

First event was a Christmas Concert by the combined choirs of over 100 youth. Second event will be the Annual Bible School Family Christmas Program on Dec. 18th at 7:00. This will include all the departments of the Sunday Bible School and their parents.

Heart of the program will be a telling of the Christmas story itself by Mrs. Raymond Bayne, using large and beautifully colored flannelgraph figures. Each of the departments will share in the telling by having parts in the various stages of the story.

Following carol singing by the audience, candy treats will be given to all the children.

Decorations for this lovely event have been prepared by Mrs. Marjorie Pike, Mrs. Arleen Miles, and Mrs. Doreen Martigan. Mrs. Pike is chairman of the Program Committee, arranging the program for the evening.

The third event will be a Christmas Workshop Service at 11:00 p.m. Christmas Eve in the form of a Christmas Candlelight Carol Program. In a candlelight setting, carol singing, special music, and meditations of the meaning of Christmas will be held.

Each of the youth choirs will go carolling to the homes of shut-ins, rest homes, and other places.

Dec. 28th will be the annual Student Night Service at 7 p.m. with the College students of the church taking part.

New Year's Eve will be celebrated from 8:45 until midnight with the famous film, "The Tony Fontaine Story" followed by the Watchnight Service at which Rev. Orland Thompson will speak.
